NATIVES IN HOT BATTLE ON TRUSTEES

Eight Candidates Seeking Honor, All But Three of Whom Already Are on the List; Seven to Be Chosen

Program for Last Work of Grand Parlor

TONIGHT:

6:30 P. M.—Banquet to delegates, grand officers and guests at Hotel Oakland.

THURSDAY:

9:30 A. M.—Grand Parlor session.

1:30 P. M.—Outing on bay from foot of Broadway and returning to Key Route pier about 4:30 p. m.

8:00 P M.—Class initiation in Shrine auditorium.

While there was no business session in progress today and the program for the 45th annual grand parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, was given over to outing and relaxation, thoughts of the some 1500 members of the order here centered on the election of grand officers which will be held Friday, the convention's closing day.

Additional indications that the election of grand officers would follow a lengthy political battle between almost equally strong factions developed today when it became known that there would be contests for the selection of the seven trustees of the order. Eight names for grand trustees, seven of which will be chosen for offices, were nominated late in yesterday's business session.

CANDIDATES FOR GRAND TRUSTEE.

E. F. Garrison, Oakland, by Grand Second Vice-President Wm. J. Hayes.

James A. Wilson, San Francisco, by Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington.

With the exception of Millington, Garrison and Postel, all of the nominees for grand trustees are candidates for re-election.

SANTA BARBARA GETS NEXT MEET.

Santa Barbara will be the scene of the 1923 grand parlor meeting. This was decided before the session adjourned late yesterday, not to convene again until Thursday. Both the Sacramento and San Francisco delegations, which until the last minute waged a spirited battle to capture the next convention for their respective cities, withdrew at the eleventh hour in favor of Santa Barbara. This was done with the understanding that the Santa Barbara delegation would join Sacramento to secure the grand parlor for 1924 and San Francisco in securing the convetnion in 1925.

From the standpoint of actual business, yesterday afternoon's session was the livest since the convening of the grand parlor, and the meeting did not adjourn until 5 o'clock. Several resolutions were brought up before the grand body for action and a large amount of annual business was disposed of.

FIGHT WAGED ON DREDGER MINING.

After a bitter fight, an indorsement presented to the grand parlor in the form of a resolution by the Sacramento delegation protesting against the dredging of land on the Sacramento and American rivers by a mining company was defeated. The resolution, which was introduced in hope of getting the order to go on record as opposing the operations of the company, was turned down by a vote of 144 to 99.

The history of the indorsement, which had been expected to come before the grand parlor for some time, concerns the atomas Dredging and Mining company, which is engaged in operating dredgers along the Folsom road. While the land where the company is at work is owned and controlled by the mining company, the Sacramento delegation declared that the earth is being re-deposited by the dredges in such a manner as to deface the surrounding country.

LAWMAKERS ASKED TO END DREDGING.

It is claimed that the good soil is being returned under the stones, leaving the boulders on top. The resolution asked that "the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the

THREE MINUTE TALES

by Ad Schuster

THE MILE-RUNNER

BY all the signs Tom Inman, mile-runner, should have been the happiest man in the State University. He was the most popular, was picked as a sure winner in the conference meet, and believed himself in love with the two prettiest girls in college. It was Spring when the track men took to the cinder path in their abbreviated clothes and this was Tom's fourth year. He had dreamed a glorious close of his college career, of a mile record broken, a diploma and an engagement. Now there was an end to the dream.

"Inman," the coach had said that afternoon, "you'll have to see the doctor and get his consent before you run another race." Behind an attempt at offhand speech the coach covered his fear that the best athlete was to be taken from him in the time of need. Tom met his eyes with understanding.

"It's only once more," said the runner and he walked off feeling in his heart that his racing days were over. "I wonder how he guessed," he mused dolefully as he made his way to the physician's office in the gymnasium.

When the doctor rendered an emphatic refusal Tom was crushed. He would tell Dorothy and Bess, he decided, before the word was spread around college. They would understand.

"Oh, Tom," Dorothy exclaimed with quick response. "You will lose the chance to be champion, to break that record! You must run, just once more. If I were a man I'd find a way."

Bess looked at the big man and said she was sorry. Then she changed the subject, thinking to cheer him with an account of the festivities planned for commencement week.

"I GUESS she doesn't understand what it means to a fellow to be scrapped just when the big chance comes," the runner said to himself as he walked to his room. "Somehow, I thought she would care more than Dorothy."

The word that Tom Inman was out of athletics spread gloom over the campus. It reached into distant cities bringing serious discussions among the alumni and joy to the rival camps. Influential men brought pressure to bear on Coach Ward and the university physician. One of them, a prominent doctor, made a trip, examined the athlete, and won his point. It was decided, grudgingly, on the morning of the meet, that Tom could run.

A surprised crowd cheered for joy when he took his place and dug his spiked shoes in the cinders for the start. He saw Dorothy jumping for delight and waving him encouragement. Bess looked almost reproachful.

"I'll win," Tom said. "I'll break the record, too, for Dorothy!"

The group jumped off with the pistol, Tom setting the pace. Ordinarily he would have waited to take the lead but it was a record he was after and there must be no lagging in the first half. The others followed close.

With his head up and his arms barely moving at his sides, Tom put his heart and mind into the task of timing and holding his powerful stride. Men began to lag at the first quarter and when the half-mile was reached there was but three left who counted. Tom never knew how he ran the rest of that race. He realized vagely that a frail youth with a blue stripe on his jersey was clinging to his heels, that a queer pain was spreading within him. He needed all of his will to drive his legs in the mechanical, piston-like, movements. The pain was at his waistline. It was as if he were petrifying there. At the last hundred yards the other runner loosed a sprint and Tom wondering, felt his own muscles respond.

"MY wind is still good," he exulted and he threw all of his strength into the finish. He had no thought of record and did not hear the cheers. Men were waiting to catch him. Nerve and instinct carried him to them. He did not even feel the tape as it broke on his chest and proclaimed him winner.

The two girls visited him a week later when the doctor said he would recover.

"Oh, Tom, it was great of you. I am so proud," exclaimed Dorothy. "You broke the record!"

"Record?" the weak lad thought, "that's right. I must have. Funny, though, it should seem so wonderful."

Bess put her hand on his forehead. "You should not have run, you know," she said with soft reproval. "It was splendid, but oh, it was a cruel chance to take."

The big boy smiled happily at the gentle scolding and the mothering concern of the girl.

"Bess," he said, taking her hand, "I did it for you."

Mountain View Student, 17, Called Away From Party and Is Seriously Wounded by Sunday-school Mate

Child Under Arrest Said by Police to Have Confessed Act; Youths at Reception Tell of Seeing Shooting

Special to The TRIBUNE.

SAN JOSE, April 19.—Harold Galloway, 17-year-old Mountain View High school boy, lies today at the point of death with a bullet in his abdomen, as the result of a shooting affair last night at a party of young folks, when Irene Granstedt, 14-year-old High school girl, called him from the party into the yard and shot him.

Not until this morning did the friends of both the young people confess to the authorities that they saw Miss Granstedt shoot. Last night they carried Galloway into the house where the party was in progress, and when the police arrived declared that the bullet came from a source unknown to them.

The scene of the shooting was at the home of Orfa Miller, in Mountain View, where both Miss Granstedt and Galloway live.

BOTH ARE MEMBERS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL.

According to the police, both young people are members of the Methodist church Sunday school class, and it was at one of the classes that they first met. They became attached to one another, and members of the church prevailed upon the parents of both to keep them apart. Galloway's father, a rancher near Mountain View, forbade his son to go out with the girl again.

Last night, for the first time since his father issued the edict, young Galloway invited another girl to attend a party. It is said that Miss Granstedt was not invited.

About 11 o'clock she is alleged to have gone to the home of Curtis Forgan, a boy friend, where she borrowed an automatic pistol. She next appeared at the party and summoned one of the guests, asking that young Galloway be sent into the yard.

FRIENDS HEAR SHOT FIRED AFTER WORDS.

Expecting a quarrel, several of Galloway's friends followed to listen. They heard a few words and then the shot. They ran forward and found Galloway lying on the lawn. He was picked up and carried into the house, later being taken to the Mountain View hospital. Miss Granstedt is said to have fled as soon as the shot was fired. When the police arrived those who now claim to have witnessed the shooting declared that they did not know who fired the shot.

LITTLE HOPE HELD FOR BOY'S RECOVERY.

Galloway was later removed to the San Mateo hospital, where little hope is held out for his recovery. His intestines were penetrated in nine places, doctors say.

Miss Granstedt was today taken into custody by the sheriff's office and is being held at the home of her parents. She said Galloway had promised to marry her, and that suddenly he came to her with the declaration that he "was through." She said she learned of the other girl with whom he went to the party, and at once went to the scene of the party.

Two Hurt by Auto Driven by Officer

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—One man was injured seriously, if not fatally, and a second was badly hurt when an automobile driven by a police officer ran into a crowd of workmen repairing car tracks at Market and Eleventh streets at 2:30 this morning. Those hurt were:

Rafael Poffanclli, 838 Florida street, fractured arm.

Patrolman J. O. Clasby was driving his automobile out Market street on his way home, 1559 Church street, when he ran into the men. He says, according to the police report, that he turned to avoid another machine and his car was thrown over in the direction of the workmen before he could stop.

Plane Wreck Halts Trans-ocean Flight

PERNAMBUCO, Brazil, April 19.—Owing to an accident to their Faiery hydro-aeroplane, the Portuguese aviators must abandon or indefinitely delay their trans-Atlantic flight, according to a wireless message received here today.

The flyers had reached St. Paul's Rocks, in mid-Atlantic, after completing a 900-mile hop, the longest and most perilous of their voyage from Portugal to Brazil. They were reported in wireless messages to be making preparations to start on the next leg—to the Island of Fernando Noronha.

Then came the message:

"Plane useless. Aviators hope save motor."

BELGRADE, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—A terrific explosion occurred today at Monastir in the southern part of old Serbia, when an ammunition dump blew up. Klan Letters Of Warning Received By City Officers

Epistles Bearing Insignia of K. K. K. Call for Clean-up of Alleged Resorts.

Letters addressed to the principal city and county officials have been sent by persons signing themselves "Committee" of the Ku Klux Klan, in which it is demanded that various bootlegging, redlight and other similar illicit places be closed at once.

Among those who received letters this afternoon were Chief of Police James Drew, Commissioner Colbourn, District Attorney Ezra W. Decoto, United States Commissioner Albert M. Hardie and Chief of Police Becker of Piedmont.

ON KU KLUX LETTERHEADS.

The letters intimate that if the officials do not take abatement action the Ku Klux Klan will take matters into its own hand. They are written on stationery bearing the name of the Ku Klux Klan but no names of individuals.

In letters received by Oakland officials bootlegging places and names are given with a demand that these be closed.

Advance information of the letters was furnished to certain newspapers. In these the names of the recipients were printed before the letters had been received.

Chief Drew, Commissioner Colbourn and others were out of town this afternoon and their letters are said to await them upon their return.

"At the recent meeting of the Ku Klux Klan a resolution was adopted by the membership as a whole authorizing the appointment of a committee of members representing many prominent business and social enterprises of Alameda county. This committee is empowered to act when and where it is deemed advisable and will be supported by the entire membership as a man.

The clan stands for pure Americanism, upholding the constitution of the United States of America, the absolute protection of its pure womanhood, without political or other interference of the federal and municipal laws.

KLAN OFFER OF COOPERATION.

Therefore we, the committee, respectfully request an opportunity to cooperate with you and through your department, namely the heads of the various departments having in charge the enforcement of laws. We are in possession of certain written evidence from reliable sources which will show conclusively the names and addresses of numerous persons and places now running in open violation of the law. Such places as bootlegging joints, houses of prostitution where minors are being sent by agents of the house, roadhouses where drinks of every kind are sold to everyone, including young girls, gambling houses and numerous other houses of a like nature.

This information will be forwarded to you from time to time. The information we are now in possession of is enclosed on a separate sheet of paper. A copy of this letter is being sent to public press and any reply may be made through that medium."

Students Accused Of Stealing Flowers

BERKELEY, April 19.—Through the quick-wittedness of Miss Athol Moore, sophomore student at the university, Stanley B. Westcott and Glenn C. Robinson, also college students, are booked at police station today as trespassers.

The exact charge against the two youths is stealing lilacs from the gardens of Mrs. Helen Dille, proprietor of a college women's boarding house at 2623 Channing Way. Westcott and Robinson, with two young women, also said to be college students, were followed by Miss Moore after she had seen them trespass on the Dille grounds. Mrs. Dille telephoned the police and Patrolman Henry Hoar made the arrests.

Westcott and Robinson deny stealing the lilacs from the Dille grounds, admitting, however, that they were on the property.

LADY ASTOR ARRIVES IN NATIVE LAND

Denies Object of Visit Is in Interest of U. S., British Relations; Is Here Merely for Big Voters' Convention

By KENNETH TOOILLE.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Lady Nancy Astor, first Englishwoman M. P., who in her "deb" days was "one of the beautiful Langhorne sisters of Virginia," returned to the land of her birth today as vivacious and lovely as when she flowered in the society of the Old Dominion.

As the giant ocean liner Olympic passed quarantine a horde of reporters and photographers boarded the vessel and dashed down the gangplank, heading to her suite.

At the bottom stood Lady Nancy.

LORD ASTOR IS LOST IN SHUFFLE.

Lord Astor came forward, but was lost in the shuffle as his dainty wife was half carried up to the upper deck of the vessel for photographs.

"Entering parliament for the first time was a picnic compared to this," she said gaily as she leaped, girl-like, onto the top of a ventilator shaft so that the cameramen could picture her.

At the moment the last shutter clicked she danced off her perch, and turning to her impromptu reception committee, slapped several on the back, energetically.

"You'll have to wait your time," she said as the reporters pushed forward. Then she produced from some hidden recess in her costume a few typewritten statements.

"Just enough for the girl reporters—that's the kind of a suffragist I am," she said, distributing them.

DOESN'T RESEMBLE POLITICIAN.

Although her pretty head was crammed full with opinions on the woes of the world, she looked nothing of the politician as she stood with the breeze whipping her auburn hair from under her blue tam o' shanter. She was garbed in a wine-colored morning gown, edged with Rumanian embroidery. Over her slender shoulders was draped, opera like, a black cloak of Persian lamb, with white pipings. Her cheeks were rosy—real rose at that.

"Now, I haven't come over here to make any attempt to get America into better relations with England or Europe," she explained, tossing her cloak backward. "I'm not going to tell anyone his duty—statesmen or otherwise. I've not quite lost my head or my sense of humor. I'm not on any particular mission here." She glanced from face to face to impress her words on all hearers. "I'm here because I was invited to attend the pan-American conference and attend the women voters' convention in Baltimore, where we shall discuss matters of interest to women all over the world."

"Was America right in keeping out of the Genoa conference?" she was asked.

ENGLAND TO PAY U. S. DEBT, BELIEF.

"I ask you," she retorted, "if England was right to attend the Washington conference and make the world a little better and help to move the burden of taxation that is so oppressive?"

"As to whether Europe would have to straighten its affairs before America participates in foreign conference—well, it seems to me that when a house is on fire that it is a wise neighbor who helps put out the fire.

"Does England object to America being paid out of German reparations for the army of occupation expenses on the Rhine?"

"As I see it, England is quite willing that America get her share," she flashed. Then with a serious and determined air:

"As to the international debt, England is going to pay her debt to America. Of course this will take some time."

She hesitated an instant, then arching her head, her eyes flashed as she continued: "If England had not loaned money to the allies to enable them to continue fighting, she would not have had to borrow from the United States."

BELIEVES GENOA PARLEY SUCCESS.

"Is the Genoa parley a success?" one inquisitor asked.

"Surely," she answered, her gravity changing to light interest. "It is essential, however, that the armies of Europe—especially of France and Russia—be reduced. So long as they are mobilized the world is on the edge of a volcano. Russia also must give up her impracticable and uneconomic theories regarding industry."

TRIBUTE PAID TO LLOYD GEORGE.

She will not comment on prohibition until she observes how it is enforced.

"Lloyd George? He has steered us through the war and several dangerous strikes," she explained seriously. Then added, "and many international crises.

"I don't know anyone who has his experience or tact or boldness. Everyone has his faults. But his head is still above water. Oh, what a head it is!"

Lady Astor explained she was not going on a speaking tour, though she will attend various affairs that will be given in her honor in Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Danville, Ill., Lynchburg, Va., and Chicago.

HARDING WARNS OF BONUS VETO

President Will Kill Bill If It Does Not Carry Provision to Raise Revenue to Meet Costs of Soldier Payments

Suggestion That Tariff Measure Carry Clause to Take Care of Expense; Senate Report in Three Weeks

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The House late today adopted finally the naval appropriation bill amendment providing an enlisted personnel of 86,000 men. The bill was then passed.

By J. BART CAMPBELL.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—President Harding again served notice on the senate today that means must be found for financing the soldiers' bonus or that he will veto the bill.

The unmistakable reaffirmation of the president's previous attitude toward proposed bonus legislation was conveyed by Senator Watson of Indiana, administration spokesman, after he conferred with the president at the White house.

Watson suggested that there were two ways out of the tangled bonus situation which he described as "fraught with great difficulties":

1—That a revenue raising provision like the sales tax to provide money for the bonus be attached as a "rider" to the pending tariff bill if a bonus bill is to be passed by the senate within the next three or four weeks, as a number of senators are demanding.

2—That final action on the bill be deferred until the end of June when Watson estimated that $4,000,000,000 in bonds issued on the basis of payments of the British debt to this country would be available for financing the bonus.

TARIFF BILL MAY CARRY BONUS FUND.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—President Harding was represented today by White House callers as favorable to suggestions that a soldier bonus revenue raising provision be inserted in the tariff bill now before the Senate.

Action of the Senate Republican caucus yesterday in voting to request the finance committee to present a bonus bill in a reasonable time, was said to be construed by advocates of the measure to mean within three weeks.

HOUSE TO PASS BIG NAVY BILL.

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The end of the long and bitter fight over the 1923 naval budget was in sight today in the House. Barring an unexpected flood of debate leaders said the measure would come up for final passage before adjournment tonight. A separate vote by roll call could be demanded on the amendment adopted in committee of the whole Saturday, increasing the enlisted personnel from 67,000 to 86,000, and its supporters predicted it would win by a majority of 60.

By a vote of 75 to 34 the House defeated an amendment by Representative Hicks, Republican, N. Y., providing an increase of approximately a million and a half dollars for use by shore stations in repairing airplanes.

The House then rejected an amendment by Representative Herrick, Republican, Okla., to increase from $400,000 to $500,000 an amount carried for completing the construction of airplanes and accessories.

LEGION DEMANDS 150,000 IN ARMY.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(By International News Service.)—The American Legion today pledged its full support to the war department's demand for a "peace army" of 150,000 men.

Charging that any further reductions in the army would "undermine our military policy," Hanford MacNider, national commander of the legion, appeared before the senate army appropriations committee to protect against adoption of the house provisions for an army of 115,000 men.

Another Delay

MARY LANDON BAKER, fiancee of Allister McCormick, whose sudden departure for Normandy may cause a fifth postponement of their nuptials.

M'CORMICK AGAIN MISSES WEDDING

Fifth Postponement Likely as Mary Landon Baker Goes to Normandy.

By WEBB MILLER.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

All Paris is asking this question today, astounded by sudden developments in the Chicago romance of which the consummation has been so many times postponed.

Instead of hastening to her fiance, Mary Landon Baker has gone to Normandy, where it is apple blossom time, to live quietly on a farm and "think over her approaching wedding."

Viscount Janze, whose wife, the Viscountess, accompanied the Chicago girl to her Normandy retreat, made this announcement today. He declared Miss Baker was extremely nervous and that it would be necessary for her to rest at least a month.

CASTS FRESH DOUBT ON NUPTIAL PLANS.

Then he cast fresh doubt upon the much-postponed marriage to McCormick, who waits in England for his bride, by saying:

"Miss Baker must live the life of a farmer for a month or so. She wants to think over the wedding quietly by herself. After that she can consider what she will do. She does not know whether Mr. McCormick is coming to France to see her or not. I think not."

All efforts to reach Miss Baker personally failed today. The Chicago girl was bright and smiling when seen by a United Press correspondent yesterday. She declared she would remain in Paris a fortnight to buy her trousseau and then would hurry to London to be married.

Immediately after Miss Baker made this statement, she was hurried inside a closed car and taken to the home of Viscount and Viscountess Janze, who refused permission for further talks, saying hereafter that Viscoun Janze would speak for her.

HIS STORY DECIDEDLY DIFFERENT FROM HER'S.

The story told reporters today by the Viscount, following the secret hasty departure of the Viscountess and Miss Baker for Normandy, was quite different from that told by Miss Baker.

Miss Baker was the "mystery woman" of the Aquitania, on which she crossed the Atlantic. Passengers said she kept to her cabin, accompanied by a companion. She did not mingle with the other voyagers. Once she sent McCormick a wireless message, but that was the only sign she gave of her recognition of her engagement.

On January 2 of this year, when Chicago's Gold Coast thronged the Fourth Presbyterian church, after sending $100,000 worth of wedding presents, Miss Baker left McCormick waiting at the altar with his best man. She suffered a nervous breakdown. Twice since that incident which set Chicago society agog, and once before, the wedding was postponed.

Missing Prisoner Is Sought at Folsom

FOLSOM, April 19.—Every nook and cranny of the State prison grounds here were being searched today in the belief that Ira M. Stalker, serving a 20-year term for having kidnaped 14-year-old William Rowell of Fresno, who has been missing since rollcall late yesterday, has secreted himself somewhere within the prison enclosure. An all-night search failed to reveal any trace of him.

Stalker was captured by a posse after young Rowell had managed to give the alarm as he was being taken into the mountains.

Soviets Ask Plenary Session and a Ballot on Alliance; Ally Charges Refuted in Toto by Berlin's Envoys

GENOA, April 19.—(By International News Service).—Walter Rathenau, head of the German delegation, emphatically declared tonight that Germany will not back out of the Russian treaty.

GENOA, April 19.—(By International News Service.)—The Italian delegation to the economic conference announced this afternoon that the German delegation is ready to acknowledge that they made a "political mistake" in consummating the Russo-German treaty.

PARIS, April 19.—Germany's answer to the allies refutes point by point the allegations of disloyalty and breach of the Versailles treaty, said a special Genoa despatch to L'Information today.

PARIS, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The possibility of an extraordinary session of the French chamber of deputies to consider the Genoa conference developments was being freely discussed in political circles here today. Petitions for such a session were being circulated among the deputies.

Andre Tardieu today served notice upon Premier Poincare that he would present an interpellation upon "the measures the government intends to take in the face of the menace to France as constituted by the German-Russian treaty."

By HENRY WOOD,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

GENOA, April 19.—The Russian delegation to the Genoa conference today announced that it would ask that the Russo-German treaty be discussed at a plenary session and put to a vote.

This was the answer of the soviet to the allied protest against the commercial agreement privately signed at Rapallo on Easter Sunday by German and Russian foreign ministers.

Although the allies, acting in concert with the "little entente," have informed Germany she can have no further part in Genoa negotiations concerning Russia, it was considered doubtful that Wirth and Rathenau would take this rebuke to heart and go home. Germany, it was pointed out, has completed, by means of the treaty, any agreements she cared to make with Russia.

LIE PASSED BETWEEN LLOYD GEORGE-RATHENAU.

Did Lloyd George know of the Russian-German treaty before it was signed?

Rathenau says "yes," and that he repeatedly tried to furnish the British premier with details, but was put aside.

Lloyd George declares this is an utter falsehood and says the treaty came as a complete surprise, astonishing every one.

The German, according to newspaper correspondents who called upon him, then said Lloyd George lied, if he (George) claimed to have had no previous knowledge that Russia and Germany planned a separate agreement.

GENOA, April 19.—"We'll do everything we can to avoid a break," Walter Rathenau, head of the German delegation, said today in discussing the statement of the allied powers barring Germany from further participation in the dealings with Russia.

The German leader made it plain, however, that he and his colleagues are determined not to accept the stigma of duplicity carried in the allied note. The Germans' reply probably will be made public late today.

FRANCE WON'T BACK DOWN, SAYS BARTHOU.

Minister Barthou made it plain today that France will not back down from her stand.

"Under no circumstances will the French delegation consent to sitting with the Germans, either on the first sub-committee or in the plenary council," he d clared.

It was learned today that the French made a hard fight to have the Germans barred from all further participation in the confer-

Golden West memoralize the legislature of the golden land, each of its state senators and each of its state assemblymen, to the end that such legislation be enacted at the next session of the legislature of the state of California to prevent a recurrence of such devastation and waste," and that copies of the resolution be sent to all legislators.

Discussion brought out the fact that the matter should rest with the law of the state, and that probably no action could be taken, as the land was owned and occupied by the dredging company. However, while the resolution was defeated upon the motion of Grand Trustee Charles L. McEnerney, the organization, it was understood, was in sympathy with the movement against the dredging.

WILL WELCOME SHRINERS.

A resolution extending a cordial welcome to members of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, which will convene in San Francisco in convention during June, was passed unanimously by the Grand Parlor. It was decided that each of the subordiante parlors be notified of the passage of the resolution and form a hospitality committee, the duties of which shall be to promote the general welfare of the visitors. The resolution was introduced by Waldo Postel.

At 10 a. m. today a caravan of automobiles left the Hotel Oakland, carrying the delegates on a sightseeing trip of the Eastbay district. This tour was one of the main features of the day's program of entertainment. The route extended over the Skyline boulevard to Berkeley, through the principal streets of that city to the University of California, back to Oakland, to Alameda, through East Oakland, and to San Leandro, Hayward to Mission San Jose.

NATIVES ON OUTING.

At the Mission a barbecue was held on the Lachman grounds.

The delegates were to return late today through Livermore and Dublin canyon, to be here in time for the annual banquet, which will open at the Hotel Oakland at 6 o'clock.

Interest in the election, which was to have been held Thursday, but at yesterday's session was set for Friday, was keen today, and speculation as to who will be selected for grand third vice-president, grand outside sentinel and grand trustees was active. Strenuous campaigning is being carried on by the candidates for these offices in which contesting will result, and the election holds promise of being the hottest fight the organization has ever known.

STATE LANDMARKS.

Some idea of the scope of the work being done, both directly and indirectly, by the Native Sons of the Golden West in historical research and preservation of state landmarks was outlined late yesterday by Professor Herbert C. Bolton, professor of American history and director of the Bancroft library at the University of California and director of the Native Sons' fellowship fund.

Professor Bolton was introduced by Grand President William I. Traeger, and he spoke on the history of California. At the conclusion of his address the Grand Parlor decided to have his speech printed and sent to every Native Son in the state.

"It is a great thing that we have the support of such a powerful organization as this in carrying on the work of historical research," said Bolton. "The Native Son fellowships which are put up by this organization are the keystone of the work.

RESEARCH WORK.

Bolton told how the fellowships, which consist of $3000 given to the university each year by the order, inspire the students who are taking these subjects, and how they work hard in hope of being picked as traveling fellows to be sent to foreign countries and search for documents which might still lengthen the history of California.

"The traveling fellows who have been sent to Spain and other countries have done wonderful work, and their research in the archives of Spain and in some cases France and England has uncovered vast material pertaining to the history of the Pacific coast that ten years ago we had no suspicion of its existence. Much of this material they have copied and brought back, and they have served as a foundation for the history of California.

"Each one of the traveling fellows who has been sent to Spain or any other country, has been engaged in some special kind of work, and this has been made possible by the Native Son fellowship fund."

Speaking of the early history of the state, Bolton said that practically all of the European countries had their eyes on California, even Russia and England. "If Spain had listened to the advice of her European neighbors," he said, "our country today would probably be bounded on the west by the Rocky Mountains.

"One of the things we are trying to do now," said Professor Bolton, "is to create a new American history. It is sad but true that most of the histories used today in schools and in libraries are not American histories at all, but a provential story of the founding of Jamestone and some of the other incidents in the east, forgetting that three-fourths of the United States lies west of the Alleghany mountains, and forgetting that the land of the far west and the southwest is pioneer country. They also forget that Russia also had a scheme of sending pioneers down the Pacific coast with a view towards enter."

HISTORICAL SURVEY.

The speaker paid a tribute to the work of the historical survey commission.

"We are all working for California," he said, and concluded by making an appeal for more funds with which to carry on the work. "I am not appealing to you as an organization," he said. "You have been very generous, but to you as individuals, hoping that you might know of someone who would be willing to aid financially in the carrying out of this work and make it possible that much of the material we have can be published."

Co-operation was urged at a luncheon of delegates to the grand parlor from Alameda county yesterday at a downtown restaurant. Harry G. Williams, of Oakland, present grand first vice president and nominee for grand president, acted as chairman and colled upon various speakers for talks.

Commissioner Albert E. Carter, acting mayor, spoke on "Cooperation of Alameda county, and urged that the county pull together, and that all parlors of the Native Sons work as one. You can't get anywhere without co-operation," he said.

William J. Hayes, candidate for grand first vice president, urged the election of Alameda county delegates who are candidates for grand offices. Other speakers were E. F. Garrison, James Didnan and Edward Kennedy of Livermore, and Frank C. Merritt, historiographer.

The luncheon was principally for boosting the Alameda candidates.

Thousands attended the grand ball which was held last night at the Arcadia, Fourteenth and Franklin streets. The interior of the hall was adorned in bunting and Bear flags while a large Bear flag hung outside. The grand march was led by Grand President William I. Traeger, while the grand officers followed according to rank.

Business sessions will reconvene tomorrow, and in the afternoon there will be a boat ride on San Francisco bay. At night there will be a class initiation at the Shrine auditorium.

Natives' Past Grand Presidents at Dinner

Every living past grand president of the N. S. G. W. with the exception of three last night attended the annual past grand presidents' banquet at the Hotel Oakland. Robert M. Fitzgerald acted as toastmaster and called on every former executive present for a brief address.

The room was decorated in American and Bear flags and blue and gold, while across the ceiling were strung the wires of a radio antenna, which through a magnavox conveyed to the diners the music and news in the ether.

One of the features of the program was the singing of "I Love You California" by Elfrida Steindorf from The TRIBUNE'S radio station. The music was sung as a special number for the past grand presidents.

Numerous speakers will address the annual banquet of the grand parlor tonight. Grand First Vice-President Harry G. Williams will introduce Past Grand President Robert M. Fitzgerald, who will preside as toastmaster. The speakers will be Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington, Grand Trustee Charles L. McEnerney, Acting Mayor Albert E. Carter, Junior Grand President James F. Hoey and Grand President William I. Treager, and Past Grand President M. T. Dooling.

There will be a special program of entertainment, inclding vocal and instrumental music.

Natives to Join in May Athletic Meet

Practically every parlor of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West in Northern and Central California will send a special delegation of members and friends to the outing and athletic carnival of the Native Sons' Athletic Club committee, to take place Sunday, May 14, at Shell Mound park in Emeryville.

Special train and auto bus fares have been fixed for the coming reunion, which is in charge of a committee headed by John Lane of this city.

The proceeds of the May 14 outing will go toward the proposed clubhouse, with gymnasium and swimming pool facilities as well as other improvements of modern clubhouses. The organization hopes to commence erection of the gymnasium building the first part of 1923, and all proceeds from the May 14 affair, as well as other elaborate events planned for the coming summer and fall seasons, will apply on the fund being raised to permit construction work.

RANCHER EGGED; YOUTHS ACCUSED

Warrants are out in San Jose for the arrest of six members of the Hayward High school baseball team, said to have left a trail of smashed eggs between San Jose and Niles.

Complaint was made by J. J. O'Brien, a rancher along the Gish road, that he was bombarded with eggs by the young ball players.

The six youths are Leonard Jensen, Leslie Hanke, William Ten Eyck, Jack Cook, Leslie Oksen and Sidney Williams. The boys, with other members of the team, had been in competition with the San Jose High school club.

O'Brien charged that the six youths, riding in an automobile, opened the bombardment upon him while he was driving a tractor down the Gish road.

Three of the eggs, O'Brien declared, struck him with such force that he was dazed and temporarily blinded, resulting in his driving the tractor into a ditch.

The warrants were placed in the hands of Sheriff George W. Lyle, and early today the sheriff was planning immediate arrest of the youths. O'Brien declares he will prosecute them to the full extent of the law. It was also intimated that the school authorities at Hayward would be asked to take some hand in the matter.

Manuel Pimental of Niles is also said to have been bombarded by the boys. The boys, it is said, amused themselves on their return to Hayward by bombarding citizens of towns through which they passed.

When Pimental was egged he hired an auto and gave chase.

At Hayward he met Constable Albert La Cunha and Traffic Officer Joseph Brandon. The boys were cited to appear before Judge Jacob Harder, who took Pimental's case against them in Oakland yesterday.

Alameda Women to Bake Own Bread

ALAMEDA, April 19.—The Alameda Housewives announce that they will do their own baking until the price of bread comes down. In order to make the movement a general one here, the women announce that they are willing to give instruction in bread baking to those who do not know how.

"There is no call for the advance in bread," states Mrs. Harry O. Tenney, leader of the women in Alameda. "We are going to show the bakers as we did once before, that we do not have to abide by their plans. The women can bake their own bread and we have recypes which we are willing to teach to those who do not know the art of bread baking"

The matter of the boycott will be discussed at the meeting of the Housewives' League in Knights of Pythias hall, tomorrow afternoon.

VISITOR LEARNS ABOUT CALIFORNIA WEATHER

"Oh, my, I do think California is lovely, but how do you ever learn about the weather? Yesterday it was so nice and warm that mother and I decided to go out and explore the lake district. We intended to take a nice warm walk, but we got out there and it was downright chilly. I never seem to wear the right clothes."

"Oh, it really is the best place in the world to live, Eleanor, if you once learn to dress properly. A suit goes for street wear the year around, but it also is pretty wise to have a top coat handy the year round, too."

"Oh, but that is just what I don't like. I haven't a decent top coat and I love my new suit and I don't want to cover it up with my shabby old coat."

"Well, my dear, all you have to do is to step out and buy a new coat."

"Is that all? My dear Charlotte, I just can't afford a new coat now. I do want one, though."

"Don't say 'can't afford.' You go right down to 515 13th street and get a pretty new coat at Cherry's on credit. It will be necessary for you to pay only a small amount down and then by making monthly payments you can have a lovely new coat and won't hardly notice the loss of the money. Sydney Discards Upper House of Her Parliament

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Queensland legislative council, the upper house of Parliament, has ceased to exist. Premier Theodore has announced that the governor has received advices that royal assent had been given to the bill abolishing the council, and that the necessary order had been passed by the imperial authorities.

"This is the first occasion in the history of any state with sovereign powers where the abolition of the upper house has taken place," Premier Theodore said. "The legislative council, like the upper houses in most other countries, was the home of reactionary interests. For many years it thwarted the will of the people and had become a brake on democracy."

The young lady couldn't see the puggy title, so Wally had another fight on his hands that was harder than any of his prizering triumphs. Did he convince her? He used his own romantic methods and you'll agree with Wally that there is more than one way to change an obstinate girl's mind. HOLLIS DIVORCE DECLARED VOID BY BULGARIANS

Decree Granted Ex-U. S. Senator Invalid, Says the Department of Religion.

SOFIA, April 19 (By the Associated Press).—The divorce issued to former United States Senator Henry F. Hollis of New Hampshire by the pastor of the Unitarian church at Dubnitza is not officially recognized by the Bulgarian state, and possesses no legal force, the department of religion and education of the foreign office has advised the Bulgarian legation in Washington.

The religion department denies having given official approval to the divorce papers, and the government is instituting proceedings against Pastor Toplisky, who granted the divorce.

Dr. Dobtshef, professor of canonical law at Sofia university, declares the divorce invalid by virtue of the Bulgarian laws. He points out that Bulgarian religious authorities have not the power to annual a marriage consummated civilly either at home or abroad, and says that only the civil authority which executed such a marriage can annul it.

The Bulgarian newspapers are printing long articles commenting on the unusualness of the case. Hollis is well known here, as he had represented a large American corporation seeking to sell the government excess American war stocks of freight cars.

PARIS, April 19 (By the Associated Press). — Former Senator Hollis, when informed of the Bulgarian government's action in declaring his recent divorce illegal, said: "All I care to say now is that I acted upon what I considered sound legal advice. I am confident the divorce will stand."

He added that the divorce documents had been authenticated by the Bulgarian minister in Rome.

WASHINGTON, April 19 (By the Associated Press).—No details regarding the divorce proceedings of former Senator Hollis in Bulgaria have reached the Bulgarian legation here, but the legation officials are taking steps to inform themselves more fully on the subject.

A message received at the legation today merely announced the government's decision not to recognize the divorce as legal, and added nothing to Associated Press despatches from Sofia. The presumption here is that the legation's cablegram was intended to be merely informative, since there has been no move looking to any action by the American government. The legation officials are understood to have written to Bulgaria asking for details.

One of the letters of inquiry is said to have gone to Pastor Toplisky, who granted the divorce and who is known personally to some of the legation staff. Pastor Toplisky is described as having a wide acquaintance in Bulgaria.

During the war he is said to have received considerable notoriety because of an unsuccessful attempt to secure exemption from military service.

PRESIDENT BACKS PLAN FOR GREAT RECLAMATION ACT

Committee Secures Endorsement of Project Which Carries $350,000,000.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Approval of President Harding for the McNary bill providing for creation of a $350,000,000 revolving fund to be used for development of western and southern reclamation and drainage projects was given today to a congressional delegation who called at the White House.

Members of the delegation, which was headed by Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, and Representative Smith, Republican, Idaho, said the President expressed deep interest in the legislation which is pending in both the Senate and house. Harding indicated, delegation members said, that he would confer with party leaders on the matter.

The President was told that there was strong support for passage of the measure at this session of congress and that enactment of the bill would result in the reclamation of millions of acres of land and provide homes for thousands of people.

A memorandum submitted by the delegation showed that under the reclamation act of 1902 approximately 3,000,000 acres of desert lands had been reclaimed, more than 40,000 families had been established on farm lands and the national wealth had been increased approximately $600,000,000 and foodstuffs valued at $150,000,000 raised each year on these various projects in fourteen states—all at an expenditure by the government of approximately $130,000,000 from the fund created from the sale of public lands and from land fees of various kinds.

Representative Smith presented to the President a detailed statement of the Minidoka project in Idaho as typical of the other projects. The cost of construction of this undertaking was $5,800,000, of which $1,000,000 has been repaid.

Value of the farm improvements and livestock was placed at $30,373,000, assessed valuation of $14,570,000, value of crops at $5,924,000, and various other assets which he said showed the highly successful result of the undertaking.

CONTRACTS MADE TO DEVELOP OIL LANDS OF NAVY

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Contracts for the opening of the naval oil reserves in Wyoming to private enterprise and the operation of those already opened in Californ iain a manner designed to assure the navy permanent storage of fuel oil above ground, were announced yesterday by Acting Secretary of the Interior Finney, with the Mammouth Oil Company of Delaware and the Pan-American Petroleum Company of California.

The contract with the Mammouth Oil Company, a new concern of which H. F. Sinclair of the Sinclair Oil Company is president, provides for the tapping of the so-called Teapot Dome in naval reserve No. 3 in Wyoming, the government to receive graduated royalties ranging from 12½ per cent to 50 per cent for the entire area of the reserve.

Under the Pan-American Petroleum contract handling and exchange of crude oils from naval reserves Nos. 1 and 2, in California, is provided for, involving the exchange of the navy's royalty in oil from the reserve for fuel oil in storage at points designated by the navy on the Pacific Coast.

The contracts are in line with the recently announced policy of the government with reference to the disposition of the naval oil lands worked out by Secretaries Fall and Denby and instituting a departure from the former policy of storing naval oil in the ground.

Under the new plan the Mammouth Company will develop the government's Wyoming properties and build a pipe line to carry the oil.

The contract affecting the California reserve was awarded to the Pan-American as "the best and lowest bidder."

The losses from drainage "in these reserves," Judge Finney said, "have been enormous, running into many millions of dollars. The approval of this contract will enable the government to save the remaining oil in these reserves and exchange it for fuel oil in storage for the benefit of the navy."

JAZZ LIKE SWEARING.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., April 19.—Jamm music is comparable to swearing, in the opinion of Miss Elizabeth Latta, president of the Pennsylvania Federtion of Music Clubs, in session here. The syncopated music, Miss Latta said, fills the needs of those whose musical tastes are not developed.

QUEBEC CONVENT BURNS.

MONTREAL, Queceb, April 19.—Notre Dame convent in the east end of this city, the oldest teaching institution in the province, founded in 1690 by Rev. Sister Margaret Bourgeois, recently canonized, was totally destroyed by fire last night with a property loss of $150,000.

GRANDSTAND AT CIRCUS FALLS; SEVERAL HURT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—While an "aviating lion" was being hoisted to the top of the Al G. Barnes wild animal circus a grandstand section containing hundreds of spectators collapsed last night, slightly injuring many of the circus goers. A panic was prevented by the prompt action of the police stationed within the huge tent and by the animal trainers of the circus, who left their acts to cooperate with the police. The circus band commenced to play lively music and assisted thereby in reassuring the public.

The following persons, all of San Francisco, were slightly injured in the crash: Mrs. J. F. Donovan, Mrs. Christopher Stafford, William F. Ryan, F. L. Davies, Mrs. William Lewis, Mrs. Sophie Molac, Miss Essie Spear, Ray Latham and Mrs. H. C. Stroberg. Several of these were treated for bruises at the Emergency hospital, ambulances having been rushed to the circus directly after the accident occurred.

According to the circus management the accident was caused by the spectators standing up to witness the act. A number of sliding chairs gave way and several rows of spectators were precipitated upon those below.

BARBECUE HELD AT OLD MISSION

MISSION SAN JOSE, April 19.—A-flutter with excitement, roused from its usual routine of every-day life, Mission San Jose, the "cradle of Alameda county," today is host to the delegates of the Grand Parlor of Native Sons of the Golden West, in session in Oakland this week, at one of the most stupendous barbecues held here since the days of padres and grand fiestas of the early days of the county's history.

For weeks the citizens of the historic old town have been waiting for the visit of the Native Sons and the hundreds of visitors who accompanied the Grand Parlor delegates, and they have hailed the barbecue as one of the gala days of Mission San Jose history.

The barbecue is being held on the famous Lachman estate, said to be one of the most beautiful properties in the Eastbay region, and is under the auspices of the Native Sons' parlors of Niles, Centerville, Alvarado, Hayward, San Leandro, Pleasanton and Livermore.

The most prime steers of the Livermore ranges have been killed and the meat barbecued by the Livermore Natives, while all of the other parlors have contributed to the banquet and the entertainment provided for the delegates.

Hundreds of persons attending the barbecue are expected to visit the Mission building, erected here in 1797, and a landmark of Alameda county, and the Mission San Jose residents expect that as the result of the visit renewed interest will be taken in the plans for the restoration of the Mission building.

HERE'S A RECORD.

GUILDFORD, England, April 19.—In five years there has been only one arrest for drunkenness in the Bearsted division, which has 101 public houses. The solitary offender was a woman.

STARLIGHT

by Idah McGlone Gibson

Virginia Fairfax, daughter of the first families of Virginia, rebels against the puritannical rule of her grandfather and, lured by Filmland, runs away to become a motion picture actress. Arriving in Los Angeles, she meets Gloria Summers, who is in the movies. They become warm friends. They meet Herbert Richardson, a wealthy young man who has become interested in Gloria. Gloria accepts, for herself and Virginia, Herb Richardson's invitation to a party. Ria and Virginia plead that they must leave early. News came of the serious illness of Kitty Dalton—the direct result of the wild party. Tommy Warner came with the news that Gloria and Herb Richardson were to be married that night. Gloria was then to go out of town to take care of Kitty Dalton. Gloria and Herb were married by Rev. John Storm. With Gloria married, Virginia began to ponder her own future. Her finances were low. Virginia feels homesick at the thought of losing Gloria. She plans to take a single apartment to conserve her slender funds. Gloria has gone to Santa Barbara, taking Kitty Dalton with her. Gloria fears Kitty is planning law suits against Herb Richardson.

VIRGINIA'S FIRST MONEY.

I do not think that I was ever so lonely as when I sat down to my toast and coffee.

"Stop pitying yourself," I said out loud. "Today is another day. As long as you haven't a job, go around to the studios and register." My teeth almost chattered with fear at the thought that I might fail. And then the necessity for a cheaper place to live popped fearsomely into mind.

I picked up the very mussed evening gown which I had flung on the floor in my sleepy thoughtlessness the night before and tried to pat out a few of the wrinkles as I fought with myself for courage to hunt for a job.

My eyes fell upon my reflection in my mirror and I started with surprise to find I hadn't taken off my make-up. This I did with some of Ria's cold cream which she had thoughtfully left behind. She had also left her wonderful make-up box for me.

With dismay I found my face a sight from having left the make-up on so long. I knew I wouldn't dare apply for work with such a complexion. Frantically I wondered what to do. Ria's powder almost smiled at me from the dresser. It was a life preserver in a sea of troubles.

I did not stop at powder, for Ria's lip stick looked so inviting. After I had finished I laughed at myself and the world was bright again as I sallied forth.

Downstairs I asked the girl at the desk if they had any singles in the house, and she answered: "Yes, we have a very nice one, Miss Winston. Sixty-five dollars a month."

"That is almost as much as I am paying for the double. Haven't you anything less than that?"

"No. And I am afraid that you wouldn't be able to find anything in Hollywood, although downtown you probably can get something for about forty dollars."

After the beautiful Hollywood apartment the others looked small and rather run down. I finally found one, however, close to the Hollywood street cars upon which I would not have to take a lease. I reflected, with an eye to the future, that if I found anything better before the end of the month it would be asy to move.

"I will send my trunk and bags tomorrow," I told the agent and with a sinking heart I paid the thirty-five dollars out of my fast diminishing roll.

But the shock of the rent money was nothing to what I felt when I arriived at the photographer's studio and had to pay forty-eight dollars for a hundred professional pictures in eight poses.

The pictures were lovely, though, and the girl, to flatter me, perhaps, said: "You have a camera-proof face, Miss Winston. You will notice that we have taken you from every angle and they are all splendid."

I was glad that I had allowed Ria to pick them out from the proofs—I had not seen them before—and it was not without some personal pride that I took the package to the Service Bureau.

Ria had told me that I must be at the Service Bureau on the hours that the cashier's window was open. Arriving there at eleven o'clock, I received twenty-four dollars and fifty cents—the total of my pay checks for three days and a half work, less the commission exacted by the Service Bureau.

The first money I had ever earned!

I determined to send a little keepsake to Aunt Virginia and to buy something for myself that I might preserve and think back upon when I became a "great movie actress."

Of course it was foolish. I should have gone directly to the studios, but youth is always irresponsible and I knew that Aunt Virginia would love something from California, and so I sallied forth to the stores.

Los Angeles stores are beautiful, and it was a pleasure to just wander through them.

I stepped into one of the gift shops and found a replica, in miniature, of one of the mission bells that had interested me so when I had spied them along the streets.

Under the "El Camino Real," which Ria had told me meant the King's Highway, was placed a little calendar and this day—the day that I had received my first earned money—I marked it with a red pencil, intending to explain the whole matter to Aunt Virginia.

On the card which was to accompany the gift I wrote:

"Every time this bell tinkles, know that I am thinking of you, dear Aunt Virginia. And every time you cross of a day, just realize that it brings you nearer to your loving VIRGIE."

That done, I arranged to have the gift shipped. Then I asked the clerk: "Have you a good luck piece?"

He brought me the cunningest and stupidest looking little china elephant that I had ever seen. It was sitting on its hind legs and was painted a bright yellow, which maile it more ridiculous, and I smiled: "Well, if he doesn't bring me lung he will at least hand me a laugh every time I look at him."

Then I realized that I had lost my pictures!

The clerk, noting my look of distress, inquired the cause. I explained.

"The elephant reminded you of it," he said cheerfully, at the same time handing me the box containing my good luck piece. Then he added:

"Go back to the last place you were and you'll find your pictures."

Tomorrow—Another Job.

Americans Make Few Deals With Germans

BERLIN, April 19.—American commercial representatives who come here to make purchases find that German manufacturers often are sold out for a year ahead and that they have long-time contracts with British, French, Swiss and other nationalities and, consequently, cannot guarantee deliveries in America.

Five hundred American buyers who attended a recent exhibition of German-made goods are said to have made few purchases except in such lines as toys, novelties and implements, delivery of which usually could not be guaranteed under a year.

Americans here are devoting much of their attention to purchasing heirlooms, art objects, paintings and articles associated with princely families who are in financial straits.

Think over the advantages and facilities of the quarters you now occupy, as a home or as an office.

Many things you have you could do without. Many of them you would allow to be taken from you before you moved.

One thing you MUST have, however, is modern plumbing. It means so much to your health, happiness and comfort. It is all-important. It completes every building.

How important, then, to you are the men who have developed the science of modern plumbing, who install the fixtures and keep them in good running order.

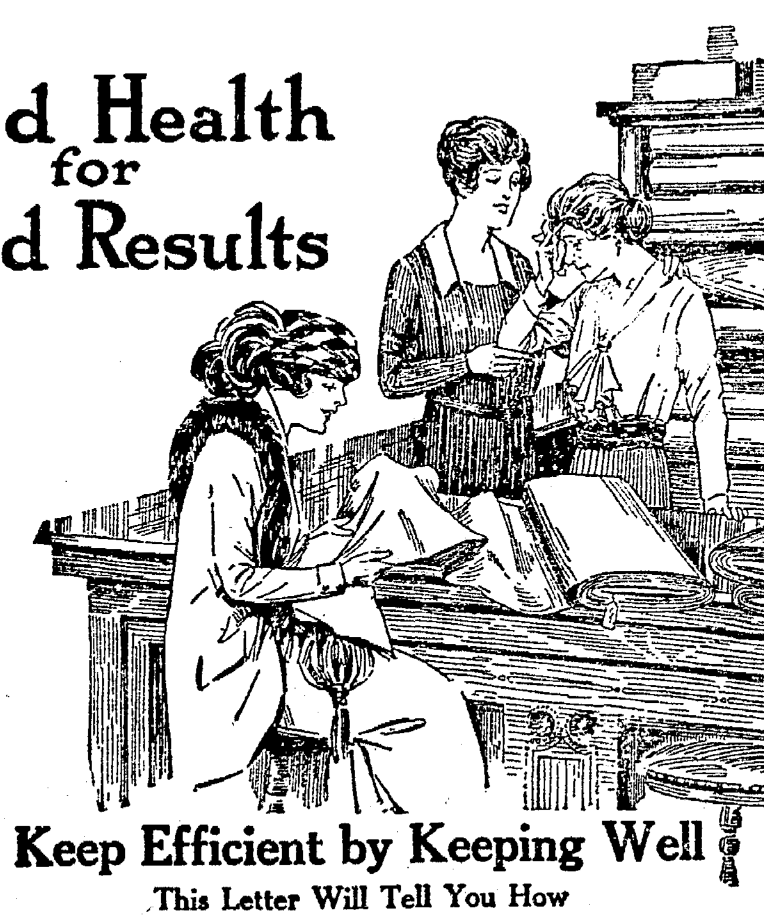
Good Health for Good Results



Keep Efficient by Keeping Well

This Letter Will Tell You How

Cumberland, Md.—"My mother gave me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was between thirteen and fourteen years old and was going to school, because I suffered with pains and could not rest. I did not have any more trouble after that until I was married, then I always was troubled in my back while carrying a child and could not do my work until I took the Vegetable Compound again. I am strong, do all my washing and ironing and work for seven children and feel fine. I always have an easy time at childbirth and what it did for me it will do for other women. I am willing to answer any woman if she wishes to write asking what it did for me."—Mrs. JOHN HEIER, 53 Dilley St., Cumberland, Md.

This letter is but one of a great number received every year from women, young and old, and from almost every walk of life. These letters testify to the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Heier has a large family, and works very hard for them. But any woman is willing to work hard and to work long hours if her health is good and she is able to get the results she is working for. As she says, what the Vegetable Compound did for her it will do for other women, and every one should appreciate her offer to answer letters asking about the Vegetable Compound.

The Vegetable Compound contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and can be taken in safety by any woman. Your livelihood may depend on your health. So try

REILLY ARMS TO AWAIT ANOTHER FEATHER 'PARTY'

Bearing Arms as a Result of Attack, He Returns to His Office.

Suffering from a severe cold as a result of exposure and wearing a blackened eye and numerous bruises as testimony to his fight, Philip Reilly, local weekly publication editor, announced today that he is prepared against another oiling and feathering such as he experienced Monday night.

Reilly appeared at his duties and said that he did not intend to heed the warning of his assailants that he cease publication of his paper.

"I'll not be caught from now on," said Reilly; "I'll be armed."

Inspector Arthur Sanderson of the local police department expressed small hope of tracing the men who kidnaped Reilly and "tarred" him on Monday night, the only clew being a cloth hat lost by one of the men and found by Gus Pierson, a fireman, who was attracted by the preliminary shout for aid by Reilly at East Fourteenth street and Ninetieth avenue.

Russ Forget Suffering in Easter Joys

MOSCOW, April 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—Russia put aside her troubles for three days for the Easter celebrations, which probably were the gayest since the revolution. Spring has broken, and simultaneously the snows vanished under the warm sunshine, leaving the streets dry and almost spic and span, so far as cleanliness is concerned.

Even in the famine regions, where the ice has broken in the Volga river, the Eastertide brought some cheer.

Except among the poverty-stricken families of Moscow, tables groaned under the holiday food. Champagne and other wines were to be purchased in the open market for the first time in years. Tables represented the expenditure of millions of rubles, as prices soared for the celebrations. In some manner most of the muscovites managed to buy what they needed.

Days before the Eastertide the markets were thronged with persons selling jewels and other trinkets and small bits of household furniture in order to assure themselves of an Easter spread.

RIGA, April 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—By the cutting off of rations from some places where the transport blockade is worst, the American relief administration managed to give adult rations to about 2,000,000 persons at Easter.

KAZAN, April 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fifteen thousand peasants, trudging on foot across the boggy plains to take American corn back to the starving villages, gave many families in the Kazan district an Easter meal of maize, allowing them to forego the rations of herbs, grass, straw and clay on which they had lived for months.

Prominent Oakland Church Woman Dead

200 Enrolled to Learn Dressmaking

Two new classes in scientific dressmaking will be opened to the public this term at the Technical evening high school.

More than 200 women have enrolled in these classes during the past year.

The new classes will meet every Friday afternoon and evening, commencing April 21, for the purpose of delivering to the newly enrolled student the introductory series of letters.

Announcement is made by Lucien Carballos that he can accommodate about ten more students in his beginners' class in Spanish on Monday and Wednesday evenings.

VAST AREA SWEPT BY FLOOD WATER OF MISSISSIPPI

Many Towns Are Inundated; Arkansas Asks U. S. for Help.

NEW ORLEANS, April 19.—Thousands of square miles of lowlands in the Mississippi river valley are inundated today by high waters of the Mississippi river, creating the mast damaging flood situation in years.

Large areas of farming land are under water and numerous small towns and villages are suffering in various degrees.

In Phillips county, Arkansas, a dozen small towns are covered with water ranging in depth from a few inches up to about fourteen feet. Another large area affected is in the lower Yazoo river basin, where it is reported that 884,480 acres, or 1382 square miles of land in Yazoo, Warren and Ishaquena counties are covered with backwater.

Refugee colonies have been established at Helena, Ark., Vicksburg and Natchez, Miss., where government agencies, the Red Cross, Salvation Army and other organizations are caring for the sufferers.

ARKANSAS ASKS AID.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 19.—An urgent appeal to the federal government for an emergency appropriation to be used in the fighting of flood waters of the Mississippi river in Arkansas, was telegraphed to Washington today by Governor McCrae.

Reports from Arkansas City where 1000 men have been working day and night to prevent a major break in the river levees, declared the situation there was still critical.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Requests of the governor of Arkansas for federal aid in connection with the flood situation in that state were received today at the war department and transmitted to Col. Robert A. Brown, commandant of the fourth Corps area, with headquarters at Omaha, Neb.

ILLINOIS LEVEE BREAKS.

MEREDOSIA, Ills., April 19.—(By Associated Press.)—The levee of the Meredosia lake drainage district broke this afternoon, flooding 8000 acres of wheat lands and the homes of more than fifty families. All residents of the district with their livestock are said to have escaped before the levee broke.

TAX COLLECTOR PREPARES FOR FINAL RUSH

Because next Monday is the last day for payment of the second installment of Alameda county taxes, Tax Collector Edward T. Planer will keep his office open until 6 o'clock to give "eleventh hour" citizens a chance to "get under the wire." The office will also be kept open all Saturday afternoon, until 5 o'clock, for the same purpose, although all the county offices usually close at noon.

More than a million dollars a day will be paid into the tax collector's office on Saturday and Monday, Planer estimates.

"I could find work for an additional 20 clerks during this week—if I could get them," said Planer.

LIBERIAN LOAN URGED.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Urging extension of a $5,000,000 loan to Liberia, promised in 1918, as "a point of honor," Secretary Hughes told the House ways and means committee today there was no foundation for reports that American banking interests would benefit mostly from the transaction.

TWO WOMEN AND MAN ARE KILLED IN ULSTER RIOTS

Many Reported Wounded, Including Children; Dublin Is Also in Disorder.

BELFAST, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—One man and two women were killed and many others are reported wounded including two children, in rioting in East Belfast this evening. Houses on Altcar street were set on fire during the disorders.

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

BELFAST, April 19.—Shooting and bombing were resumed in the Ulster capital today.

One man was killed in a revolver battle and many wounded in sporadic firing throughout Belfast.

Two dead and eighteen wounded was the toll since sectarian warfare was renewed yesterday morning, signalled by the outbreak of incendiarism in various parts of the city.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

DUBLIN, April 19.—Mutinous members of the Irish republican army attacked Wellington barracks, housing loyal free state troops, early today. One sentry was wounded. Six of the attackers were captured. Three other attacks on free state posts were reported. Between midnight and four o'clock night alarms were frequent. There was much rifle firing.

Despite continued occupation by mutineers of the Four Courts as headquarters, the position of loyal free state troops is steadily improving. The truce conference between Michael Collins and Arthur Griffth on the one hand and Eamonn de Valera, representing the insurgents, on the other, will be resumed Thursday.

An airdrome at Tallaght, controlled by Free State trops, was attacked today.

Stephen O'Mara of Limerick, one of the conferees in the truce parley, which is to be continued Thursday, announced that it is probable Roderick O'Connor, commandant of the insurgent section of the Irish republican army, may be invited to attend a preliminary meeting.

An agreement between the loyalists and the disaffected section of the army may be reached, he said.

WOOD REJECTS $10,000 SALARY

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—Will C. Wood, superintendent of public instruction, has declined to accept an offer to become president of the University of Arizona at a salary of $10,000, it has been learned here.

The offer was made by Miss Elsie Toles, superintendent of public instruction in Arizona, and a member of the board of regents of the university.

Wood's present salary is $5000. He said that while he realized acceptance of the offer would double his salary he desired to finish certain "constructive" work he had undertaken in the California schools.

"WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH ME?"

Thousands Who Ask That Question Will Be Interested in This Answer.

Human flesh is heir to many ailments, but aside from the acute and the contagious diseases, most people become sickly from neglect. They have indigestion and do nothing for it. They get nervous and often sleep poorly and do nothing to cure themselves. From these and other causes they gradually lose strength and vitality and feel tired much of the time and often "blue" and despondent. If you feel below par take Gude's Pepto-Mangan and let it restore your strength and vitality and overcome that weakness by building up your blood to the right richness and redness. Then you will feel fine and vigorous again, and have plenty of "pep." For thirty years Gude's Pepto-Mangan has been the doctors' favorite tonic for run-down people. Sold in both liquid and tablet form by all druggists.—Advertisement.

VICTIM OF 11,000 VOLTS MAY SURVIVE

Fighting for his life against great odds, hope is now held for the recovery of Albera Slattengren, Great Western Power company employee, through whose body passed 11,000 volts of electricity on Monday morning.

Slattengren, who first astounded his rescuers, two Oakland firemen, by clinging to the pole after the electricity had burnt through his shoulder and exposed the bones on both legs, never lost consciousness.

Now at the Fabiola hospital where it was first announced that there was almost no chance for his recovery, plans are being made for the amputations. It is expected that Slattengren will soon be able to stand the shock of amputation of his arm and legs.

Mrs. Slattengren has remained at his bedside since the accident. Dr. Ergo Majors is in charge of the case.

Dollar Day, April 26, Will Be Event for Entire Eastbay

OAKLAND'S great spring shopping event, Spring Dollar Day, will be held Wednesday, April 26. It is an event to which thousands of people not only in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, but practically everyone within a radius of fifty miles of Oakland, eagerly look forward.

Preparations were begun several months ago by the merchants who participate in the Dollar Day offerings. If the enthusiasm manifested by shoppers on the past Dollar Days is taken as a criterion, Oakland will witness a remarkable shopping demonstration on Dollar Day.

On previous Dollar Days the auto bus lines, railroads, interurban lines and suburban street cars carried capacity crowds. The management of the different transportation facilities have promised sufficient equipment to handle all shoppers with safety.

The date, remember, is Wednesday, April 26. Oakland's Spring Dollar Day.

STILL CONTAINING 2000 GALLONS OF MASH UNCOVERED

Electric Rectifier, First to Be Found on Coast, Is Seized by Sleuths.

An electric device for aging liquor and a 2000-gallon still, the largest ever seized in a local raid, were captured by the dry squad and federal enforcement officers last night when they invaded the American Brass and Iron Company plant at 1076 Eighty-fourth avenue.

The electric rectifier was pronounced by the federal officers as a new "wrinkle" in the bootlegging industry and is probably the first captured on the Pacific Coast, although the prohibition office in San Francisco had heard of the device.

The device was a small piece of metal which was suspended from a cord through which the electricity passed. The rectifier would be put into the barrel and left for a day. At the end of that time the new-made whisky was supposed to be as good as whisky two years old.

The still was full of warm mash when the officers raided the place and arrested Joseph Boschcci, the alleged owner of the place, and Milton Boschcci and Guiseppe Capra, who were employed at the plant.

An automobile which contained eighteen ounces of jackass whisky was confiscated by the officers. The samples the officers say were left at the various soft drink parlors throughout the bay region and then they would return later for an order.

Seventeen 50-gallon containers of malt mash, 100 gallons of whisky and eight 10-gallon containers of whisky were seized by the raiding officers.

The bail for each of the men was set at $2500.

The Danger Point

Repairs Cost More Than Paint

WHEN the paint on your property begins to check and crack, it is time to paint again. Unless your house is protected by a smooth, elastic film of durable paint, decay will set in and rapidly depreciate it.

Decay is expensive and wasteful. Price lumber alone, to get an idea of what it will cost to repair or rebuild. Paint saves this cost.

The best paint is the most economical in the long run. It spreads easily—saves labor cost. It covers a larger area per gallon than "cheap" paint.

But most important, the best paint serves five or more years longer than "cheap" paint.

We have been making the best paints for 73 years. They are scientific in formula and preparation. They meet the weather conditions in the West.

They contain the finest materials—PIONEER WHITE LEAD, pure linseed oil, pure zinc and pure colors—combined scientifically in exact proportions. They are the best paints we know.

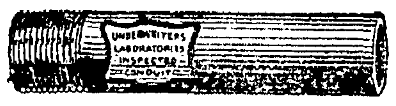
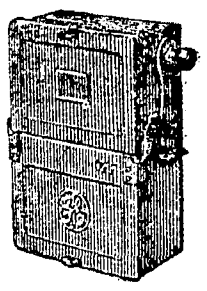
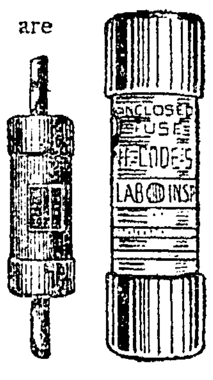
Why General Electric Wiring Devices are sold under the "Check" Seal—



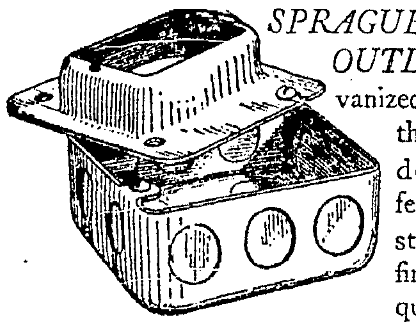
GREENFIELDDUCT HOT GALVANIZED CONDUIT—Recognized as the standard by which all other galvanized conduits are compared. Hot dip galvanized inside and out. Superior in bending qualities and in durability. Specified by the foremost engineers throughout the country. Inspected and labelled under the supervision of the Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc.



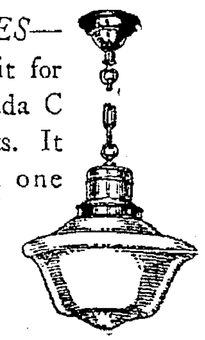
G-E EXTERNALLY OPERATED SWITCHES—"Safety First" is assured by the General Electric externally operated switch, which gives Class A protection and may be handled without danger by even the most inexperienced operator. Current-carrying parts are completely enclosed and inaccessible while alive, eliminating the fire and shock hazards.



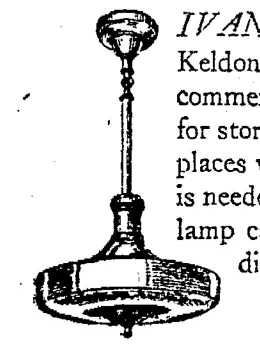
G-E ENCLOSED FUSES—Fuses are electrical safety valves. The protection of your electrical equipment is dependent upon their accuracy. Economy in fuse buying is dependent upon the amount of safety which you purchase. G-E enclosed fuses are the most economical because you can depend upon their absolute reliability under all conditions.



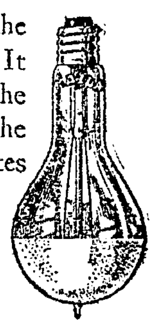
SPRAGUE HOT GALVANIZED OUTLETS—Sprague hot galvanized outlet boxes represent the latest developments in design and labor-saving features. Their strong construction and hot galvanized finish gives them exceptional qualities of service and durability. They are made for use with both rigid and flexible conduits.



IVANHOE TROJAN FIXTURES—The Ivanhoe Trojan is an enclosing unit for commercial lighting made to serve Mazda C lamps ranging in size from 75 to 500 watts. It is practically dirtproof, being made in one piece of light density Genco glass of high diffusing quality and low light absorption.



IVANHOE KELDON UNITS—The Keldon is a totally enclosed, semi-indirect commercial lighting unit. It is recommended for stores, offices, schools, hospitals and other places where a diffused light of high intensity is needed. The Keldon is unique in that the lamp can be removed or replaced without disturbing the globe itself.



MAZDA LAMPS—MAZDA—not the name of a thing, but the mark of a service. It can appear only on lamps which meet the exacting requirements of Mazda service. The Pacific States Electric Company distributes types of Mazda Lamps for every purpose; it is one of the most important items in our complete line.

T. M. REG. 1921

THE General Electric Company and its products are universally known to represent the highest standards.

In choosing the G-E line of wiring devices for distribution throughout the Pacific Coast, the Pacific States Electric Company further demonstrates its policy of selling only standard electrical materials, devices and appliances.

As the second step in providing the electrical consumer with standard, dependable service, the Pacific States Electric Company attaches its "check" seal to the General Electric products; this means that the guarantee of the General Electric Company is further certified by the Pacific States Electric Company.

As an additional means of protection to the electrical consumer, these standard products bearing the "check" seal of the Pacific States Electric Company are distributed through qualified dealers and electrical contractors.

Standard electrical products obtained from reliable manufacturers, certified and distributed by the Pacific States Electric Company and installed by qualified contractors, insure complete and permanent electrical satisfaction. Sub-standard contracting service is usually based on sub-standard materials and such service is always expensive in the long run and never satisfactory.

The contractors and dealers operating under the policy which entitles them to use the "check" seal of the Pacific States Electric Company are entitled to the full confidence of the public.

The "check" seal shown on the products installed by an electrical contractor or sold by an electrical dealer therefore becomes a simple and helpful identification of the highest standards of materials and workmanship without which no electrical installation is worth consideration.

The electrical appliances shown on this page, together with other standard electrical products, certified by the "check" seal, are described in our new booklet, "The Electrical How for Householders." You will enjoy this booklet, with its many practical suggestions for the convenient and economical utilization of electricity in your home. It may be obtained free from any electrical contractor or dealer displaying this seal.

THE RECORD AGAINST HIM.

Mr. William G. McAdoo continues to be sensitive regarding his record as director general of railroads during the regime of federal operation of the roads. He has tried to maintain, with conspicuously indifferent success, that the roads made a creditable performance during his incumbency. Inasmuch as the record stands so plainly against him, it is difficult to understand his persistence in this respect, unless it be that he is paving the way for a future political effort. It would be embarrassing, for instance, to aspire for the presidency of the United States when a record of failure in one department of the government's business was marked up against him.

Testifying at a hearing in Washington recently, Mr. McAdoo referred to the movement in bread cereals by the railroads for the month of February and March, 1918, as one of the outstanding accomplishments of federal control. He definitely asserted that what the railroads were able to do in that connection "saved the war to America and the Allies." He further stated it was necessary in that same connection to do one of the most drastic things ever done in the history of American railroads, which was to send empty box cars from the East to the West with all possible speed to bring back a return load. He added that it was necessary "to absolutely arrest the domestic commerce of America until this emergency could be met and no authority except that of the federal government could have met the emergency."

Mr. Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was in the railroad business during the period referred to in Mr. McAdoo's testimony. He is one of the ablest of American railway operators and in the past his statements have held a higher quality of reliability than the statements of Mr. McAdoo in connection with the railroad business. Mr. Willard followed Mr. McAdoo in testifying before the Senate committee on interstate commerce.

According to Mr. Willard's statements in the official record the official records show that the total amount of grains of all kinds received at Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore for export during the whole of the two months of February and March, 1918, was 17,521,614 bushels.

"It is conservatively correct to say that the average carload of grain at the time under consideration was about 1400 bushels, so that the 17,500,000 bushels that were moved to the four ports mentioned during the entire months of February and March, 1918, should not have required the use of more than 12,500 cars. Assuming that the entire amount which was received at the four ports mentioned during the whole of the two months of February and March had been moved during the 35-day period between February 8th and March 15th, within which time Mr. McAdoo states the situation was cleared up, it would have required an aggregate average movement of only 357 cars per day by all of the railroads available for the service."

Now, continuing to draw from the official record as given to the Senate committee by Mr. Willard, it appears that during the months of February and March, 1917, before the period of government control, over 54,000,000 bushels of grain were delivered to the same four ports for export, or more than three times as much as was delivered to the same ports during the same months of 1918, referred to pridefully by Mr. McAdoo.

It also appears that during the late summer and fall of 1917, the railroad war board, while holding no such broad authority as later exercised by the federal director-general of railroads, nevertheless ordered and accomplished the movement of more than 35,000 empty box cars from the East to Chicago and points west, for return loading. This was practically three times as many cars as were involved in the particular movement of bread cereals for the Allies referred to in Mr. McAdoo's testimony.

Thus the general observations as to facts which Mr. McAdoo made before the Senate committee did not stand the test of the record. On the contrary it was later developed that prior to the period of federal control the railroads accomplished significantly more important acts of public service than were accomplished during the regime of federal control. It may be that Mr. McAdoo, not being an experienced railroad executive, placed an undue value upon his own performance. That often happens when tyros take over an old-established business. And there is the record.

MISCHIEF AT GENOA.

Trouble has developed at the Genoa economic conference which threatens to cause the abandonment of that effort to achieve the economic salvation of Europe. It has come, not from unexpected sources, but with a stupidity which, despite the long record of stupid acts, is somewhat surprising.

Soviet Russia and Germany are to blame. During the stop-over of the soviet delegation in Berlin, which THE TRIBUNE detailed two weeks ago, a separate treaty was concluded between Russia and Germany. It is rather general in terms, but broad in its significance. It abrogates the Brest-Litovsk treaty, which was the handiwork of the unlamented Count Czernin and General Hofman on one side and Lenine and Trotsky on the other. Then it provides for the full and equal resumption of diplomatic relations between Germany and Russia and for the reciprocal cancellation of all the claims of one country against the other and all the obligations of one country toward the other.

The Allied governments, at least the large majority of them, hold that this treaty is an act of treachery to the conference and violative of the conditions of the invitation and acceptance for participation therein. Mr. Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, has declined to sit in the conference during the presence of Russian or German delegates. This is the forthright manner for which the French government is well known and in this connection the only consistent course for the French delegation to follow.

It is deeply to be regretted that the German government permit the commission of an act that would bring about the present situation. Berlin officialdom should have been perfectly aware of the fact that no real advantage could result from such a situation. The necessary and irrevocable relationship of Germany to the Allied governments cannot be ignored, as Germany has been obliged to recall many times since the armistice of 1918.

As to the Soviet delegates, there was no foundation for confidence in their desire to do the right thing. The policy of the Moscow regime to disrupt good relations among all other nations has not been amended. A quarrel at Genoa plays into their hands, so the Soviet delegates think.

France has declared that unless the German-Communist treaty is denounced her delegates will withdraw from the conference. Poland, Czechoslovakia and Rumania second this attitude. Mr. Lloyd George is struggling to avoid complete failure of the conference, which was his particular idea, while Italy is observing neutrality. The French position is the soundest of all.

Unless the treaty is abrogated there are two alternatives. The Russian and Communist delegates may be sent home or the conference may disband. Apparently it would be wiser and safer to send the Russian and Germans home for further enlightenment. Then the conference would be capable of accomplishing much more for the benefit of the other European countries.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that the punishment imposed by a trial court on a drug peddler must stand. The culprit has kept out of the penitentiary quite awhile. He will now go to prison. The two years' delay is unfortunate, but other drug peddlers should take notice.

PUTTING BUSINESS IN THE SHIPS.

At the Congress hearing on Chairman Lasker's ship subsidy plan now being argued a legislative provision which will be brand new in practice but in principle is as old as the hills. It is the proposed deduction from an ocean shipper's income taxes of 5 per cent of all the overseas freight bills he may pay on goods carried in American bottoms.

This enactment, it will be seen, would not transfer money directly from the national treasury into the ship owner's hands. On the contrary, its intent is to do what the late James J. Hill said was the key to any government effort to maintain a merchant marine—"something that will put business in American bottoms."

A farmer, a lumberman or a manufacturer induced by the income tax privilege to ship his exports in American vessels would alike be putting business in American bottoms. The only question from the point of view of the shipper would be whether his income tax deductions would more than cover what he could have saved in freight bills by using foreign bottoms. The question from the point of view of the ship owner would be whether the rates that he could charge under this system would be enough to show him a profit. The question from the point of view of the government would be whether direct subsidy payments out of the treasury to the ships would cost it less than the income tax deductions would cost it.

In any event there is no claim by the Shipping Board that moneys going directly to the ships out of treasury customs receipts, as is also proposed, and business going into the ships at the cost of the treasury in lost income taxes would not alike be government support of ships incapable of self-support. The frank proposition of the Shipping Board is that if the country wants a merchant marine it must pay for it one way or another.—New York Herald.

We are not to take part in the conference at Genoa and already they are lamenting the fact that there will be no occasion for the patriotic American to say "Columbus, we are here." We are not to take part in the conference at Genoa.

Still it might be a good plan to send a delegate to inform anyone who is interested of the progress which has been made by this country since Columbus brought us to light. We undersand now, that the world is round and we are wise to that little trick of making an egg stand on end.

We do not know the truth of this Semenoff controversy but, judging from what we read, the old boy's ears ought to be burning.

An interesting controversy which brings to mind a popular saying of years ago is raging in the columns of the New York Herald. It started when a woman wrote that the words of Booth after he shot Lincoln were: "I'm sick, send for McGinness." The letter pointed out that there was a prominent physician in Washington by the name of McGinness and that the assassin's words were of the nature of a distressed appeal.

One would not think this letter could stir up so much excitement, and yet there have been scores to write, what everybody knows, that the words, in fact, were "Sic semper tyrannis." Mrs. Robert Struthers, who was Jeannie Gourlay, in the company playing at the Ford theater, says that five members of her family were in the theater and that she knows the Latin was used. A number of old-timers recall the paraphrase prevalent after the shooting. It may be there are some in Oakland who heard it.

NOTES and COMMENT

How many remember the particulars of this incident, commented on by the Deseret News: "Though he risked his life, and doubtless incurred enmities against which he will have to guard for years, the California druggist who the other night resisted a band of Ku Klux Klan deserves the thanks and commendation of his fellow citizens. So far as has been disclosed the night riders had no just cause for their attempted assault. Even conceding the druggist had been guilty of some offense; that he is not the highest type of morality or ethics—this is purely suppositional for the present purpose—still there was no justification for the plan of the white-hooded mob to take him by force, and measure out whatever punishment they had in mind for him."

JUST FOLKS

—By EDGAR A. GUEST—

HOW LITTLE WE KNOW.

How little we know, you and I,
How little we know of what's known.
Suppose all our people should die
And we should be left here alone,
And a new race should spring into birth,
Could we teach them the ways of this earth?

We could tell them of marvelous things,
Of ships that have flown in the air,
Of the wireless which every day brings
Its message of joy or despair,
We could tell we had motors to run,
But not how these marvels were done.

We could say men went down in the sea
And talked with the men on the land,
We could tell them of what used to be,
We could boast of the marvels of now,
But what if they questioned us "how?"

We know that the phonograph sings;
We know, for it's common today,
Whenever the telephone rings
That people will hear what we say;
But if we were left here alone,
Could we tell them the "how" of the phone?

Our civilization is not Stored deep in the brains of the few,
By the toil of the many it's wrought,
It is all men have learned how to do,
And only the many could save

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

A long list of donations was reported by the West Oakland Home during the month ending April 1.

An athletic club has been organized at Pleasanton. Frank Diavila was elected president.

Ping-pong is the game now, and Wallace Irwin has a poem about it in a San Francisco publication.

Officers of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church of Berkeley were installed. The president is R. S. Hawley.

LET THE PRESIDENT DECIDE.

We are as firmly convinced as ever that a cash bonus at this time would be unwise and dangerous. But if the passage of such an act is the only means of getting the issue out of Congress and clear the way for other necessary legislation, we are inclined to believe it the part of wisdom to send the legislation to the President as quickly as possible. The President would then have an opportunity to choose between his advisers in his Cabinet and his friends in Congress.

If his recent utterances indicate anything as regards his disposition he would not hesitate to veto any bonus bill that could possibly receive the support of both houses in Congress. The responsibility would then rest with him and Congress might forget the bonus, having done all it could to make good its promise. The issue would thus be put out of the way for the present session, at least, which is perhaps the most that can be hoped for.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

About YOUR HEALTH

What to Do in Case Of Wood Alcohol Poisoning.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.,
Commissioner of Health,
New York City.

In these times of prohibition and near-prohibition there is more likelihood of poisoning from amateur distillations, home brews and camouflaged liquor than there was in the old days. Alcohol is so scarce that the unscrupulous have not hesitated to add to their concoctions every sort of stuff, no matter how poisonous it may be.

The most deadly and dreaded of these additions is wood alcohol.

Unfortunately, wood alcohol has been used in various preparations which are manufactured for external application only. Enough may be absorbed through the skin and even through the lungs to produce serious poisoning.

The onset of the symptoms depends on the size of the dose. If enough is taken, there is immediate unconsciousness.

In smaller doses there are exhilaration, stomachache, nausea and headache. Vomiting and sudden blindness are other symptoms.

Severe poisoning from larger quantities produces more violent symptoms. In addition to the nausea and vomiting, the muscles fail to work, and the mind is confused. There are dizziness, weak pulse, pale skin, restlessness, difficult breathing, pain over the kidneys, loss of control of the excretions and blindness.

In other cases, where the poison is taken more gradually, there may be gradual loss of sight, without prominent acute symptoms.

Since the prohibition laws went into effect, public health officials have worried the wood alcohol poisonings. Various preparations not intended for beverage purposes have been put to that use. Hair tonics, bay rum, liniments, perfumes, extracts, Jamaica ginger, flavorings and other articles may contain wood alcohol in such quantities as to be seriously poisonous.

With the possible exception of death itself, the most dreadful effect of wood alcohol poisoning is blindness. There may be black spots or stripes before the eyes, and then positive blurring of vision. Temporary improvement may follow the first symptoms, and then comes rapid failure of vision.

Ignorance and recklessness have caused many persons to take into the stomach the vilest concoctions imaginable. No one should drink any beverage not vouched for by proper authority. To do so is to take a needless risk.

If wood alcohol has been taken, the first thing to do is to empty the stomach. Warm mustard water or soap-suds may be given to induce vomiting.

This will do until your doctor arrives. In every case of poisoning do not trust to home treatments alone. Start out with the remedies you have, but call for medical attention at once.

BOARD APPROVES OF DISMISSAL OF GARVIN BY DREW

The action of the police officials in dismissing Patrolman James A. Garvin was sustained late last night by the civil service board after a hearing.

The verdict, it is admitted, establishes the precedent that a suspended officer can be cited before the chief of police. Garvin, who was suspended prior to his dismissal, refused to appear before Chief of Police Drew unless accompanied by his attorney, holding that as he was under suspension and therefore not amenable to the orders of the chief.

Garvin became a member of the force in 1913. Several months ago he was accused of complicity in certain bootlegging operations and was indefinitely suspended pending a federal hearing. The federal charges fell through.

REFUSED TO OBEY.

Garvin, as brought out by the testimony last night, was about to be reinstated on the police force but was asked to appear before the chief for a talk. He appeared but refused to enter the chief's office without his attorney, State Senator Frank Carr. The chief thereupon dismissed him for insubordination.

Last night's hearing developed considerable acrimony, Attorney Carr once alleging that the police administration had engaged in "small, mean, contemptible actions," and City Attorney Leon E. Gray terming the defense's tactics "subterfuge and evasion."

Police officials testified that Garvin, after refusing to enter the chief's office without an attorney, was asked: "Are you taking orders from me, the chief of police, or from your attorney?" Garvin is said to have replied: "If the attorney's not coming in, I'm not."

HAD BEEN REINSTATED.

During this conversation, it developed, an order for Garvin's reinstatement had been signed by Commissioner Colbourn and was ready to hand to him. Technically, it was held that he was reinstated from the time the order was signed, which was some time before the conversation in the chief's office.

Fine technical points were brought out on both sides, and many eastern cases were cited. The witnesses included Chief Drew, Inspector Robert Tracy, Clerk E. C. Summers, Clerk Thomas Meegan, Colbourn and Garvin.

TRADE TOUR IN HEART OF VALLEY

"Tell Oakland," the Theme of Eastbay Envoys as They See Wonders of the San Joaquin; Amazing Thrift

Special to The TRIBUNE.

FRESNO, April 19.—"Tell Oakland" was the idea today on the Eastbay trade special and this message was delivered to Fresno, the "Raisin Capital."

By "Tell Oakland" the delegation of Oakland business and industrial men are expressing their desire to learn more of the ways in which the Eastbay may co-operate with its back country.

From Modesto, where the first stop was made, through Merced, Madera, Turlock and Livingston the citizens greeted Oakland with full and hearty response. Already the trip, for its educational value to the delegation for the acquaintances made, and for the development of a mutual understanding which will enable central and northern California to work together in marketing, legislative and industrial problems, is a pronounced success.

IN THE VALLEYS CAPITAL.

The train pulled into Fresno last night, where the delegation was greeted and entertained informally. The whole morning was spent in this capital of a valley that is richer than the Nile.

There is no need to tabulate the statistics of Fresno. The world knows of its raisins and its story of prosperity is written in the outstanding terms of the buildings and homes. There is not a "For Rent" or "For Sale" sign in the San Joaquin valley, or if there is, this delegation has not seen it. The prosperity is reflected again in the thousands of acres of grapes and fruit, grain and pasture lands. Canneries as large as ship building plants, milk condensers, sugar pine mills and dams which will rival the Elephant and Roosevelt have been shown a wondering group.

There are 60,000 persons within the Fresno environments; between three and four millions in buildings are now in course of construction; a million dollar hotel financed; a half million dollar plant for the California Peach and Fig Growers.

The Elks building will cost $300,000. On the first of the month the Raisin association released a $700,000 payment on last year's crop, and a short time before the peach and fig growers made a substantial payment.

GOOD ROADS FOR FRESNO.

One of the most fruitful new sources of revenue to the raisin growers has been discovered in the new famous five-cent package, millions of which have been sold in the last three months.

Fresno county is just completing the final expenditure of $4,800,000 of highway bond issue; 60 miles of the original program will be completed by direct tax which will cost about $900,000. A $300,000 hall of records is to be erected.

A business sentiment favorable to Los Angeles is discovered here. Citizens are frank in saying that this is due to the fact that in the last ten years that city has invested in the valley something like $50,000,000. Geographical and sentimental reasons would favor the bay region, and toward Oakland and the Eastbay a hearty and ready regard is expressed. Business men here greeted the Oakland party with enthusiasm as natural allies, expressed their appreciation of the Oakland market for San Joaquin goods and their belief in Oakland's future development.

MERCED'S FUTURE SURE.

The certainty of Merced's future is seen in Modesto. Merced put water on its surrounding land but recently and its development agriculturally is that of the other city a few years ago. For miles around are the vineyards and orchards coming into bearing, fortunes in the growth.

In Merced county there are a half million irrigated acres capable of most profitable cultivation. This land will produce a greater variety of crops than any equal area in the world. The city is growing, business sites are hard to get, and many new structures are planned. Last year figs shipped from here brought as high as $400 a ton. A new fig-packing house to employ 100 is being built.

The county boasts the largest peach and apricot orchard in the world along the Yosemite highway, and the largest seedless raisin vineyard in the world.

WATER BIG FACTOR.

Grape shipments in 1921 included 395 cars of table grapes and 47 of wine grapes, and there are huge areas devoted to almonds, olives and garden truck. The county leads the State in alfalfa. It is famous for its sweet potatoes, and recognizes the Eastbay market in the disposition of that crop.

Happily located as the gateway to Yosemite, it saw more than 10,000 automobiles pass through it last year.

The irrigation project is to mean millions for Merced county. In addition to its present facilities a great new dam is financed and will be rushed. There is every reason to believe that the whole valley with Merced and nearby towns will double in population in the next few years. The big farms are being split into orchards and new families are coming in and the vision to make ready for them is apparent.

A part of the party motored to Livingston, which is hailed as a coming raisin center. The Delhi colony, where State aid is given to men who would settle the ground, where the right crop for the right temperament is suggested, and where an architect and a farm adviser are on hand to plan farms and homes, was visited.

Regret was expressed that the schedule could not allow for a stop at Turlock, the melon and fruit center and the possessor of an amazing record of development.

Have You Had a Radio Bid

The wild ether waves are saying: "Come to Shriners' Mardi Gras ball and see Miss Rose Waterman, impressionistic dancer, and other amusement features." MISS WATERMAN is shown in the accompanying illustration.

Radio Carries Invitations To Shrine Mardi Gras Ball

They are now sending invitations and receiving acceptances by radio. Henry C. Reynolds, an Oakland attorney, who has been broadcasting invitations to the Shriners' Mardi Gras, to be held in the Oakland Auditorium, from the Warner Brothers' station in Oakland, yesterday received an acceptance of his invitation from Henela, Mont.

"We are with you" was the reply that came from Montana. "We can't all come but we are sending a few representatives."

Announcement of Shriners' Mardi Gras week is now being broadcast from the following stations: TRIBUNE broadcasting station at Hotel Oakland, Hotel Claremont, Hotel Fairmont, the Emporium, Warner Brothers, Ninth Corp, Acro Signal Corp, Presidio; Ord Laboratories, Stockton; Hobrecht Radio Shop, Sacramento; E. A. Partal, Herrold Laboratories, San Jose; Precision Shop, Gridley, Calif.; Examiner radio department, San Francisco.

While the various Shrine committees are busy arranging the program and rounding up the tickets which are out, the various candidates for queen are staging what might be termed as a dance contest. Four of the young women who are battling for the honors have announced dances in their behalf. At these dances all of the proceeds will go toward the purchase of votes

Miss Luise Bruns, through her manager, Clifford Irish, has announced a dance to be held on top of one of the Oakland office buildings; Miss Oro Taylor gave a dance last evening; Gladys M. Wilson announces a dance Thursday evening at Aahmes Temple, and friends of Miss Vivia M. Mezger of Roseville are planning a monster dance at Roseville Saturday evening.

Aside from the honor of presiding at all of the events the queen will receive a closed automobile. Four diamond rings, aggregating $3000 in value, will be given to the four next in rank.

Contracts were signed yesterday with Rose Waterman, impressionistic dancer, for a series of dance recitals to be given during the week. Miss Waterman will give the "Fall of Vanity" and also the "Dance of the Masks."

C. of C. Appoints Member Secretary

With the appointment of F. M. Kerrick, until recently secretary-treasury of the Western Corporation of the American City Bureau as membership secretary, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce today launched a campaign to increase its membership.

Kerrick's appointment was made necessary by the largely increased activity of the Chamber. It will be his purpose to build the membership of the organization to a still larger figure in order that the efficiency of the Chamber may be further increased.

Prior to his association with the American City Bureau, Kerrick was secretary-manager of the Benicia Chamber of Commerce and secretary-treasurer of the United Chamber of Commerce of Sacramento valley. Before going to Benicia he was field secretary with the American City Bureau and was engaged in campaign work.

Rotarians Gather To Plan Boys' Week

Joseph J. Rosborough is general chairman of the committee.

One feature of the celebration will be a parade on Thursday, May 4.

Homer J. Bemiss, Scout executive of the Oakland Boy Scouts, will be chairman of the Back to School and Good Turn Day on May 2.

GIRL GETS COIN TO BUY NEW SCHOOL

The Oakland school department does not have to send children out to beg pennies with which to buy portable schools.

This statement was made today by Superintendent Fred M. Hunter and other school officials as the result of the East Oakland operations of a juvenile girl Ponzi who operated a personally-conducted house-to-house campaign, collecting pennies, nickels and dimes with which to "buy a new portable for Frick school."

The funds did not go toward a portable, it is said, but helped to satisfy the youthful taste for candy, ice cream and like things. Investigation by school authorities discloses that every time the child needed more funds she went forth and collected additional moneys with which to buy that Frick portable.

PREPARATION AGAINST DRY PERIOD MADE

Preparing for the dry season, the city engineer's office is now printing thousands of forms to notify property-owners against allowing dry grass and weeds to accumulate on their yards or lots. The warnings will be issued May 1.

According to street department officials, the city, this year, intends to have no bursh or weed fires if it can be prevented. Drastic action will be taken if the warnings are ignored.

Those who burn weeds and dry grass must, of course, get a permit from the fire department, but this is easy, it is pointed out. Meantime, the park and fire departments are preparing to eliminate dry brush in the parks and mountain roads.

Hikers Menace State Poppies, Says Scientist

BERKELEY, April 19.—Through the heedlessness of automobilists and hikers, California's wild flowers, especially the golden poppy, are becoming extinct, says Professor W. L. Jepson of the university's botany department.

As evidence of the ravages made upon the wild bloom, Professor Jepson says:

"A few years ago the Berkeley hills were a mass of golden poppies at this season of the year. Now they are a barren green. Many of California's most exquisite floral species are in danger of becoming extinct through the heedlessness of hikers and automobilists. As evidence that there is an awakening to the danger, a State law was recently passed to prevent the destruction of the Christmas red berry."

Fathers Will Build School Playground

BERKELEY, April 19.—The old song "Everybody Works but Father" will not have a part in the program planned for Saturday, April 29, by the parents of the Emerson school.

A "Father's Work day" has been declared for that date, and armed with picks, shovels and other instruments of labor, paternal parents of pupils at the school will assemble to construct a playground at the school, Piedmont avenue and Garber street.

BILL WOULD MARK HOUSE FRONT LINES

As the result of a study of the laws of 125 American cities, the Oakland city planning commission is now making a survey of the city with a view to establishing a "set back" ordinance by which homes in the residence district will not be allowed to be built except at a certain distance back from the sidewalk line.

"At present we have no ordinance which applies to the subject," says City Clerk E. K. Sturgis, secretary of the commission. "In consequence, many property owners are disgruntled by the haphazard construction of houses."

HURT, MAN WAITS AID FOR 24 HOURS ON VACANT LOT

Homeless Mendicant, Struck Down by Auto Monday, Found Today.

For 24 hours, John Carroll lay in a vacant lot at Sixty-sixth street and Shattuck avenue, injured and semi-conscious and unnoticed by passers-by.

Last night his moans attracted the attention of Sergeant John Maxey and he was removed to the emergency hospital, where he was treated for exposure, lack of nourishment and a fractured leg.

Today he is at the Alameda county infirmary, where his condition is reported critical.

On Monday night Carroll a homeless mendicant, was crossing Shattuck avenue, at Sixty-sixth street. A touring car speeding toward town struck him down and passed on.

Fearing that he might receive a second injury, Carroll dragged himself by his hands to a vacant lot on the corner. There, exhausted and in terrible pain, he awaited the arrival of help.

Time passed and no one came. Then he forgot the passage of time, and it was not until his moaning attracted the police officer that he was given medical attention.

The police have no trace of the car that ran Carroll down and no report was made of the accident. Carroll did not secure the number.

DRIVE DIRECTOR IN LEGAL FIGHT FOR $125 A WEEK

Suit to determine who hired H. E. Goodenow, professional director of "drives," and on what terms, during a campaign conducted by the Japanese Exclusion League in Alameda county during February and March of last year, was begun today before Superior Judge James G. Quinn.

According to members of the Alameda County Campaign committee of the league, Goodenow was hired merely to sit in the Oakland headquarters and answer personal and telephone inquiries during the campaign, so that none of them would have to give up their private business affairs to perform these duties.

According to Goodenow, he was hired by state directors of the exclusion league, and sent to Oakland as campaign manager at a salary of $125 a week.

Among the defendants named in Goodenow's suit, in which he demands $625 for five weeks' work, are Edward H. Brown and W. A. Kling, state directors of the league, and A. T. Shine, Maurice Bleuel, County Auditor E. F. Garrison, Al Baum, Deputy District Attorney Donald McClure, David Inman, Albert E. Boynton and John Chambers, members of the league.

Local members of the league assert that they asked the state directors to send them a man to take care of the office routine during the campaign in Alameda county, which preceded the municipal election of last year, and that the directors sent Goodenow, presumably for this purpose. Goodenow declares he was to receive not only $125 a week salary, but a percentage of all money raised.

Labor Council to Protest Wage Cut

The new minimum wage scale for women recommended by the State Industrial Welfare Commission, will be protested by the Oakland Labor Council at a mass meeting called for that purpose within the next two weeks, it was announced today.

President E. S. Hurley of the Oakland Labor Council, who will be one of the speakers at the mass meeting, said yesterday:

"The new minimum wage fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is so insufficient as to be ridiculous. Any woman trying to live on $15 a week will have to be pitied. She will be under-nourished and poorly clad. Surely our womanhood is entitled to something better than that. The old wage of $16 per week was bad enough."

Invitations to the mass meeting will be sent to civic associations, to women's clubs, to ministers and others.

SHRINE EMBLEM WILL BLOOM IN CITY HALL PARK

Practice Golf Course Asked in Lakeside Park; Duck Fountain Proposed.

The board of park directors yesterday evening decided to plant a floral Shrine emblem at the city hall plaza, started investigating into the possibilities of a "practice golf course" at Lakeside park, and received suggestions from the friends of the late County Assessor I. Harrison Clay that a duck fountain be installed at the edge of Lake Merritt as a memorial to him.

Incidentally, the park department received a communication that residents of North Oakland want the tract opposite Technical High school for a permanent park. This was seconded by a letter from Mayor Davie. The park board decided to suggest to the residents that the tract be purchased on the district assessment plan.

Landscape Architect Howard Gilkey and Park Superintendent Lee Kerfoot were requested to lay out the Shrine design at the plaza in honor of the coming visit of Shriners from all parts of the United States.

Dr. C. L. Clement's suggestion of a practice golf course was laid over for investigation.

The Dimond Improvement club suggested a tennis court at Dimond park, and the playground commission will be asked to give the space for it.

Pfister, for 15 years president of the association of county clerks, returned with his sixteenth election to that office to his credit, but announced that this is positively his last year as chief executive of the association.

"I have issued an ultimatum to the effect that I will refuse to attend the convention next year unless promised faithfully that I will not again be asked to take the office of president," Pfister told The TRIBUNE today. "I am getting to be too old a man to bear the responsibilities of the office."

EXECUTOR CITED IN BAUM WILL CONTROVERSY

Heirs Charge Mismanagement of Estate; Court to Investigate.

As the result of charges made by heirs to the quarter million dollar estate of the late Mrs. Eliza Baum of Alameda that Alexander R. Balm, San Francisco attorney and executor for the estate, has been guilty of waste, mismanagement and embezzlement of funds, Balm was cited into Probate Judge E. C. Robinson's court today to show cause why he should not be removed as executor.

Balm who recently had his name changed, is a son of Mrs. Baum.

CHARGES FILED.

The citation followed the filing of a petition with Judge Robinson of several of the heirs to the Baum estate. In the petition it was asserted that Balm had failed to obey a court order last fall providing for the distribution of $15,000 to several of the heirs and legatees, and that a subsequent investigation had led to the belief that Balm had misused funds of the estate to such an extent that he was unable to pay the amount ordered by the court.

The estate is that of the late Eliza Baum of 1404 San Antonio avenue, Alameda, a pioneer resident of this county, who died July 6, 1919, at the age of 79 years. It consists partly of real estate in San Francisco, Alameda county and Eldorado county, and partly of corporate securities and cash. It is appraised at $235,000.

Among the heirs are Mrs. Eliza R. Wood, wife of Percy A. Wood, of 114 Greenbank avenue, Piedmont, and the four children of the late Mrs. Virginia Dresel of 3827 Clay street, San Francisco.

BEQUEST TO SON.

Balm is the only surviving member of Mrs. Baum's immediate family, and was left a third of the residue of her estate, his share amounting to more than $70,000.

In her will, dated in 1917, Mrs. Baum named her son, Alexander R. Balm, and her son-in-law, Gustav Dresel, as joint executors without bond, but she later revoked the appointment of Dresel.

The heirs, whose accusations against Balm resulted in his citation into court today, include Mrs. Eliza R. Wood, Mrs. Virginia H. Myers and, Rudolph E. Baum of San Francisco. They are represented by the law firm of Heller, Ehrman, White and McAuliffe of San Francisco, and Miss Alma C. Myers, a San Francisco attorney and one of the heirs at law.

Police Asked to Aid Hunt for S. J. Man

SAN JOSE, April 19.—Fears for the life of George Slavich, 45, a former inmate of the Agnew state hospital, were held today as the result of the mysterious disappearance of the man from his usual haunts in this city Monday.

An all-day search yesterday for Slavich failed to bring any satisfaction.

Police authorities were requested by J. A. Chargin, of 167 Vine street, a friend who had employed Slavich to work about his place, to search for the missing man.

Slavich had been melancholy and Monday afternoon stated that he was going to St. Joseph's church for a few moments. He did not go there and has neither been seen nor heard of since that time. Chargin fears that the man may have taken his life as a result of his melancholy disposition.

NEW SCHOOL EAST OF COLLEGE AVE. BERKELEY PLEA

Petitioners Told That There Are No Funds Available for Purpose.

BERKELEY, April 19.—Bearing 470 signatures a petition was presented yesterday to the Board of Education asking the establishment of an intermediate high school east of College avenue.

The petition was presented to the board by Mrs. Florence L. Wachob, 3028 Hillegass avenue, and is the second of its kind reaching the school officials, a similar request for a new intermediate school having been made by residents east of Shattuck avenue in the northern part of the city.

NO FUNDS READY.

Superintendent H. B. Wilson agreed with the petitioners that the Willard school was "comfortably filled." Owing to the fact that the board has not funds at present to undertake new work, the petition was ordered filed.

Motion pictures in all schools of the city under proper safeguards from fire were asked by a committee of the Berkeley Federation of Parent-Teachers' associations, composed of Mrs. John F. Johnston (chairman), Mrs. Bonita A. Herrick and Mrs. F. H. Damon. At the present time it was pointed out, seven schools are without visual education.

J. L. Poulsen of Oakland was appointed as storekeeper by the board at a salary of $140 per month.

The resignation of Miss Alice Eveleth of the Oxford school was accepted because of ill health.

Plans for additions at the Longfellow school were approved by the board with the reservation that the drawings must first be checked by Miss Annice Woodall, principal of the school, and Superintendent Wilson.

Steps for the improvement of the recently acquired playground at the McKinley school were taken by the board, bids being authorized for the surfacing of the ground. Resolutions of regret at the death of A. T. Sutherland, member of the Berkeley Board of Education for twelve years, were drawn.

Permission was given the Berkeley Federation of Parent-Teachers' Associations to use the parents' meeting room at Berkeley High school provided sanction was given by Principal C. L. Biedenbach.

New Pastor to Be Given Reception

Father Mills comes here from Fruitvale where he has been acting as assistant pastor for the past two years. Previous to taking up his duties at Fruitvale he was located in Great Falls, Mont., at which place he was ordained into the priesthood. Father Mills' delicate health was the cause of his coming to California.

Rodeo Sidewalk Cost Estimated

MARTINEZ, April 19.—The construction of the walk asked by the Union Oil Company and citizens of Rodeo, along the State highway between the town of Rodeo and the oil works, will cost $12,000, according to a communication received from the state highway commission.

The commission asks that the county assume one-third of the cost and the oil company one-third. Supervisor Knott was named to confer with the oil company.

The walk is necessary for the protection of pedestrians going between the town and the oil works because of the great amount of motor traffic on the highway.

Old Rules Revived For Job Seekers

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Orders to deputy commissioners and heads of divisions of the Internal Revenue Bureau requiring all applications for appointment to be made through the appointment division were made public today by Commissioner Blair.

The orders, Blair explained, have been in force for several years and were reissued to facilitate a more orderly consideration of appointments. Some bureau officials, however, construed the order as forbidding them to confer with members of congress or others. It was suggested today that an appeal might be made to Secretary Mellon for a revocation of the order. Blair said his order was issued without the authorization of Mellon.

FLYING WIRE KILLS WOMAN

SAN RAMON, April 19.—Miss Anita I. Glass of the San Ramon valley was killed while engaged in superintending the construction of a wire fence at her home, the Lora Nita farm.

According to the statement of an employee of the farm following the death of Miss Glass, he was engaged in stretching a wire and Miss Glass, who was standing nearby, stepped forward to insert a bolt in a post while he held the wire taut with a large bar. The wire suddenly snapped, one end of it striking Miss Glass in the back of the head with terrific force. She was killed instantly.

Miss Glass was a daughter of the late David and Elizabeth Glass, who came here in the pioneer days of California and who took an active part in the making of Contra Costa history.

GIRL ARRESTED WEARING U. S. SAILOR DRESS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—A jaunty figure, clad in a sailor's uniform, sauntered down the Embarcadero. Patrolman Harry Webb looked wonderingly after it. Something in the "swing" puzzled him. Somehow, there was a difference between the jazz-like swaying of the steps that differed from the rolling motion of the regulation man o' warsman.

He stopped the "sailor." A blushing face greeted him and the mark of humility was so plain that there was no need to hesitate. Webb realized that his intuition was right and that jazz was the word.

There was nothing to indicate "deep water" in the entire makeup of the "sailor" and when the Harbor police station was reached the wearer of the uniform admitted she was May Williams, a musician, aged 25. She said she lived at 201 Fifth street. She was charged with masquerading in male attire.

"Merely masquerading," was the way she put it.

WOMAN SLAYER OF HER SISTER FREED BY JURY

Girl Alleged to Have Won Away Husband; Cheers Greet Verdict.

FREEHOLD, N. J., April 19.—A jury of men last night acquitted Mrs. Hermina Renzellman, 31, who shot and killed her young sister, Gesine Wessels, on January 15, because of alleged intimacy with her husband in their home at West Long Branch.

The trial began this morning before Supreme Court Justice Kalisch. The jurors were chosen in three hours and at 6 o'clock, after deliberating half an hour, they returned a verdict. Courtroom spectators applauded the verdict.

Mrs. Renzellman on the witness stand said that she had sent money to her sister in Germany last August to enable her to come to America and on her arrival here had been met by her husband and taken to their home in West Long Branch.

"For five weeks I noticed an apparent attachment between my sister and my husband," she told the jury. "On two occasions I caught my sister kissing my husband. Later he took my sister to New York, saying he had found her a position, leaving me in my lonely country home.

"My sister came down the Saturday before Christmas and remained two weeks with me. She admitted living with my husband, and when he came down the last day of my sister's stay, he took my sister back with him.

She then told of going to New York and meeting her husband. She said: "We went to an apartment where my husband introduced me to the lady of the house as his wife's sister.

"I upbraided my sister for living there with my husband. I asked why she didn't go to work. She said she wouldn't, but would continue to live with Fred.

"I induced my sister to accompany me home on Saturday. From that time my mind was a blank."

Fruit Cooling Plant Nears Completion

RIVERBANK, April 19.—Work on the new $500,000 ice plant and cooling station of the Sante Fe is being rushed with all speed, to enable the plant to be in readiness for the early fruit shipping. New men are being added daily and the scene is alive with the hum of industry.

It is also rumored again, and this time persistently, that on the completion of the job, the same contractors will begin the erection of a Harvey eating house and new Santa Fe depot here. The new depot seems almost a certainty, but whether the eating house will be built remains to be seen. Should it go up, the Harvey establishment at Merced would be discontinued. Recently word came from Merced that the eating house at that place was not to be removed.

The proposition to incorporate Riverbank is also helping to boost the town. The boundary question having been settled, all that remains is to call an election. This will be done in the near future.

Marathon Again Is Won by De Mar

BOSTON, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Clarence de Mar, of Melrose, Mass., won the annual American marathon road race today.

De Mar cut 47 3-5 seconds off the former record. Willie Ritola, of New York, finished second, about four minutes behind De Mar. The Canadian champion, Albert Smoke, of Peterboro, Ont., an Indian, was third, and Victor McCaulay, of Windsor, N. S., fourth.

ARTIST TRUSTEES OF CARMEL TAKE OATH OF OFFICE

Big Electoral Storm Which Shook Artists' Colony Subsides.

CARMEL, April 19.—Carmel's electoral storm has at last subsided.

The new trustees took the oath of office at the city hall last night. William L. Maxwell was elected chairman of the board, a position equivalent to that of mayor. With the inducting of the new members into office and the election of Captain Maxwell the signs are good for a conservative administration. While elected on the artistic ticket the new mayor, a retired navy man, will give the temperamental little village a sound business administration.

Art for art's sake is not so prominently placed on the new board as to scare its opponents. Perry Newberry, author of many adventure stories, is made commissioner of streets and sidewalks. Those who voted against Newberry for office said that riding on Carmel streets was an adventure in itself, while the town sidewalks were almost purely imaginary. But it is hoped by his friends that the eminent fictionist will show them that he knows how to straighten up the highways and keep the paths curving, according to the platform on which he ran. Miss Helen Parkes, dramatist and producer, has charge of the water and light for the town. Mayor William L. Maxwell shoulders the burden of finance. Thomas Reardon, plumber, the only holdover from the old board, looks after fire and police; William T. Kibblet, erstwhile mayor and re-elected to the board, has charge of health.

The meeting was brief, harmonious and the election flurry being over ever one seems to have settled down to work for the good of Carmel as he or she sees it.

OFFICER'S HOME ROBBED AS HE HUNTS BURGLAR

BERKELEY, April 19—While Sergeant Oscar Putzker was at his desk at the police station last night, directing the operations of a squad of men detailed to hunt burglars, his own home, 2310 Ward street, was being ransacked of jewelry and other valuables.

Mrs. Putzker, who was next door, visiting a neighbor, returned home at 10:50 o'clock to find the door open and the house in disorder. The loot was valued at several hundred dollars, a large quantity of silverware being taken. A shotgun valued at $150 also was missing.

Mrs. Putzker immediately notified her husband of the theft, but despite a search made by officers, no trace was found of the culprits.

Foss Mill Zoning Case Up in Court

BERKELEY, April 19.—A jury was being selected today in the court of Judge Robert Edgar to try the case against County Treasurer Fred W. Foss, under the building zone ordinance. Foss is the owner of a lumber mill located at Central and Milvia streets, and a complaint sworn to some time ago by Louis Blint, charges that it is being maintained in direct violation to the zoning laws.

Blint declares that the coal yard of the mill which is in direct view of the city hall is a menace and an "eye sore" to the community and asks that removal be forced.

Foss claims that the property was utilized in the same manner before the zoning ordinance was passed and therefore immune from action which might result regarding its present location.

S. F. Luncheon Club To Hear Edgerton

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Members of the Commonwealth Club will be told of the conditions in the water supply of the eastbay district at the regular monthly meeting tomorrow at the St. Francis hotel, with Edwin O. Edgerton, president of the Eastbay water company as the principal speaker.

Edgerton will show that the water supply on the east side of the bay is nearer exhaustion than on the San Francisco side, and J. C. Shinn is scheduled to speak on "the alarming features of the exhaustion of the underground supply in the Niles basin."

M. M. O'Shaughnessy, city engineer, and Robert M. Searls, will tell of the Hetch Hetchy project.

San Francisco Police Jail Bandit Suspects

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—George Ashley Hale and Frank Martin, alias Nelson, suspected Los Angeles bandits and believed by the police of that city to have been concerned in a number of holdups, were arrested here today when they appeared to claim baggage at the offices of the American Express company.

On information from Chief of Police Everington that two men wanted for robbery in Los Angeles had shipped their effects by express to this city, Detective Michael Desmond and Thomas Murphy laid in wait and arrested them. In one of the suitcases claimed by the pair was a loaded weapon and considerable ammunition.

Miss Marjorie Spring is chairman of a senior students committee at Mills College which is offering for sale tickets for the performance of Hamlet in the Century Theater, San Francisco, on Friday, April 28. The campaign is being conducted as a benefit to the college endowment fund.

J. A. Hensley, vice-president of the John C. Fremont high school, reported to the police that the locker of Joseph Prelli, a student at the school, had been broken into. The thieves took $10 in currency and a check for $65, which was in a wallet in his coat pocket. Prelli resides with his parents at 1503 One Hundredth avenue.

SAN LEANDRO

New Store Buildings Nearing Completion

SAN LEANDRO, April 19.—San Leandro's two new store buildings are practically completed, a few additional finishing touches being necessary before they will be ready for opening. The building being erected by William Matthews and John Boitano, located on East Fourteenth street, between Ward and Hepburn streets, has proven the first in the race towards completion, barring accidents, but a few days remaining before its official opening. The store will be converted into a poolroom, it is said.

The combined store building and apartment under construction by Prosper Godchaux, adjoining the Estudillo House, will be finished a short time after its competitor.

Parking Districts Being Established

SAN LEANDRO, April 19.—Under the direction of Marshal J. F. Peralta of this city, a force of men is engaged in the mapping out of districts in the business center for the parking of automobiles. There will also be plainly visible lines with the painted words, "No Parking," placed around each centrally located fire hydrant. It was formerly considered unnecessary for such strict traffic stipulations, but continued violations of the laws, together with the continual parking of machines directly in front of hydrants, necessitated such procedure, Peralta said.

REPAIRS PLANNED.

SAN LEANDRO, April 19.—Extensive repairs will be begun immediately on the I. O. O. F. building, located on East Fourteenth street, in the heart of the business district, according to discussion at the semi-monthly meeting of the Odd Fellows of this city last night. Plans were formulated for a local delegation to attend District Meeting No. 69, I. O. O. F., to be held in Oakland next Tuesday night.

Women's Fight to Be Aired in Court

SAN LEANDRO, April 19.—Manuel Valance, constable of San Leandro, is busily engaged in rounding up eight witnesses to appear at the trial of Mrs. J. Ford, charged with battery by Mrs. Leonora Wickersham, both of this city. According to Valance, witnesses for both sides of the case will appear, and early indications point to a rather stormy session of court.

Request by Mrs. Ford that she be allowed a jury trial was granted.

Organization Plans For Auxiliary Mode

SAN LEANDRO, April 19.—Under the auspices of the J. J. Borree Camp, Spanish War Veterans of San Leandro, formation of a women's auxiliary in this city was begun last night at the city hall.

Native Sons, Estudillo parlor, met last night at Masonic hall. Plans relative to the barbecue held today at Mission San Jose were discussed.

Members of the Titan club of this city met at St. Joseph's hall and made plans for the future erection of a new clubhouse.

YOUNG FOLKS' DANCE.

SAN LEANDRO, April 19.—Plans were formulated for a young folks' dance, to be held the middle of May, at a meeting of the Broadmoor Mothers' club yesterday afternoon at the Washington School auditorium. A nominating committee, consisting of the Mesdames J. E. Zundel, Edgar Hayes and W. Grothe, was appointed to nominate and elect officers of the club for the present year.

Monterey Boosters' Club Plans Civic Development

MONTEREY, April 19.—"Boost Monterey—the sky's the limit!" is a suitable slogan for the newly organized Monterey Boosters' Club.

This vital young organization is an infant of a little over two months, but for a child of that age it has assumed astonishing proportions, for the membership even in this short time totals between five and six hundred, and is growing by leaps and bounds. The club contains most of Monterey's live, up-and-coming citizens.

The Monterey Club has all the chance in the world to make a record for itself, its members say. Monterey, California's first capital, was a place of stately homes when San Francisco was a mining camp. Its growth has been no more than was forced upon it as a town. It will stand boosting, for it has everything that is needed to back up boosting; a big fishing industry, a rich ranching district to draw upon for trade and the bay of Monterey is not only a fine harbor, but of notable beauty, resembling, as artists say who have painted both, the famous bay of Naples. No more perfect site for a city could be imagined, and that Monterey shall become a great city is the determination of the Boosters.

This club, which bids fair to become a big factor in the civic future of the town, grew out of friendly social gatherings.

The Boosters still have time and energy enough left after hustling for Monterey to have some good fun. They give dances, theatricals and evenings of amateur stunts, and their baseball team shows all the "pep" of the main organization. This team, wearing the blue and orange, Booster colors, will take a motor hop to Hollister next Sunday to meet the American Legion team there. Many of the clubmembers will pack up their lunches and go along to root for the team and take in the game which promises to be a thriller.

The members will hold their usual meeting at the clubrooms in the Y. W. C. A. hut in New Monterey on Thursday evening.

Whisker Club Aims to Bring Beard's Return

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—You may join the Whisker Club of Sacramento though you live anywhere from Eureka to San Diego.

But, beware! Once you have joined, if you shave before May 28 your head will be shaved, too.

Superior Judge Graham of San Francisco was elected whiskerino emeritus.

Special trophies for out-of-town entrants are being arranged. Prizes will be given to Rotary and other civic organizations having the largest number of entrants from any town outside Sacramento.

Chief Whiskerino Seavey issued a proclamation today calling on every man in the city to start a beard at once. His order to city employees was more forcible than that. Off goes any smooth-shaven head seen around the city hall.

The Whisker Club will attend the ball game in San Francisco en masse Sunday and stage a stunt there.

A special committee of whiskerinos will appear before all women's organizations this week and endeavor to have the feminine blockade against beards lifted.

Freshmen to Give Dance for School

CENTERVILLE, April 19.—Members of the freshmen class of Washington township union high school, today began preparations for the dance to be given by the class for the school the night of May 5.

Sanction for the event was given this week by Principal George Wright and immediately freshmen started to plan for the most notable social event ever given to the three upper classes by a freshmen class of this school.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Judge Cardoza of the Court of Appeals today granted a certificate of reasonable doubt in the cases of Isaac E. Ferguson, former Chicago lawyer, and Charles E. Ruthenberg, once socialist candidate for governor of Ohio, who were convicted of criminal anarchy in 1920. He ordered their release from Sing Sing prison in bail, pending the filing of an appeal from their conviction.

HORSES C. O. D. "ELEPHANTS" AT DAVIS FARM

Students at the University Farm of Davis have discovered that there are conditions under which a horse can become an elephant. As a result of their "oldest horse" contest, several equine entries, shipped C. O. D., have become "elephants" on their hands.

Permission to care for all of the superannuated Dobbins en route to the farm, has been refused by the farm authorities. The farm committee emphatically announces that horses sent C. O. D. are not wanted.

The winner of the oldest horse contest will be one of the features of the farm day picnic to be held on April 29.

British, Japanese Princes Play Golf

TOKYO, April 19.—The Prince of Wales today concluded his official visit to Tokyo by playing a game of golf against Crown Prince Hirohito the Regent. The British heir apparent will now start on a tour of the country districts.

The battery of cameras that followed the royal players around the course apparently had the effect of putting them both off their games. No scorecards were turned in.

STILL, MASH ARE FOUND IN WOODS BY DRY RAIDERS

Complete Camp, Deserted, Unearthed on River Near Marysville.

MARYSVILLE, April 19.—Dry raiders have discovered a complete and comprehensive bootleggers' camp in the Yuba river jungles east of Marysville. A large still and a half-ton of sugar and corn mash were found, but the operators had fled.

Sawed-off shotguns and rifles, with ammunition, showed the plan of the illicit whisky makers to repel invaders if surprised, a possibility provided against by a lookout station some distance from the camp, from which a wire and signal device extended to the main camp.

Sheriff C. J. Moody, who led the raiding party, seized suitcases containing men and women's clothing, silverware and jewelry, which led the officers to believe the moonshiners might also have operated as thieves.

Blankets, believed to have been those of John Connelly, sought in connection with the slaying of Patrolman Francis Heenan in Marysville February 6, were found in the camp.

DAMAGES ASKED FOR TRIPLE CRASH

MARTINEZ, April 19.—Whether or not damage can be levied against the driver of an automobile, whose car strikes one which had already been struck by another, and the proportionate amount of damages which can be levied against the second car to strike, is the problem before Judge A. B. McKenzie in the superior court here today.

The three way damage suit, resulting from a collision which happened six months ago, in which Ella Linsler and Joseph Linsler and Joseph McGuire are suing Thad Johnson for $40,000 and Johnson is suing McGuire for $1000, with the above entanglement as only one of the problems to be settled, is being tried today.

Attorneys for McGuire claim that they can sue and collect damages from Johnson by reason of the fact that the first collision occurred between the cars of McGuire and Johnson and that by reason of that fact the McGuire car was placed in a position so that it was practically impossible for the Linsler auto to escape hitting McGuire. They also maintain that they do not have to sue Linsler for the damage done by their car, and that even if they did it would be impossible to assess the damage done by either Johnson or Linsler.

Road Hearing for Bay Farm Island

ALAMEDA, April 19.—The first steps in the long delayed construction in the Bay Farm Island-San Leandro road will be taken at the next meeting of the Alameda city council when property owners on the island will appear to decide on the type of road they desire.

Two types are under consideration. One, an oil-macadam, will cost $11,108 for the first link; the other type, concrete, will cost $29,312.

Circus Employee Is Held for Robbery

MARTINEZ, April 19.—Jerry McBride, circus employee, charged with the robbery of the Israel and Reeves home in Pittsburg on April 9, was arrested in San Jose yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Dike Joslin and Constable James Fahey of Pittsburg. McBride was trailed by Fahey and Joslin from Pittsburg to Oakland and then to San Jose, and when arrested was in possession of an overcoat alleged to belong to Israel.

McBride is alleged to be a pal of a man who was formerly with the circus and now is serving a six months' sentence in the Alameda county jail on a charge of burglary committed in Livermore. Both men were with the circus in Pittsburg on the night of the robbery.

Rodolph-Havre Nuptials to Be This Evening

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Rodolph in Vernon Heights will be the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Doris Rodolph, and Harold Jean Havre this evening, two hundred and fifty guests to be assembled for the ritual and reception to follow. The home, which lends itself so admirably for such an affair, will be "done" in fuchsia and orchids, a wealth of spring blossoms transforming the rooms into a beautiful floral background. An altar was erected at one of the drawing rooms, adorned with Easter lilies and Ophelia roses with large candelabra shedding a soft glow.

Miss Carolyn Rodolph will be her sister's maid of honor and will wear a stunning frock in fuchsia georgette and will carry Ophelia roses and maidenhair fern.

Mrs. Frank Moller, who is to be her matron of honor, will be gowned in delicate toned orchid georgette and carry the pink Ophelia roses and fernery.

The sextet of bridesmaids will include Miss Eleanor Havre, sister of the bridegroom-elect; Miss Helen Rodolph, cousin of Miss Rodolph; Miss Elizabeth Moore, Miss Flora Edwards, Mrs. Herriott Small and Mrs. William Stafford Gibbs.

All will wear bouffant frocks made in the new long waisted mode of changeable yellow and fuchsia taffeta and will carry shower bouquets of Ophelia roses tied with bows of two-toned tulle orchid and gold.

The bridal gown, quite unlike that worn by a bride of this season, is of chiffon velvet embellished in rhinestones, fashioned along simple lines. The gown is short in length, and the bridal veils of tulle will form the court train, the end of which is borderede duchesse and rose point lace.

Polk Dodson, a fraternity brother of the benedict-to-be, will be best man.

Miss Rodolph is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority, and many of the guests will be sorority sisters of the bride as well as former classmates at Miss Head's school, of which she is a graduate.

Havre is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean B. Havre, and a graduate of the University of California. He is a Phi Upsilon fraternity man.

The reception to Kathleen Norris, author, and Charles C. Norris this evening at Ebell club house, under the auspices of the Beltink Ball Library, is to be one of the notable gatherings of the week. Preceding the affair, which will be attended by several hundred guests, Mrs. Walpurga M. Beltink and Mrs. Laura P. Ball will be hostesses at a dinner at the Hotel Oakland. Places will be set for Kathleen Norris, Mrs. Theo. N. K. Ball, Miss Ruth Covey Merritt, Miss Peggy O'Moore, Charles G. Norris, Philip E. Fisher Jr., Carlton W. Kendall and Augustin S. Beltink.

Mogensen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Mogensen of Burlingame where the benedict-elect is associated in business with his father.

Miss Georgina Cadby will be maid of honor and Mrs. Frederick E. Parfitt, sister of the bride, matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Glarys Meinecke of Honolulu and Mrs. Walter Hawthorne Eliassen (Carolyn Norman). Virginia Neilsen will be the little flower maiden and Frederick E. Parfitt Jr., ring bearer. Beverly Bogart will serve as best man and as ushers there will be Newton Houston, Lindsay Grey and Ray Folgey.

The bride will wear a gown of duchess lace over georgette with formal veil of tulle caught at the headdress with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet will be of butterfly orchids, cyclamen and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor will wear ashes of rose taffeta with hat to harmonize. The matron of honor will wear perewinkle blue and a picture hat. The two bridesmaids will wear frocks of tangerine georgette and jade green with shower bouquets of sweet peas to match their gowns.

The little flower maiden will be frocked in pink taffeta. Master Parfitt will be in all white.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Parfitt in Burlingame. The honeymoon of the couple will be passed in the southern part of the state.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

Women Voters Plan to Boost Annual Dues

By EDNA B. KINARD.

Increased obligations and the ambition to place the organization upon a firm financial basis have led to a movement in Oakland Center, California League of Women Voters, toward a substantial raise in annual dues. A first reading has been given to the amendment which has been offered, action being expected at the annual business meeting next month. Two dollars and fifty cents will be the season's fee if the sponsors of the amendment carry the majority vote.

The civic body began its career with a membership fee of $1 annually shortly after suffrage was granted to women. When prices went skyrocketing during the war days and months that followed, the cost for the privilege of affiliation with the important group was increased to $1.50 and a small initiation fee added. Leaders are seeing a necessity for the still larger fee if certain projects are to be carried out.

The suggestion to add to the burden of membership will probably meet with opposition from many sources. A heated discussion is expected in the May meeting. Oakland Center numbers 587 members.

Plans for the Founders' day luncheon, which occurs on Thursday, May 4, will engage the attention of the Pioneer Women of Oakland, meeting in regular session in Wigwam hall (Pacific building) on Friday. Mrs. Sarah E. Farwell will preside.

The first annual celebration of that occasion when a small group of the early settlers came together to organize a pioneer society for women will be a brilliant one, occurring, as it does, upon the anniversary of the day upon which Oakland was incorporated more than half a century ago. Miss Lily Cole, chairman of the special committee on arrangements, with Mrs. T. C. Mayon and Mrs. Minnie Nedderman, will offer to the larger body an outline of the plans for the festivity for ratification this week

Approximately a 100 per cent attendance was registered at Hill and Valley Club this week, when the Hayward women listened to an illustrated talk on electricity, the means of handling it and the uses to which it is put. The afternon marked the first program under the auspices of the newly-elected board of directors, of which Mrs. George Kavanaugh is president.

Glenview Women's Club, which had previously announced a program for tomorrow afternoon, during which taxes were to have been discussed by Carlos G. White, has postponed the discussion. The conflict of the twenty-first annual convention of Alameda district, C. F. W. C., now in session in Berkeley, with the local club date led the officers to eliminate the program.

The annual election of officers and directors of the Martinez Woman's Club Building Association was held on Saturday. The following were elected: Mrs. W. S. Tinning, president; Mrs. J. J. Anderson, vice-president; Miss May McNamara, treasurer; Mrs. Alice G. Whitbeck, secretary; directors—Mrs. W. S. Tinning, Mrs. H. J. Curry, Mrs. J. J. Anderson, Mrs. Frank Tyler, Mrs. Geodge Sweetzer, Mrs. R. L. Uish, Miss May McNamara, Mrs. Alice Whitbeck and Miss Aga Lander.

A whist party will be given by Stonehurst Parent-Teacher Association in Odd Fellows' hall, Ninety-second avenue and East Fourteenth street, Saturday evening. Mrs. A. E. Paulson is chairman of the community affair. Assisting her in the arrangements are: Mrs. C. W. Crabbe, president, and Mrs. Alma B. Ward.

Nutrition classes in Frick school have been taken over by the Parent-Teacher Association, the mothers guaranteeing the mid-morning breakfast to the children who cannot afford the small cost of bread and milk.

A social meeting of the association is announced for tomorrow afternoon. The new stereopticon machine which was purchased by the mothers will provide the program.

Pajamas to be sent to Arroyo sanitarium will be made by Durant School Parent-Teacher Association memoers on Tuesday next from material which has been purchased from the club treasury. Last month at an all-day sewing bee the women completed seventeen garments and tied three baby comforters to meet the needs of a special philanthropic case and to reimburse the store of the Junior Red Cross Shop.

Durant school women who will represent the club at the Petaluma convention are: Mrs. Miles Walsh, president; Mrs. C. O. Self, Mrs. Claire Stipe, Mrs. R. H. Hamb.

SPECIAL SERVICE.

Major Oscar Engrall of the Salvation Army of Minneapolis, and Commandant Richard Goode of Turlock will conduct a special service at the Scandinavian Salvation Army hall, 1305 Harrison street, this evening. The officers and soldiers of San Francisco also will assist in the service.

OAKLAND PLANS HOSPITALITY FOR SHRINE VISITORS

All nobles of the Mystic Shrine in the Eastbay cities are being enlisted by Potentate Thomas W. Norris of Aahmes Temple in the preparations for the entertainment in Oakland of the largest attendance of visitors ever known on the west coast at the imperial council in June. Questionnaires have been mailed to the more than 3000 members of Aahmes Temple on behalf of the hospitality committee calling for their assistance.

In his letter of transmittal with the questionnaire Norris says the hospitality of Aahmes Temple and of the Eastbay district will be tested to the utmost, as it is now estimated that 300,000 delegates and tourists will be here—a record influx. A large percentage of them will be quartered in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, and it is certain, Norris says, that practically all of them will put in part of their time on this side of the bay while the imperial council sessions are in progress in San Francisco.

Wednesday, June 14, has been designated as Oakland day, when more than 10,000 Shriners in fezzes and the prescribed dress will march through the Oakland streets with bands and patrols and take part in a celebration here. Many of these Shriners will be accompanied by their families, and it is expected, according to Norris, that there will be many thousands of other tourists attracted by the Shrine proceedings.

It will be a veritable carnival week for Oakland, as well as for San Francisco, officers of Aahmes say, and numerous committees already are at work on the task of housing the visitors, formulating plans for the decoration of streets and public buildings, laying out the lines of march for parades and arranging sight-seeing auto rides.

Satins retain their suppleness washed this way, says Skinner

William Skinner & Sons
ESTABLISHED 1848
NEW YORK

Lever Bros. Co.,
Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen:

We had samples of our various silks laundered in Lux—Peau de Cygnes, Charmeuse, satins, etc. Each sample was given the number of washings the average silk garment gets in a year.

We found that at the end of the washings none of the silks had stiffened and in no instance did the delicate threads fray or rough up. We noticed particularly that the Peau de Cygnes did not "pull" and that the satins retained their suppleness.

All the silks showed so few signs of wear that it was hard to believe that they had been washed so often. This we think is undoubtedly due to the fact that it is not only unnecessary to rub with Lux, but that the Lux lather is absolutely mild and pure.

These experiments have definitely proved to us that if water alone won't hurt a silk, Lux can't, and we are glad to give it an unqualified endorsement.

Very truly yours,

LIE PASSED AT GENOA IN FIGHT OVER RUSS PACT

Lloyd George and Rathenau Hurl Charges in Row Over Treaty.

ence. This proposal was blocked by Premier Facta of Italy.

In this connection it became known that the Italian delegation had no objection to the Russo-German treaty, but believed that it should not have been made during the present conference.

NEUTRALS OPPOSE BAN WITHOUT A VOTE.

GENOA, April 19 (By the Associated Press).—The neutral countries at the economic conference, which are not pleased because the small powers have been almost eliminated from the conclave by reason of the private sittings of the entente powers, have held several meetings and have protested against Germany's exclusion from Russian affairs without a full vote of the conference.

DEATH BLOW TO MEET, FRENCH ENVOYS SAY.

GENOA, April 19.—(By the Associated Press)—The expected German demand for discussion of her case before a plenary session of the economic conference will prove "a mortal blow" to the conference, it is declared in a French communique issued here today dealing with the Russo-German treaty and the attitude of the allies in considering Germany eliminated from further discussions of the Russian question.

The communique insists that the dragging of the controversy into the full session of the conference would bring about a situation which Europe wishes to avoid, namely the lining up of new political groups, one against the other. It refers to the signing of the Russo-German treaty "as a manifestation of the Bismarckian spirit which caused the entente bloc immediately to affirm its unity."

Commenting on the note sent by the allies to Germany yesterday, the entire Italian press is agreed in declaring that the note suggested by Premier Lloyd George was much stronger than the note actually sent, containing a much more violent protest. The note, they say, was modified in tone chiefly through the conciliatory efforts of Foreign Minister Schanzer of Italy, who pointed out that the chief object of all the delegates was to prevent the breaking up of the conference and the consequent failure of its aims with results the gravity of which was difficult to foresee.

Vanquished Openly Preparing to Renew War, Avers Another Writer.

PARIS, April 19 (By International News Service).—The Paris press, almost without exception, sees new wars as a result of what is regarded as the allies' "feebleness" at Genoa.

"When will the allies call on Marshal Foch?" was the headline in the Matin.

"First step toward German revenge," said L'Eclair.

Attacks by English Journals Continue

LONDON, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The second day's editorial comment on the Russo-German treaty shows some modification of earlier views, although the severest critics of the Russians, the Germans and Prime Minister Lloyd George, renew their denunciations without qualification.

The Times, the Post and the Mail focus their censure, however, on Lloyd George rather than on the negotiators of the treaty, declaring the premier allowed himself to be fooled by the soviet delegates.

The Times thinks it "unfortunate" that the allied experts do not regard signature of the new pact as a breach of the treaty of Versailles, and the Morning Post insists that the British government immediately associate itself with the French demand for annulment of the treaty.

The Daily News regards the treaty in the abstract as reasonable and just, but sharply condemns "the manner in which it was sprung upon the conference and its exclusiveness."

The Daily Telegraph published an account of a supplement to the treaty which, when signed would have the character of a complete convention for reciprocal military aid by Germany and Russia in the event they consider themselves menaced by any aggression on the part of Poland.

Here's Text of Allied Note Barring Germany

GENOA, April 19.—(By the Associated Press).—Following is the text of the allied note to the German delegation:

The undersigned powers learned with astonishment that, in the first stage of the Genoa conference, Germany, without reference to the other powers assembled, has secretly concluded a treaty with the Soviet government.

The questions covered by the treaty are the subject of negotiations between the representatives of Russia and those of all the other powers invited to the conference, including Germany, and the German chancellor himself declared at the opening session that the German delegation would co-operate with the other powers for a solution of these questions in a spirit of genuine loyalty and fellowship.

The undersigned powers therefore express to the German delegation, in the frankest terms, their opinion that the conclusion of such an agreement while the conference was in session was a violation of the condition to which Germany pledged herself upon entering the session.

By inviting Germany to Genoa and offering her representation on every commission on equal terms with themselves, the inviting powers proved their readiness to waive memories of the war, and granted Germany an opportunity for honest co-operation with former enemies in the European tasks of the conference. To that offer of good will and fellowship Germany replied with an act which destroys the spirit of mutual confidence indispensable to international co-operation, the establishment of which is the chief aim of the conference.

At all conferences unofficial conversations between parties are permissible, often desirable. They are helpful as long as they are designed to facilitate the common task and so long as the results are brought to the conference table for common discussion and decision. But that is not what the German delegates have done.

This treaty is not subject to any examination or sanction by the conference. We understand that it is final and that it is not proposed to be submitted to the judgment of the conference. It is, in fact, a violation of some of the principles in which the conference is based.

In these circumstances, the undersigned do not consider it fair or equitable that Germany, having effected her own arrangement with Russia, should enter into a discussion of the conditions of an arrangement between their countries and Russia; they therefore assume that the German delegates have by their action renounced further participation in the discussion of the conditions of agreement between Russia and the various countries represented at the conference.

AMERICAN BANKS ASKED TO PARLEY

GENOA, April 19.—(By United Press.)—J. P. Morgan has accepted membership on a committee recently appointed by the reparations commission to study the possibilities of an international loan to enable Germany to make her reparations payments, M. de la Croix of the French delegation to Genoa announced today.

GENOA, April 19.—Representatives of the American Federal Reserve Bank system will be invited to a conference of banks of issue to be held shortly after the Genoa conference, it was proposed to the conference here today.

The proposal was made by Sir Robert S. Horne, British chancellor of the exchequer. The conference is expected to adopt the proposal tomorrow. Horne's proposal is for a parley entirely separate from the economic conferences now being held.

"American participation in the banking conference is imperative," Sir Robert said. "America can no more isolate herself from Europe than Europe can get along without American aid."

AMERICAN C. C. ASKED.

GENOA, April 18 (By the Associated Press).—The consultative committee of prominent experts has made a lengthy report on currency to the conference, with a series of recommendations largely endorsing those of the London experts looking to the amelioration of world conditions.

In addition to recommending the summoning of an international monetary convention, the committee suggests that the United States Chamber of Commerce appoint representatives of finance and commerce to meet those of European countries and also Japan and the exporting countries of South America, to determine what common action is advisable to revive and maintain international commerce.

PACT ANNULMENT ORDER PLANNED

PARIS, April 19.—(International News Service.)—The reparations commission is considering the possibility of ordering Germany to annul the Russo-German treaty on the ground that Germany disposes of potential resources on which the reparations commission holds a mortgage.

PARIS, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The reparation commission is to be asked to consider whether the Russo-Germany treaty violates the treaty of Versailles in respect to the German owned property in Russia. This property, under the Versailles pact, is pledged to the commission for payment of reparations.

The French government will await the action of the commission before taking up the question officially with the allies. It is held in official circles here, however, that there is a distinct violation of the Versailles treaty in the Rapallo agreement, and it is declared that whatever action the Genoa conference may take, the allied powers cannot tolerate the pact.

The recourse of the allies against the pact is the same as that against other violations of the peace areaty and the present case is regarded only as adding one more to the other causes of action on the German question which the allies will take up immediately after the Genoa conference.

'WE MUST SEIZE RHINE NOW,' SAYS PARIS DIPLOMAT

Danger Greater Than Before War, Asserts Former Commissioner to U. S.

PARIS, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Maurice Casenave, former French high commissioner in the United States, commenting today upon the Russo-German treaty, said:

"The danger to western Europe is as great now as it was before the war. It is even greater because the two eastern powers are now together. The western allied governments are in the presence of a situation of utmost significance, and one which requires strong action."

"But, what can Great Britain and France do?" the correspondent asked him. "Send more documents?"

"Enough notes have been sent," Casenave replied. "They must take some positive action. We now see how important the occupation of the left bank of the Rhine is, because it is the barrier between easter and western Europe.

"What has just taken place at Genoa reminds me of Washington in this respect, that the French delegation there was blamed by a party in the French chamber for not having been aware of what was taking place at Washington. We now see other diplomats at Genoa being equally surprised by negotiations of which they knew nothing."

EXHAUSTED NERVE FORCE CAUSES THOUSANDS TO MAKE FAILURES IN LIFE

—Doctor Tells What To Do

When your nerve force becomes weakened, all the vital organs of your body lose their normal strength and vigor, and as a result, all kinds of alarming symptoms may appear, such as nervous irritability, heart palpitation, indigestion, pains in the front or in the back of the head, more especially at the base of the brain, and a general weakened, run-down condition. In such cases it's worse than foolish to waste your time taking stimulating medicines or narcotic drugs. Your starving nerve cells must have more nerve force, the same as a starving person must have food. This is best accomplished by increasing the activity and power of the nerve-force making organs, the principal one of which is the blood. This can be quickly and most effectively accomplished by the free use of Nuxated Iron, which not only increases the activity of the blood making organs, but it feeds true red blood food directly to the blood itself, thereby helping to create millions of new red blood cells. This wonderfully increases the power of the blood to help manufacture new nerve force, the same as enriching the soil increases its power to grow more wheat, corn or oats.

If you are suffering from nerve force exhaustion, you can quickly and easily prove to yourself the power of Nuxated Iron to help overcome your condition and make you strong and vigorous again by the following simple test; Make a written memorandum of all your symptoms before you start, then at the end of two weeks, go over your symptoms again and place a check mark after any that are left, and you can at once see what it has done for you. If you have not obtained most surprising results, all and even more than you expect, the manufacturers will promptly refund your money.

POULTRY FARMS
BERRY LAND
IN HALF AND ¼-ACRE PIECES
ON EASIEST TERMS EVER ADVERTISED
STREET CARS—CITY WATER—SEWERS

—Start your country home with a hundred dollars down

If successful advertising is a science, we are beat before we start.

If it's simply telling the truth about something that the public wants, we have made no mistake in planning the advertising of the sale of the subdivision of the Meek Estate Lands at Hayward next Sunday.

"All you have to do is to give the facts to the public and you'll sell every acre of land you have," said one enthusiastic newspaper fellow after seeing this property.

"No, there's one thing you overlooked," replied our auditor. "We have to pay the advertising bill."

But we are willing to do that if those who are interested will read the "ads" and come out to Hayward and look at the property.

And talk to those who live in the neighborhood.

We are not expert real estate salesmen, we don't even claim to be "realtors."

After farming the property for over 60 years we have found a thriving city built up around us and have come to a realization that the land is too valuable to farm in the future on a big scale.

"One man with half an acre of this land, if he works it intelligently, can raise ten times what you fellows raise," said a Los Angeles man recently to the writer.

Others told us the same.

Real estate men made us many propositions to subdivide, all of which we turned down.

A few folks came to us and bought quarter, half or acre pieces and proved what the Los Angeles man and others had claimed.

From our farming standpoint we found every year that good help in large numbers was harder and harder to get at Harvest Time.

Last year acres of pickles, rhubarb, currants, tomatoes had to be neglected for lack of efficient labor.

The richest, finest, garden loam soil in Alameda county.

Soil 15 or 20 feet deep.

Land that has grown crops that have beat the best of California's horticultural records.

Land that overlays a water bed that is the wonder of the county.

Land that produces crops bringing as high as $4000 an acre a year.

With city water and city sewers.

With the finest climate in glorious California.

W. B. Buckham, one of our neighbors, says: "The climate strikes the happy medium between the San Francisco fog and the valley heat."

And we are going to make it possible for a man with only a hundred dollars or so to buy this land.

We are told by men who should know that our terms of payment have never been equaled for liberality on property of this type.

We don't know whether this is so or not, but at any rate we are started, we're off and the sale is on!

We will have something to print tomorrow that will be more interesting than anything we've said today.

Here is what we are going to sell—Notice the terms

All of these properties have city sewers and city water

ARLETT ROLLS UP FOURTH STRAIGHT VICTORY FOR SEASON

OAKS CLIMB BACK INTO THE FIRST DIVISION BY TAKING OPENING GAME FROM PORTLAND

Local Hurler Also Connects for a Hit That Starts 9th Inning Rally Winning Game.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 19.—If yesterday's gathering of baseball fans is any indication, the game in this city has done a wonderful come-back, and William (Kopecks) Kenworthy, the suspended manager of the Portland Beavers, will never have the opportunity to say that the people of this city are not behind him and his Portland Beavers through the 1922 Pacific Coast League pennant fight. The Beavers came home yesterday morning claiming the lowest position on the Coast League ladder after two weeks of play, but that made no difference and an estimated crowd of twenty thousand fans were on hand to celebrate the opening of the season. It was the biggest opening in the history of the league. And to please the big gathering, it was one of the best played games ever before witnessed on an opening day here. The Oakland club, with Ivan Howard at the head, defeated the Beavers 4 to 1, but it was one of those defeats which was not shoved over until the last frame, so the home guard had plenty to shout about throughout the contest.

Russell Arlett, the big fellow who heaves them over the platter with his trusty right arm, and who for short is called Buster, hurled his fourth straight win of the season for the visitors, and from what he showed us yesterday he is going to come pretty close if not shatter his record of twenty-nine wins in a season, the mark he set in 1920 when he was the iron horse worker of the Coast League.

Oaks Hop on Middleton For Three in Ninth.

Jimmy Middleton was the heaver selected to work against Arlett, and the new Beaver chucker made quite a hit with the home fans. He was hit for eleven safeties, but he pitched one of those kind of games that keeps the fans tuned up all the time, wondering what is to happen next, and he usually got out of the jams. That ninth inning attack is the only thing that made Jimmy look out of the way of a high class chucker.

It looked like a perfect day for the opening of the season here when the Beavers started out by scoring a run in the very first frame. Dick Cox got a cheer out of the boys by leading off with a single; and they went wild when High beat out a slow roller to "Merry" Mariott. Big Jim Thorpe swung at the air three time, and Hale forced Cox at third, but with High on second, Jim Poole busted the white thing down the first base foul line for a double, and the only Beaver run of the game was over the plate. Sammy Hale crossed the plate on the same drive, but he was sent back to third because of ground rules, the ball going into the crowd.

Buz Arlett Starts Rally In the Ninth for Oaks.

Both the Oaks and Beavers got men on the bases in the third and fourth frames, but as said before, they were only there long enough to excite the fans and then have the side retired without a score. The fourth saw the Oaks tie the count. After LaFayette lined out, Mariott hit a single, but was caught off first. Ray Brubaker and Art Koehler doubled into the big left field crowd and the tieing run was over. Manager Ivan Howard, who was given a round of applause each time he stepped to the plate, as he is an oldtime Beaver, cracked out a single, but Koehler was held on third. Buz Arlett fanned and the inning was over. Both teams threatened to spike the plate many other times from the fourth until the ninth when the Oaks succeeded in doing it three more times.

Buz Arlett started the rally in the final frame with a single, and advanced to second on Cooper's sacrifice. Evidently, Middleton did not think much of Don Martin as a stickler, for he walked Denny Wilie purposely, in hope of getting Brown to hit s hrdlushrdlubgkq but the new Oak came through with a single to score Arlett and put Wilie on second. "Frency" LaFayette also connected for a single and the second run of the inning was over. Brown scored from third on Mariott's long fly to High.

In the Beavers' half of the ninth Cox got a double with two out, but High was unable to do any good for himself and the 20,000 fans flocked out of the park, most of them satisfied they saw a real contest.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

By MARTIN ROTKE.

According to Tom McCleave, University high is due for another successful tennis season. With Cooper, Davies, Strickler, Donant and Jacobs to support him McCleave is quite confident that the O. A. L. flag will be flying over the Telegraph avenue school.

The weight track and field teams of Fremont high are working out two days each week in preparation for the O. A. L. meet that will probably take place a week from Saturday. The work is under the supervision of Coach Street and unlimited track men, who, according to reports, seem to be getting plenty of results from the youngsters. The captains of the various teams are as follows: 100-pound, Dudley Frey; 110-pound, Leroy Hueston; 120-pound, Carl Brunswick, and 130-pound, Jack Foster.

The Oakland high "seconds" baseball squad started their season in an unsuccessful manner when they were trounced by Piedmont high yesterday at Alberger Field 9 to 6. LeStrange, who started for the Oakites, and Gibson, who did the honors for Piedmont, were both walloped from the hilltop in the early part of the fray. LeStrange could not locate the plate, and coupled with numerous errors, the winners tallied eight times in the first two spasms. Lewin took up the duties after LeStrange's departure and twirled the balance of the game in grand fashion, allowing the winners but one tally. Gibson was slammed from the hilltop in the fourth inning, and Lund, who took up the burden, held the Blue and White well in hand.

A number of former Eastbay baseball players of prep. school days took part in last Saturday's fray between the freshmen nines of California and Stanford. The Cal. team had a number of local stars, but the boys from "down the farm" had only one representative. The lone representative was Roland Hoffman, who last season helped Kenny Martin twirl the Oakland high nine to the championship of the Oakland Athletic league. Hoffman twirled the last five frames for the Palo Altans, and allowed the Cal. "Babes" but one hit and a run. This was quite a performance, considering the fact that Hoffman pitched a nine-inning game the day before against Chico high, holding them down with one run and two hits. On the Cal. squad were Abe Rubin, former Tech. high catcher and TRIBUNE leaguer; Alvin Kyte of University high; "Red" Spence of Alameda and Russ Baker of Oakland. Rubin held up the shoots of Kelly in great style, Kyte covered the right patch, Spence held down first and Baker took care of left field. The latter played the outfield for the first time and handled himself well, besides scoring three runs.

Boxer vs. Wrestler At Legion Benefit

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 19.—An attempt will be made to settle the old question whether a wrestler can defeat a boxer, when Vaughn Mosepian, intercollegiate lightweight wrestling champion of California, and Jimmy Ross, crack card lightweight boxer, tangle at the Palo Alto American Legion benefit show, May 26.

Hosepian will try for a fall to secure his victory, while Ross will attempt to win with a knockout. A meeting was planned between these men several weeks ago, but an injury to his hand prevented Ross from appearing.

MAXWELL HARDWARE WINS.

The Maxwell Hardware nine defeated the Coast Tire 9 to 1. Kersten did the pitching for the winners and allowed only six hits and sent ten to the bench on strikes. Jackson with four and Robin with three hits, were the heavy stickers. Score:

International Opens Ball Season Today

NEW YORK, April 19.—(By International News Service.)—The new International League, rated with the American Association and the Pacific Coast League as the strongest minor organizations in the country, opens its 1922 season today. The schedule calls for Buffalo to play at Newark, Syracuse at Jersey City, Toronto at Reading and Rochester at Baltimore.

Cornell Crew Preparing for Opening Race

Meet Yale and Princeton On the Housatonic in the First Regatta.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 19.—The Cornell rowing situation is rapidly taking definite shape. Favored by the finest spring vacation weather in year, Coach John Hoyle has had six crews out on Cayuga Lake every day, and the oarsmen have made satisfactory progress.

The first race on the Cornell program, with Yale and Princeton on the Housatonic, on May 20, is now but a matter of five weeks away, and competition is keen among the first two varsity crews for the honor of representing the Red and White in that regatta. As long as the crews were confined to the inlet, real tests of strength were out of the question, but now that the oarsmen are able to drive their shells out onto the broad reaches of Cayuga, a series of scraps is to be expected to settle the issue between the leading varsity eights.

TWO LEADING EIGHTS.

These two eights are Wheeler's crew and Filius' crew, called so after their pacemakers. Wheeler's eight, with two changes, is the crew that cleaned up in the junior varsity race at Poughkeepsie last June, and rowing as a varsity defeated Harvard a few weeks before the Hudson regatta. It was this crew also that went down to defeat before Princeton on Cayuga Lake last May, the first time that the Tigers had defeated a Cornell crew on its home waters. Naturally this combination is eager to match strength and skill with the Orange and Black again, and endeavor to obtain revenge for last year's upset.

This eight is somewhat heavier than last year and will average over 170 pounds when down to racing trim. The other promising eight is known as Filius' crew. In this combination are the only survivals of last year's varsity eight—A. G. Baldwin, F. C. Baldwin and Baker. Some of the most powerful oarsmen in last year's freshman eight have also won seats in this shell, and the crew as a whole promises to be one of the strongest developed here in some time. It should average 175 pounds and better. Two freshman eights are also fighting it out for honors. The combinations follow:

Varsity—Bow, Kells; 2, F. C. Baldwin; 3, Strong; 4, Luhrs; 5, Hearn; 6, Baker; 7, A. G. Baldwin; stroke, Filius; coxswain, Nicholson. Bow, Hoffman; 2, Garnsey; 3, Bardewyck; 4, Fix; 5, Hough; 6, Calleson; 7, Dollbaum; stroke, Wheeler; coxswain, Hodges.

Castro Parlor Beats Alameda On the Alleys

Unusually good bowling featured the second meeting of Alameda Parlor and Castro Parlor, winners of Alameda County N. S. G. W. and San Francisco Native Sons Bowling leagues respectively last night. The first match was bowled in San Francisco a week ago and at that time Castro Parlor piled up a lead of 203 pins, the match being rolled on a home-and-home basis with total pins deciding the winner.

Facing overwhelming odds the Alameda boys found Castro again too tough last night, the transbay bowlers taking the evening's play and bay counties championship when they won the second play by a five-pin margin, giving them the championship by 208 pins.

The great work of Canavan, anchor man of the Castro team, was largely responsible for the success of the winners, his total being 617. The first game ended in a tie of 878 each, but in the second the San Franciscans won by rolling 971 against 929 of Alameda. It was but slight consolation to the Island City team to win the final game 889 to 852, after the honors were gone.

Sluggers Are Having a Big Time at Bat

Batting Rampage Goes Merrily On in Both Big Leagues.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The early season batting rampage continued unabated yesterday, major league sluggers, particularly in the American swatting the offerings of a parade of pitchers for several broadsides of base hits.

Cleveland and the Philadelphia Athletics led the attack, Speaker's clan continuing its unbroken winning streak by rattling out twenty-two hits, including nine doubles, for seventeen runs at the expense of St. Louis, while the Mackmen hung up a similar tally in swamping Washington. Walter Johnson, "ace" of the Senators, was hammered from the box in his first appearance of the season.

Detroit dropped its fifth straight game, losing to Chicago.

ST. LOUIS DEFEATED.

The iants were idle because of rain, but gained undisputed hold of first place when Chicago dealt St. Louis another reverse. Pittsburgh made a clean sweep of its series with Cincinnati.

New York sluggers today led the race for hitting honors, Snyder and Groh showing the way in the National, and Scott and Schang climbing to the top in the American, each collecting three hits yesterday. Speaker and Johnston, the Athletics' first sacker, each gathered four hits, while Fournier of the Cardinals hung up the only addition to the home run column.*

Jack Dempsey Gives London Once Over

LONDON, April 19.—Francois Descamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, who arrived in London last night from Paris, accompanied by Carpentier, was among the first to greet Jack Dempsey as the American pugilist stepped from the train into a large crowd awaiting him at the Waterloo station this afternoon.

Dempsey was cheered by a large crowd, which included many women who vainly tried to get near him, as his automobile started from the Waterloo station. Newspapermen interviewed him at the hotel, while photographers took numerous pictures of the champion.

Dempsey declared he was glad to be in England and was grateful for his wonderful welcome. Jack Kearns, manager of the American pugilist, said he could not foresee any bouts in England.

George Archibald Is Aboard the Winner

EPSOM, England, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Sir Ernest Paget's Paragon, by Radium, out of Quintescence, ridden by the American jockey, Archibald, won the city and suburban stakes of £1000 run here today. Sir Henry Bird's March was second and James White's Granely third. Ten horses ran.

WHAT A CHANCE!

BOSTON, April 19.—"Texas Dick" Daviscourt, a persistent contender for the world's wrestling title, will get another chance tonight when he meets "Strangler" Lewis at the Boston arena. They will wrestle for two out of three falls to a finish.

Coasters in the Major Leagues

Cliff Markle and Johnny Couch, two former Coast Leaguers, were on the hill for the Cincinnati Reds yesterday, but were unable to stop the Pittsburg Pirates from putting over an 8 to 4 win. Markle pitched the first seven innings and was charged with the defeat. Four hits were made off Couch in the other two frames.

Jimmy Caveney hit two safe ones for the Reds, while Pinelli and Sammy Bohne wont hitless. Louis Fonseca served as a pinch hitter and failed to deliver.

Ray Rowher, the University of California boy and TRIBUNE Leaguer, hit three, one for a double, laid down a sacrifice and scored a run in four trips to the plate for the Pirates.

The Chicago Cubs defeated the Cards 7 to 5. Statz did not get a hit, but he scored two runs and stole a base.

Charley Hollocher hit a double, single, scored a run and played a perfect game at short for the Cubs. Hack Miller and Marty Krun each hit one, and Krug scored a run.

Vic Aldridge, former Angel, started for the Cubs and after being touched for eleven hits in five innings, he retired in favor of Freeman.

Jack Fournier had a good day with the stick, hitting a homer and two singles of the Cub hurlers.

Coast Leaguers were prominent in the game in which the White Sox defeated Detroit 5 to 1. Bert Cole pitched for the Tigers and his battery mate was Johnny Bassler, former Angel. Cole allowed seven hits, but walked five.

Bassler hit a pair of doubles and a single, but made one of the Tiger's two errors.

Harry Heilmann connected for two singles and stole a base, while George Cutshaw, also of the Tigers, hit two singles and handled fourteen chances around second without a boot.

Ernie Johnson made the White Sox's only error, but he made up by hitting a triple and single.

Harry Hooper and Ear Sheely went hitless, the latter, however, made a sacrifice hit and took part in a double play which pulled his club out of trouble.

The New York Yankees defeated the Red Sox, 10 to 8, in a wild ball game. Bush and Jones did the heaving for the Yankees.

The Cleveland Indians had a lot of fun pasting the Browns 17 to 2. It must have been tough for Louie Guisto to sit on the bench and watch his teammates maul the agate.

POOR SALT LAKE IS AGAIN BEING PICKED ON BY CLUB OWNERS

Only Six Games Wer e Played in the Utah Metropolis During the First Two Weeks.

The fact that the Salt Lake team could get only six games in during the first two weeks at the Utah metropolis, is again the foundation upon which fans and some of the club owners are basing arguments that Salt Lake should not be in the league, or that the schedule should be so arranged for each season so that the Bees will not have to open at home until two or three weeks, at least, after the opening of the season. For the last few years there have been rumors at the annual league meetings that Salt Lake would be dropped from the league, but that city still holds a berth in the league, and will probably do so next season, although several owners of clubs would favor the switching of the franchise to another city, Fresno or San Diego. There has also been mention that the Salt Lake franchise might be switched to give San Francisco continuous baseball next year, but that idea cannot be taken seriously.

Salt Lake, however, is prepared to fight any move that might be made to put her out of the league, and the chances are that if the time ever does come to make a switch, there will be plenty of opposition. It is certainly tough on the club owners who have to take their team to Salt Lake for any one of the first two weeks. Playing only six games out of fourteen scheduled is certainly gumming up the schedule, and the Bees have plenty of double-headers to play later on, and there is a chance that there will be others added to the list before the end of the season.

San Francisco would hardly be able to adopt Salt Lake as a second team in the city, providing a switch would be made, as a similar experience was made not so very many years ago when the Sacramento team was placed in there under the name of Missions. The stunt did not take at all, and would probably fail worse than ever next year as continuous ball would be going on over this side of the bay, any time that the Seals would be on the road, and the new club would be over there.

If a switch of the franchise was to be made, the majority of the owners would prabably favor Fresno, San Diego or one of the northwest cities not already in the league. It is a cinch that somebody is going to try and have the franchise moved from Salt Lake, after what has happened there thus far this season and other seasons, but Salt Lake will be all set to put up a battle.

Howard Shifts LaFayette To the Cleanup Position.

That George (Frenchy) LaFayette, the Oaks' young first sacker, has lived up to all advance notices on his hitting and that Ivan Howard is well satisfied with the work of the young fellow, is evidenced in the way that Manager Howard switched the batting order before the game at Portland yesterday and placed Frenchy in as cleanup hitter. The tall fellow got one bingle, and it came at a time when it was able to put a runner over the plate, in a ninth inning rally. Bill Mariott is batting in his old position again.

Claude Cooper has been shifted up to leadoff, not because Don Martin Brown was unable to deliver as a good leadoff man, but because Don has been hitting the apple regularly, and Manager Howard figures he will be more valuable in third place where he can drive around Claude Cooper or Denny Willie who might happen to get on the bags ahead of him. Don drove in the winning run yesterday.

Jack Knight was also out of the lineup yesterday and Howard batted next to the pitcher, putting Koehler ahead of himself. Knight left here with the club Sunday night, but his finger was still very sore. He had an infection which had to be operated on.

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—The Salt Lake Bees made their debut here by trimming the Angels 4 to 2. Art Gould for the Bees allowed four hits, but was there strong in the pinches. Lyons did the hill work for the locals. The score:

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 19.—Coach "Eddie" O'Connor's squad of Purdue track men are diligently and strenuously putting themselves into shape for the coming season in preparation for important dual meets against conference rivals which are going to be held later this month and during May. The recent wet weather has temporarily impeded the squad's progress, but Coach O'Connor is confident of whipping the team into excellent condition by the time of the first meet, which will be the Drake relay races held at Des Moines on April 29.

Sacramento Boots Game Away to Seals On Transbay Lot

A five-run rally in the fourth inning enabled the San Francisco Seals to take the opening game of their series with the Sacramento Coyotes at San Francisco yesterday afternoon. Jim Scott did the honors of the Seals and after the third inning the Coyotes had a hard time getting to his delivery. The Coyotes beat themselves with errors. The game was a listless one.

Rival Crews Practice For Friday Regatta

SEATTLE, Wash., April 19.—Stiff daily workouts continue to be the program of both the Washington and California crews in preparation for the fifteenth annual Pacific coast inter-collegiate rowing championship regatta here next Friday. Since rowing was established on the coast in 1907, Washington has won nine races, Stanford two, California one and on two occasions rough water has ended the contest by swamping one of the shells.

BEARS GIVEN SLIGHT EDGE OVER CARDINAL IN ANNUAL BIG MEET

Coach Christie Claims His Athletes Will Win by 25 Points; Dope Shows But 12 Points

By DOUG. MONTELL.

Just as regularly as spring fever rolls around when the birds start chirping in the great outdoors and the ball tossers get busy on their season's grind the Stanford-California track classic strolls in to disturb the peace of mind of the partisans of the two rival institutions. Dope sheets, some hastily thrown together and others carefully figured out throughout the preliminary season are put on exhibition by supporters of both sides proving beyond the shadow of a doubt, according to their owners, the veracity of their statements about who would win. And yet with the big meet but three days away there is no more chance of doping the 1922 Stanford-California meet than there is of getting a decision from the Board of Regents as to where the California memorial stadium will be built—and when.

If the athletes of the respective institutions would refrain from pulling tendons and acquiring the flu there might be some chance of measuring the chances of Stanford against California. As it is the official entry list is not due until this afternoon and even then it will be difficult to say what men may not be in shape to compete Saturday. The best of reports indicate that the California entry list looks like a copy of the city directory, Walter Christie having submitted a list of seventy names, of which but three were stricken off by the faculty committee.

Bruins Favorites In a Close Meet.

At best the coming meet appears close, closer than last year, for the Cardinal have a greater number of men who appear good for first places while the Bears show their greatest strength in three events in which they will, according to the best dope, take at least first and second with a possibility of a clean sweep in any or all of the trio. These events are figured to counter balance the superior number of first places won by the Cardinal, for outside of the sprints and hurdles there are no events in which Stanford has any competitors who figure to take a possible one, two. Walter Christie is banking on his second and third place men to come through in nearly every case and in thus figuring is able to see a California victory by a margin of 25 points. On the result of comparative meets of the year as to times and distances, figuring consistent winners, Stanford looks to be in a position to hold the Blue and Gold to a margin at least half of what Christie is figuring.

Injured Athletes Make Doping Hard.

It is practically impossible to put forth any dope on the meet until the exact status of several of the star performers is known. Reports from Stanford indicate that the two Cardinal field stars, upon whom so much depends from a Stanford viewpoint, Glenn Hartranft and Mint Howell, were up and about and would be in top shape for the meet. In Hartranft's case it is probably correct to state that he will be in the best of shape but after having been in bed ten days with the flu Mint Howell may have some difficulty hitting his stride in the high jump once the bar is raised above the six foot mark. Of Morris Kirksey little or nothing can be said. Until the Stanford entry list is given out Kirksey cannot be definitely figured. Templeton is counting on his star for the two dash events and the broad jump with no competition all season it is difficult to figure him, save on his past record. Kirksey, when right, is unbeatable by any, save Paddock, and will carry off the 100 and 250.

Van Sant Appears To Be Out of It.

California is not without her own problems. The case of Van Sant has upset much dope in the low hurdles for at the time of his injury he was traveling over the low barriers in shape to win from the Stanford star, Lane Falk, having hung up :24:2, within one-fifth of a second of the Stanford-California record. This morning Coach Chris- felt all right in a light workout felt all right in a likht workout that he would take this afternoon that he would not be permitted to enter the meet, thus leaving the low sticks up to Neff, a capable hurdler who will give Falk a good race if he maintains his early season pace. Christie did not appear worried over the illness of Capt. Hutchison, figuring that his crack sprinter would be in shape to enter both the 100 and 220 Saturday afternoon. Even at best Kirksey would figure to win in both events and Sudden becomes a favorite to take second in both dashes on account of the illness of the Bruin leader. Jack Merchant showed ability in the Missouri meet but Sudden has been a consistent :10 flat runner throughout the season while the California sprinters have fluctuated from :09:4 to :10:2.

McDonald Favored To Win the 440.

In the 440 Stanford has but one candidate for honors to oppose McDonald and Hendrixson, the two California quarter milers. Here California gains the edge on dope, for while Oxy Hendrixson, the national collegiate champion, has been somewhat of a disappointment to his followers, Harry McDonald has improved to such an extent that he has become the favorite to win. To date Hendrixson has shown nothing to cause him to be rated over Williamson of Stanford and it will be a pleasant surprise in California's favor should he lead the Cardinal 440 man to the finish. McDonald is favored to win in close to even time.

The 880 has been the event causing the greatest difference of opinion among the partisans of both colleges. Scofield of Stanford was a favorite until California met Missouri when Bauman showed by his strong finish in beating Maxwell that he has an abundance of reserve power. Running the race he did last Saturday Bauman should win from the Stanford trio, Scofield, Daly and MacIntosh. Moore and Pearce will be among those present in the event for California and may provide sufficient entertainment for Daly and MacIntosh to make the race interesting. The Bears figure to take the event 5-4, with a possible 6-3.

Bears Are Strong In the Distances.

Both distance runs find the Blue and Gold overwhelmingly superior. The mile should be a clean sweep for the Bears with Denton and Fiske fighting each other for first place and Kitts close up for third. The Blue and Gold procession in the two mile will be almost as complete with the record holder, Charlie Dorr, stepping out in front in an effort to lower his own record. Tis teammate, Knowlton, looks good for second place with 10:00 flat to his credit while third position will see a merry scrap with French of Stanford attempting to break into the point column over Mulvaney and Roach of California. The veteran Roach has failed to show anything to date but declares that he will surprise all hands with his comeback Saturday while Mulvaney is running a greatly improved race every time he starts. The worst California should get would be 8-1 in both distance events, allowing for a possible upset.

GOLF

The Royal and Ancient Club of St. Andrews is having a rough time of it with their own players regarding the introduction of a medal qualifying round, or rounds, in their amateur championship. Both parties for and against the change, which is described as the American way, have a wrong idea of what our methods here are. The preliminary medal or qualifying rounds have practically nothing to do with the decision of the championship and is only employed to reduce the field to reasonable dimensions and, what is more important, eliminate to a great extent the possibilities of strong favorites meeting in the early rounds in match play. Probably few Britishers even among the advocates of our system know how systematically the players who have any pretentions to championship honors are automatically separated from each other until they have disposed of the smaller fry. In last year's Women's British championship, the ballot system then used and still in operation drew Miss Alexa Stirling and Miss Cecil Leach out of the hat in the first round. Had even an 18-hole medal qualifying round been in operation, those two players would, under normal conditions, have finished first and second, and automatically kept clear of each other until the final.

If a champion should qualify badly and get into sixteenth or seventeenth place, he is punished by having to meet a strong player probably in the first round, which is quite a good way of handicapping a bad qualifier and also adding a little surprise to the preliminary match play rounds. Match play is and will probably remain the popular way of deciding amateur championships, but to limit the match play to only 32 players would be unfair, and unduly advantageous to the expert medal players. What the St. Andrews authorities should do is to hold at least 64 or even 128 places open for possible champions at match play, only 18 holes medal qualifying would be necessary and a much larger entry could be taken care of than under the 36-hole qualifying system advocated and necessary if only 32 are to be allowed to qualify.

Only a small turn-out of women members competed in a combination score tournament in 4-ball foursomes at Claremont yesterday. Mrs. J. C. Cushing and Mrs. F. M. Avery were the winners. Their combined scores gave a net average of 91, with an averaged handicap of 21. Other teams competing were Mrs. B. P. Legare and Miss Violet Whitney, Mrs. H. A. Prole and C. A. Stacy, Mrs. W. H. Orrick and Miss Alice Knowles. Next Tuesday a one-club contest will be played, medal play over 18 holes. Competitiors will have to decide which is the better club for all round play. The Mid Iron or Cleek is generally favored to give good results from the tee, and through the fairways. The Cleek especially gives very good results on the putting green.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The latest stars of the mashie and niblick to join the globe trotting brigade are Walter Hagen, twice American open champion, and Joe Kirkwood, Australian trick shot expert.

According to their present plans Hagen and Kirkwood will sail from the Pacific coast in the fall after competing in the important championship events in this country. Their first top is expected to be Honolulu, and from there they will go to the Philippines, China and Australia for exhibitions, returning by way of South Africa and probably France and England.

Wrestler Defeated By Fighter in Ring

Conceding about thirty pounds Sailor Al Walters last night demomstrated that a fighter can beat a wrestler when he made Joe Gardenfield, a mat man of reputation, quit in the second round of their this and that contest at Dreamland in San Francisco last night. Gardenfield had previously won a wrestling match from Joe Santos.

"Toots" Mondt took two straight falls from Max Orlando in the other attraction of the evening, the first coming after an hour and 7 minutes with an arm scissors while a wrist lock and head scissors won the second.

Newark Wedgewoods Will Play S. F. Club

NEWARK, April 19.—Encouraged by success so far this season, the Newark Wedgewood ball team will play the Jefferson nine of San Francisco on the Newark lot next Sunday, the visitors being considered the fastest team yet played by the locals.

The pitching of A. Silva and Pal Sweeney, the Neward star moundsmen, defeated the Hayward Native Sons last Sunday, the Newark lads winning by a 6 to 4 score.

Good Bowling Is Feature in Tribune Play

Reali Features With a High Game of 270; Tony Dutro Beats Guild.

Eighteen matches were rolled last night in the first evening of play in the annual TRIBUNE diamond medal bowling tournament on the Maryland alleys and some of the hardest fought contests of recent years were seen in the elimination series. Evenly matched drawings produced some high-class bowling and with but one or two exceptions the alley stars performed up to their usual standard. With a total entry list of close to seventy only half of the matches were rolled last night, the second contingent of bowlers getting under way Friday evening when the first round will be brought to a close and the winners will be re-matched for the second series in the elimination.

One of the surprises in last night's play came in the Yowles-Weiland match. Yowles, a former TRIBUNE winner, had been expected to survive the preliminary rounds, but fell before the steady rolling of the star of the Greger Garage five. Of the eighteen matches rolled last night only five were decided in two straight games, the others going the full three before a winner could be determined

BARBERS DO WELL.

Tony Dutro's Broadway Barbers did well in their play last night. Dutro himself was in great form, beating Guild two straight to go into the second round, while Sopher, another of the Barber boys, defeated S Smith two straight. Strode, runner-up of last year's tournament, had no difficulty in beating Carpenter, winning the last two handily after losing the first. Sensational bowling was in order when Jack Reali beat Mitan two straight, his scores being 214 and 270 against 201 and 244 for Mitan.

GOLF FACTS worth knowing

by INNIS BROWN

(Copyright, 1922, Sol Metzger.

Q. Is a player allowed to ground a club on the slope of a creek bank, if it is covered with grass?

A. Yes, unless the banks come within the limits of the hazard as marked by the club. It is the duty of the green committee to mark the limits of any hazard where confusion over such points is likely to arise.

Q. What are the distance limits for calculating the par of a hole?

A. Holes up to and including 250 yards are par 3; 251 to 445 yards inclusive, par 4; 446 to 600 inclusive, par 5; over 600, par 6. Peculiar conditions of the terrain may, however, alter the above.

Q. Is a player allowed to move his ball on a putting green, where over-watering of the green has made the surface unusually wet and heavy between the ball and the hole?

A. Yes, this is covered by the rule on casual water. The ball may be lifted and placed, not nearer the hole.

Q. Where a ball stops in a water hazard, so that the player can play it though it is covered by water, can the player permit his club to touch the water in addressing the ball?

A. No, if permitted to do so, he might stir the water so as to change the lie of the ball.

Q. Is it permissible to smooth or press down a worm cast on the putting green, if it lies in the line of play?

A. No, it must be either lifted or scraped away.

If any golf rules puzzle you, write Innis Brown, care of our Sporting Department, enclosing stamped return envelope.

Dad Moulton Says Stanford Will Win

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 19.—"Dad" Moulton, who has been associated with Stanford teams for over twenty years in the capacity of trainer and coach, predicts that Stanford will win the big meet with a score of 66 points. This would give Stanford a victory with a one-point margin. "Dad" has been looking after the condition of the Cardinal athletes and he bases his contention on the shape his charges are in.

BOXING CHATTER

KID JOHNSON WINS.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 19.—Kid Johnson, Olympia lightweight, was given the decision over Joe Harrahan of Seattle after six rounds of fighting in a main event at a boxing show here last night. Three knockouts were registered in the course of the show.

MUFF BRONSON DEFEATED.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 19.—Jimmy Sacco of Boston gave Muff Bronson, Portland lightweight, a boxing lesson in their ten-round bout here last night, and won an easy decision. Sacco had things his own way all through the fight. In another ten-round bout Joe Egan, Boston middleweight, stopped Billy Wright of Seattle, in the sixth round. The other ten-round bout between Spee Woods and Joe Swain, two local middleweights, resulted in Woods taking the decision.

GORDON McKAY WINS.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 19.—Gordon McKay, claimant of the Pacific Coast middleweight championship, was given the decision over Martin Foley of Tacoma in the four-round main event of a boxing show here last night. Harry Sutton of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, and Joe Black of Denver, lightweights, fought a fast draw.

TWELVE-ROUND DRAW.

BUTTE, Mont., April 19.—Pete Bross, of Great Falls, and Joe Adams, of Boston, boxed 12 fast rounds here last night, the judges declaring the go a draw. Adams weighed 145, Bross 147.

Three preliminary bouts were staged for local boys, each ending out.

FIRPO MATCH POSTPONED.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Postponement of the Jack Herman Luis Firpo match, scheduled for Jersey City, was announced when the South American heavyweight granted Herman's request for more time in which to train.

The exact date will be determined when a site is selected.

RAMIES TRIMS GOOZEMAN.

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—"Spec" Ramies of Los Angeles defeated Ernie Goozeman, also of Los Angeles and bantam weight of Australia, in a hard-fought main event at Vernon arena last night. In the semi-finals Travie Davis, 145-pounder of Portland, Oregon, won a decision over Chic Roach of Fresno, California.

SHADE BEATS LOGAN.

OMAHA, Neb., April 19.—Dave Shade was given a referee's decision over Bud Logan of Omaha in their 10-round boxing match here last night. Shade weighed 144 and Logan 141 pounds.

In the semi-final Roy Conley of Casper, Wyoming, was given a decision over Archie Ammons, Marshalltown, Iowa, after ten rounds. The men are welter-weights.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Young Bob Fitzsimmons was awarded a decision over Jack Reeves, of San Francisco, after the latter had been disqualified in the tenth round of their contest for fouling. Reeves had outpointed Fitzsimmons in a majority of other rounds. Fitzsimmons weighed 180 pounds and Reeves 170.

MARINES MEET FT. McDOWELL

VALLEJO, April 19.—The Marines will play the Fort McDowell nine at the yard on Thursday afternoon. The Marines have been playing a high class brand of baseball this season and expect to make a good showing against the soldiers from the lower bay fort.

Amateur Boxer Tosses Trophy Into Audience

San Francisco Boy Is New Amateur Heavy-weight Champion.

BOSTON, April 19.—The country has a brand new set of amateur boxing champions today, the product of a national tournament never equaled in the degree of competition.

The fourteen hours' fighting which ended early this morning, required to decide the eight titles, was a record for these annual champion carnivals. The battling that overthrew all champions and former title-holders who sought honors again was of a quality that demonstrated forcefully the worth of the new blood in the amateur ring.

112-pounds—T. P. McManus, Pittsburgh.
116-pounds—Sid Terris, New York.
126-pounds—George Fifield, Toronto.
135-pounds—Joe Ryan, Pittsburgh.
147-pounds—Harry D. Simons, Gary, Ind.
160-pounds — William Antrobus, New York.
175-pounds — Charles McKenna, New York.
Heavyweight—John Williams, San Francisco.

The champions, the first to be selected under the new Olympic weight classifications, will be invited, it has been announced, to go to the Pacific Coast for a tournament in San Francisco next month.

Gordon Munce, of New York, heavyweight champion last year passed out of the title picture a disappointed man. Victor in his last twenty-three bouts, he was so upset when the decision went against him and to Williams, after an extra round, that he threw into the crowd the trophy he received.

A familiar feature of recent annual tournaments, Eddie Eagan, of Denver, a law student at Harvard, also was eliminated. After he had lost his bout in the semi-finals round of the heavyweight division he decided to withdraw his entry for heavyweight honors.

Tendler Says Champ Afraid to Box Him

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Declaring that he and Phil Glassman, his manager, had done everything in their power to arrange a match with Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, without success, Lew Tendler today issued a statement claiming the title and challenging any lightweight in the world to a match. Tendler declared that his name had been omitted from the list from which an opponent for Leonard was to be selected for a fight at Michigan City, Ind., July 4. "This," the statement said, "shows beyond question that Leonard has deliberately has sidestepped the logical contender."

Mint Howell Is Only Card Not in Shape

By S. N. PIERCE.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 19.—With the exception of Mint Howell and Morris Kirksey, the Stanford track team appears to be in the pink of condition for the big meet next Saturday. Howell, the high jumper, is back on the campus after being in bed eleven days with the influenza, but he is very weak. It is doubtful whether he will get into a track suit and attempt to clear the bar again before the actual competition starts at Berkeley Saturday afternoon.

Kirksey's legs are not in the best of shape but he has been stepping the 120 in his old form and is not causing Coach Templeton much worry. Track fans will be treated to the spectacle of two field athletes competing for a place in a sprint race when Jack Merchant, the crack field athlete of the Bruins, and Glenn Hartranft, the Cardinal weight star, meet in the 100-yard dash. If Captain Bob Hutchinson of the Bruins is forced out of competition by illness Merchant and Hartranft will give Kirksey and Eddie Sudden a close race to the tape. Bill Comstock, the Stanford sprinter who captured third place in the century in last year's big meet, must be figured as a possible place winner again in this year's meet.

220 MAY SEE UPSET.

Calculations in the 220 will be completely upset if Hutchinson does not compete, for it is in this race that Cardinal supporters concede the Bear captain a better chance of taking first or second place in the 100. There is a possibility that Coach Templeton will enter "Blink" Williamson, his star quarter-miler, in the 220, as well as in the longer event. "Blink" would have a good chance to finish in third place behind Kirksey and Sudden. However, it is unlikely that Templeton will do this, for if the meet is close he will want Williamson to save all his strength for the relay.

The warm weather yesterday made the Cardinal weight men beam with pleasure. The cold wind of the past few weeks has not been altogether to the liking of Captain Flint Hanner and Glenn Hartranft. If the good weather continues for the rest of the week the Cardinal field stars have a chance to smash a lot of records.

RELAY TEAM NOT NAMED.

Coach Templeton has not yet picked the relay team he is going to use against the Walt Christie's team Saturday. As the meet is liable to depend on the outcome of this race "Dink" is spending no little time in figuring out the best possible combination. "Blink" Williamson is the only runner who is almost certain to run. "Blink" is the peer of the Stanford quarter-milers. Townsend Clark, Bob Wright and Judah are the most likely possibilities for the other places on the team. Wright has not been in good shape this year and has not been showing up as well as he did last season. There is a possibility that Eddie Sudden may be selected to run a lap in the relay. Although he specializes in the sprints Eddie can run a fast quarter mile as well. In the Irish Marathon early in the season Sudden was awarded the prize for making the best time recorded by a varsity man in his quarter-mile lap.

FAST FOUR-ROUNDERS WILL ENTERTAIN FANS AT THE AUDITORIUM

By BOB SHAND.

With four main events and three high-class preliminaries on his bill of fare, Mons. T. Simpson is looking for a large concourse of cash customers at the Auditorium this evening. In honor of the Native Sons who are here in large numbers, T. S. stepped forth and grabbed all the available main events in sight and instead of stopping there he hooked three scraps that would pass for main bouts at certain other clubs. Teddy O'Hara and Benny Vierra get the place of honor at the top of the card. Back of them are Dynamite Murphy and Joe Lynch. The third last mill will feature Young Farrell and Bobby Ertle and before this pair climb through the ropes the third meeting of Jimmy Kelsey and Charlie Jones will be history.

Vierra and O'Hara were placed on top of this collection of talent probably as a matter of habit as they have both been boxing main events for the past several months and other fighters will have to get jolted loose from his senses before he drops back among the preliminaries. Quite a number of the customers think O'Hara will drop Vierra into oblivion with a left hook this evening while others are equally sure Vierra will give Teddy a boxing lesson free for nothing and also gratis. If O'Hara will do his share of the leading and Vierra puts up his usual scrap there may be a decisive result. O'Hara thinks his only chance to win is by scoring a K. O. and he will have his haymaker ready at all times. Vierra can't hit hard enough to fight his way out of a paper bag but he's mighty elusive and better boxers than O'Hara have failed to slip one over on Benny in four rounds.

Murphy-Lynch Bout May End Suddenly.

The Murphy-Lynch mix-up may end suddenly. Murphy has a wonderful wallop in both hands and figures to stop anybody he can hit—with the exception of Iron Jaw Tod Morgan. Lynch has had a nice rest and will be fresh as a daisy or a poppy or what have you in the way of flowers?

Bobby Ertle put up a nice fight here a few weeks ago and if he is in the same form tonight he should give Young Farrell an interesting argument. Bobby, however, is a very uncertain proposition. He has his good nights and his bad nights while Farrell is always the same clean-hitting boxer who never wastes a punch and who never overlooks an opening.

Kelsey and Jones gave the fans a million dollars worth of action in their first two scraps and they are due to repeat this evening. Kelsey won the first one by a close margin and last week's mill was even up until Jones delivered a low punch. It was an unintentional foul for which little Jones apologized immediately. Charlie will be more careful tonight as he is quite sure he can lick every member of the Kelsey family in four rounds.

Pickles Martin Will Meet Tommy Driscoll.

Pickles Martin, one of the most popular boxers in the four-round ranks will appear after a long absence and expects to fight himself into the special event class in the near future. Tonight Pickles tackles Tommy Driscoll, a veteran four-rounder who used to entertain the boys in the days of the old Emeryville and West Oakland clubs. Pickles has trained hard and will be in shape.

George Gibbons, the thoughtful heavyweight from the barn of H. Algernon Broom, is going to take another flier at the game. His opponent will be Joe Carroll, a tough heavyweight with a good punch. Joe was boxing the good ones around here six years ago.

Al Sange, the local grocer who licked Alex Tasloff last week will appear in the curtain raiser with Joe Dunn. The latter hails from Seattle and comes well recommended.

Here Is the Boxing Card This Evening

Teddy O'Hara vs. Benny Vierra.
Dynamite Murphy vs. Joe Lynch.
Young Farrell vs. Bobby Ertle.
Jimmy Kelsey vs. Charlie Jones.
Pickles Martin vs. Tommy Driscoll.
George Gibbons vs. Joe Carroll.
Al Sange vs. Joe Dunn.

The first pair will be turned loose at 8:30.

Freshman Nines to Meet Tomorrow

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 19.—The Stanford and California freshman baseball teams meet here again tomorrow afternoon in the third and deciding game of the annual yearling series. The contest was originally scheduled for Berkeley, but has been switched to the local diamond.

The Cardinal team won the first game on the local lot and they have a good chance to capture the series. Coach Floyd Kallam has not decided on his pitching entry, but will pick either Follansbee, Hoffman or Teague. Dick Lawson will catch the game.

Golf Competition By Telegraph Now

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 19.—Golf competition by telegraph promises to be the newest form of sport. The University of Washington golf team has written to Captain Rosenblatt requesting a match by telegraph. Rosenblatt is skeptical over the results that would be obtained from such competition, due to differences in courses and weather conditions, but he believes it would add interest to the sport.

S. J. S. WIN BALL GAME.

The St. Joseph's Sodality team defeated the Coffin Reddingtons of San Francisco, 11 to 8, in a game featured by heavy hitting. Reckelberg did the honors for the Saints and was exceptionally good when men were on the sacks, while the Saints landed on Morena for seventeen hits. Bobby Jones, late of Vallejo, played good ball. Reckelberg and Luscher were the heavy hitters. The score:

The Backbone of the Nation

Back of commerce, back of industry, stands the man with the plow. This country's strength and prosperity will always be measured by the strength and prosperity of its agricultural interests.

Especially in this state, the second greatest crop producer in the country, the importance of agriculture can hardly be exaggerated.

Because right now is such an opportune time to buy farms, this paper is printing in its Color Section today (Wednesday) an unusually attractive list of good buys in country property for the benefit of its readers.

U. S. WEATHER STATION ASKED FOR OAKLAND

On the ground that the climatic and atmospheric conditions in Oakland are greatly different from San Francisco, Mayor John L. Davie has applied to Washington for the establishment of an Eastbay weather bureau.

News of the application was given out today by Forecaster E. A. Beals of San Francisco, who said that a special appropriation would have to be made to establish the new bureau, as the present appropriation is hardly sufficient for the San Francisco office.

Are Your Days a Pleasure

Health Will Make Them So

East Bakersfield, Calif. "For several years past Dr. Pierce's medicines have been the means of keeping me in good health. I was suffering with feminine weakness, inflammation and a catarrhal condition, also my back ached. I became weak and so nervous I could not sleep; was feeling so miserable that I was scarcely able to get around. I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advertised and decided to take it, and it so completely cured me of my weakness, and built me up into such splendid health and strength that I have depended on it to keep me well ever since that time. Whenever I feel the least bit rundown I take a bottle of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and it builds me right up in health. It just seems to give me a new lease on life. I can also recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a Spring tonic and blood purifier and find it equally as good as the 'Favorite Prescription.'"—Mrs. Mary Wagner, 1007 Sumner Street.

MANY SITES FOR ATHLETIC CLUB'S HOME PROPOSED

Lynne Stanley Is Swamped With Selling Talks; Members Will Decide.

Since the announcement last week that 1200 of the 2000 members of the Athens Athletic club had paid their initiation fees either in full or in part, and that the members of the club are now being mobilized for immediate action, 72 realty dealers, 263 property owners and 18 friends of property owners, have given Lynne Stanley, secretary-manager, as many "high-powered selling talks."

"I've been the goat of every selling talk known to the real estate game," explained Stanley yesterday. "I never realized until now just how many desirable sites there are in Oakland for a club. One enterprising chap tried to sell me a site out in Contra Costa county, and another bird had it doped out that a piece of property out in the Livermore valley was just the thing."

SELECTING SITE.

As a matter of fact, it is announced that the site for the club will be selected by the membership of the organization. The present plans promise that every available site will be listed and that the club members will ballot upon them.

In respone to a number of requests from members who were unable to attend the first meeting of the club, which was held last week, Stanley has issued the following statement as to the present status of the organization:

"The Athens Athletic Club is now an assured fact. The pioneering work has all been accomplished. We have on the membership rolls 2000 names. Of these 1200 members have either paid the initiation fee in full or met the first payment as required by the constitution.

CAMPAIGN PLANS.

"From now on until May 11 we are going to conduct a concentrated campaign for the purpose of collecting the initial payments from the remaining 800, and bringing the membership up to 3000. This is the last chance to get in on the charter memberships in the club."

Norman de Vaux is the president of the club, and J. Cal Ewing, vice-president.

Stanley's office, at which dues may be paid or applications for new memberships obtained, is in room 220, Henshaw building.

The members of the club will make their first public appearance as club members at the Orpheum on Monday night in honor of James J. Corbett. A feature of the evening will be a reunion of the members of the old Reliance and Acme Athletic clubs.

PUBLIC ASKED TO ATTEND BENEFIT

A proclamation calling attention to Friday's benefit theater performance on behalf of the Vaudeville Actors' Fund was issued today by Acting Mayor Albert E. Carter, who urges the people to attend theater on that day and make the event a profitable success. He says:

To the People of Oakland:

Probably no group of citizens gave, or is giving, of their time and effort to the sustaining of the morale and mental well being of our country, both during the world war and now in our trying period of reconstruction, than the American vaudeville actor.

While the war waged, theirs was a duty they did not shirk, either upon the field of battle or among our home people. In a time when the morale of our soldiers upon the battle line was threatened, when the nerves of those at home were tense, and tried, it fell to the lot of the vaudeville performer to supply a fund of mirth, music and song. This they gave as a unit as a vountary contribution to our victory.

Their continuation of the spreading of cheer and gaiety during our post-war trials is a recognized factor in the promotion of that great American spirit—optimism.

Throughout the country, in every city, on the afternoon of Friday, April 21, the vaudeville theaters, great and small, will donate their entire matinee receipts to the actor organization known as the National Vaudeville Artists, Inc. The fund so derived will go to the maintenance of a permanent insurance fund for the members of this organization, and for improving the artists' conditions generally.

I therefore urge the people of Oakland and vicinity to avail themselves of this opportunity offered and attend the testimonial arranged at their vaudeville theater on that afternoon, so that, in this slight manner, they may testify to their appreciation of the adequate services of the American vaudeville actor.

FLAPPERS OF 50 YEARS AGO MEN, SAYS SPEAKER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—John Henderson, oldest member of the local Rotary club, addressed that body yesterday at its "Sixteen Years After" luncheon at the Palace Hotel. He said that the flappers of fifty years ago were men.

"In the fifties the women had not learned to flap," he declared. "The men were all flappers then. They wore high-heeled boots, fancy clothes and greased their hair. If a woman used powder and paint as the flappers of today do, they would have been regarded with suspicion."

Other features of the luncheon commemorating the disaster of 1906 included a radio address by President Perry Cumberson, and a duet over the radio by Charles Bulotti and Henry Perry. Rev. William Kirk Guthrie of the First Presbyterian church gave a talk on "San Francisco's Future."

10,000 ARBUCKLE FILM CONTRACTS ENDED BY HAYS

Producers, Distributors Cancel Bookings Till Full Probe Complete.

NEW YORK, April 19 (By the Associated Press).—Cancellation of all contracts for the showing of films in which Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle appears, was announced last night by Will H. Hays, head of the Motion Picture Producers' Association. This action, he said, affected nearly 10,000 contracts.

"After consultation with Nicholas Schenck, representing Joseph Schenck, the producers, and Adolph Zuker and Jesse Lasky, of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, the distributers," Hays' statement said, "I will state that at my request they have cancelled all showings and all bookings of the Arbuckle films. They do this that the whole matter may have the consideration that its importance warrants, and the action is taken notwithstanding the fact that they had nearly 10,000 contracts in force for the Arbuckle pictures."

MATTER IN HAYS' HANDS.

When Zuker was asked if the action of the producers' association had removed Arbuckle definitely from the list of screen stars, he replied:

"We simply left the matter in the hands of Hays. It is up to him to decide in the future whether it will be proper to reintroduce the Arbuckle pictures."

Zuker recently said that three Aurbuckle feature comedies had been completed before the arrest of the comedian on charges growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe. The producer announced shortly after Arbuckle's acquittal that one of the films would be released as a "test" of public opinion.

ARBUCKLE SURPRISED.

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—"Gosh!" exclaimed Roscoe C. ("Fatty") Arbuckle last night when informed that Will E. Hays, head of the Motion Picture Producers' Association, in New York, had announced cancellation of all contracts for the showing of films in which the comedian appears.

"This is a complete surprise, and I might say, shock to me. It is the first I have heard of it. I don't know what it is all about, for I thought I was well started on my 'comeback.'"

OPPOSED IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The Presbytery of the San Francisco district and the Women's Vigilant committee, composed of representatives of San Francisco women's clubs, were on record today as opposed to further showing of Fatty Arbuckle films.

The presbytery made public resolutions declaring that regardless of the jury's verdict, Arbuckle was responsible for the "orgy" which preceded Miss Rappe's death. The action of the jury in issuing a statement tending to exonerate Arbuckle was condemned.

The women's committee, which had representatives in attendance at all of Arbuckle's trials, took a much similar position.

Charles V. Vickery.

Vickrey headed the American commission investigating conditions in Asia Minor, Silicia, Syria, Armenia and the Transcaucasia for the purpose of publishing accurate accounts of the famine and of establishing permanent means of reaching the children of these stricken lands.

Following a 25 per cent cut in appropriations by the trustees of the Near East relief, Vickrey started on a tour of the United States to "commute the death sentence" to 25,000 children who, under the new budget, must be left to die of starvation.

Mrs. Jilpha Ruggles Jenkins will offer a musical program during the luncheon. The public is invited to attend. Reservations may be made through the Near East relief office, 19 Bacon building.

Extra Work Barred For City Employees

In line with the recent order forbidding policemen to accept subordinate positions during their off hours, where they might place themselves under obligation while earning extra money, Commissioner Frank Colbourn today advised the heads of other departments to issue a rule against employees accepting outside work on Saturday afternoons, when city employees have a half-day off.

"City employees are city employees," says Colbourn, "and should not place themselves in a position where they owe anyone for favors."

Spring Medicine

Now Needed by Nearly Every One to Purify the Blood and Build Up Strength.

Few come to these trying spring days without weariness, debility, that "tired feeling," caused in large part by impure, de-vitalized blood.

Change of season often "takes all the strength out of me," as many people say.

The tonic and blood purifier needed is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It quickly dispels that exhausted feeling, enriches the blood and benefits the mental, muscular and nervous systems. In a word, says a druggist, "Hood's Sarsaparilla is our most dependable restorative."

Only the best tonic and purifying ingredients used,—roots, herbs, barks and berries, such as physicians often prescribe. A record of 46 years successful use. It will do you good. Try it this spring.

THE MAN pictured above is JOSEPH P. DAY, the nationally known real estate expert. He has sold more real estate at auction than any man in the world. He knows that a house heated with American Radiators sells or rents for much more than a house heated by a hot-air furnace or stoves.

Read his letter:

"One of the first things the buyer of a house asks about is the heating. An ARCOLA hot-water heating outfit can easily add from three to five times its cost to the selling value of the house."

A MAN IS AS STRONG AS THE SMALL OF HIS BACK

About Chiropractic

(By the Alameda Chiropractic Association.)

The canal running through the center of this column is for the passage and protection of the spinal cord. As the spinal cord descends it gives off 31 pairs of nerves. These nerves pass through the small openings in the "back bone." Each nerve as it passes through its alloted opening completely fills it.

It is by this wonderful system of nerves that the brain is enabled to control and govern the function and action of every organ and tissue of the body.

A displaced vertebra will pinch a nerve. The nerve pinched cannot transmit nerve impulse as well as a nerve that is free from pressure. As a result of this pressure the tissues at the end of the nerve become "DISEASED." If this nerve supplies a muscle, that muscle becomes paralyzed, if the nerves go to the stomach some form of stomach trouble would result.

For example, take "sour stomach," where it secretes too much acid, with distressing results. The patient is usually given alkali to counteract the acid and the symptoms subside for a time; when the effects of the alkali wear off, the symptoms return. Why? BECAUSE THE REAL CAUSE STILL REMAINS. A Chiropractor would give the patient nothing. He would simply examine the spine at the "stomach place." Here he would find the subluxated vertebra pressing on the nerve going to the stomach. He would adjust this bone to its proper place and the stomach trouble would disappear permanently.

Other "diseases" are removed in the same manner. The Chiropractor's object in each case is to REMOVE THE CAUSE AND NOT to treat EFFECTS.

Skin Disease and Constipation Relieved

I had skin disease and constipation for years; pimples and eruptions all over my face and body; were annoying and itched terribly. In vain I spent much money for doctors and various remedies. Recommended by a friend, who was cured of throat trouble, I took the Kong Wah Herb treatment. Since then I am well, have gained several pounds and my face looks clear.

RELIEF FOR WOMEN

Oakland, Cal.

I had headaches and high blood pressure for several years. My pain was so severe that I was able to do but little work. I took all sorts of medicines and consulted several doctors. I obtained no relief, however, until I commenced to drink the FONG WAN HERB TEA. After seven weeks of the herbs, prepared by the well-known Fong Wan Herb Specialist, I was entirely free from my former complaints.

My daughter suffered from violent twitching and lack of nerve control in her left arm and leg. In four weeks she also was completely cured by the same Herb Specialist.

PLAN No. 98

The exterior of this home is designed along English lines. The walls are of stucco and the roof laid in shingles.

The floor plan shows five rooms. Living and dining rooms are grouped on one side of the house, while both bedrooms are on the other side. An entrance hall connects the front bedroom and the living room.

LET'S ALL TOTE FAIR

BY THE OAKLAND REAL ESTATE BOARD.

It is conceded by practically everybody that a man owning his own home is a better citizen and a better father than one who rents. Renting is a breeder of discontent; always has been—always will be. A home owner is more loyal to the Federal government, his state, his municipality, his employer, his friends, and even his own family. He is out of the "floater" class. He isn't eternally trying to convince himself that our political, social and industrial conditions are all wrong, because in home ownership he becomes a part of our government and a real citizen.

One of the strongest points in favor of owning a home is the scarcity of dwellings and the high rents; due to a depreciation in the buying power of a dollar. Many are inconsistent in their demands for higher salaries—at the same time accuse others of profiteering because they are obliged to exact more money for their products. It is all because we try to fool ourselves when we talk about the dollars. Our politicians, for some reason, do not like the idea of having a dollar that is always the same value. Sometimes they make the good old dollar worth a hundred cents in purchasing power; some times sixty-seven cents; sometimes fifty cents, etc.

When the dollar buys a hundred cents' worth, a carpenter, for instance, receives wages of about $4.00 per day; when it buys fifty cents' worth, he receives about $8.00 a day. Really he is getting the same thing either way; but the blacksmith or the farmer, who wants a home of his own, and is also getting wages and prices for his commodities on the same comparative basis, refuses to see it that way. He thinks he ought to have the $8.00 a day and higher prices, but the carpenter, the plumber, the painter, the lumberman and the mason ought to still be satisfied with the old $4.00 in order that he, the blacksmith or the farmer, might still buy the kind of a house he wants for four thousand with the fifty-cent dollars he would pay for it.

It isn't difficult to make an intelligent, reasonable man see all this; in fact, most of them understand it now, so let's have a stabilized nation of home owners, and while nearly everyone is employed at good wages and getting top notch prices for their products, is the time to bring it about.

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau of Information

"On what date was the Titanic sunk and how many lives were lost?"

On Sunday, April 14, 1912. There were 1500 lives lost.

"When was the tide lowest on April 10 at Berkeley wharf?"

At 4 a. m.

"Will you please tell me how to wash or clean white knitted goods?"

Do not hang your knitted goods up to dry. Spread them on a clean cloth to dry in the sun. Do not wring them with your hands either, as this is likely to stretch them out of shape. Run them through a regular wringer to get the best results. Use luke warm water and good white soap.

The TRIBUNE Information Bureau will answer all question of a general nature except medical or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The bureau is open every day except Sunday, from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

If answers are desired by mail, stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning the Information Bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve, ask The TRIBUNE Information Bureau, Lakeside 6000.

MY FAVORITE STORIES by IRVIN S. COBB

The Perils of Pranking

There was a homicide trial going on at a remote county seat in the mountains of West Virginia and a lanky native took the stand to testify to the good character and peaceful disposition of the prisoner at the bar. When he had given the accused a glowing testimonial the prosecuting attorney took him in hand for cross-examination.

"Yas, suh; it is."

"Well, who inflicted that wound?"

"Yep."

"I see you also have the scar of a bullet wound in your right cheek. Who made that?"

"Bill."

"On still another occasion didn't Bill, as you call him, gouge one of your eyes almost out?"

"That's a fact, too."

"Now, then, in view of the injuries you yourself admit having sustained at his hands, how do you reconcile your sworn statements of a minute ago that the defendant is an individual of peaceable and law-abiding nature, and a good neighbor?"

"Well, suh," said the witness; "Bill is one of the nicest fellers ever you seen in your life; but I must say this—he's a powerful onlikely pusson to prank with!"

MUSIC.

After careful thought I have concluded I cannot cover the entire subject of music in this one article and do it or myself justice. You notice I leave you out of it. I have little more than space in which to sound by leit-motif (that is a technical term we musicians use) and to develop a few variations on this one theme. So for today's subject I shall speak on how to pick a title for a popular song.

As the popular song writers say, everything is in the title. A perusal of the song will convince you it must be. The best way to learn how to title songs is to study present vogues. Just now there seems to be a run on Mammies. First it was Mammy of Mine, and then, in order to be absolutely original, some other bright lyricist called his "My Mammy." Then came "Oh, Mammy, Mammy," "Give Me Back My Mammy," "Tuck Me in My Mammy's Arms," which about exhausted that generation so the song writers were forced to go back a ways. Which they did, evolving, "Granny, You Are My Mammy's Mammy." The next stage will probably be "Great Grand Mammy, You Are My Mammy's Mammy's Mammy." You can keep this up indefinitely until the authorities are aroused to do their duty.

But maybe your composition is one of those "Blues." You know, "I've got the blues (he's got the blues), I've got the blues (he's got the blues). I've got the old Waukegan blues." Or the Occonomowoc or Waukesha blues, as the case may be. Take down your atlas and go to it. I've got the Madagascar Blues, I've got the Cochin China Blues; the Czecho-Slovak Blues, the Grecian Archipelago Blues, etc. Delightful?

And now there is a new idea, suggested by the recent publication of the Muscle Shoals Blues. Title your songs after current events: The Four Power Treaty Blues, The First Quarterly Payment of the Income Tax Blues, the Genoa Conference on the Economic Phases of European Restoration Blues, the Coal Strike Blues, or the Parley of the Operators and Miners for the Settlement of the Strike Blues.

Winifred Black Writes about FOLKS AND THINGS

THE NAGGING OF THE WORLD.

Did you read about her the other day, the girl who killed herself because her father reproved her for her table manners?

She didn't use her fork correctly, and her father spoke to her about it, and she rushed from the table and slammed the door and went up to her room and wrote a letter. And in the letter she said:

"I cannot bear to be nagged any longer. You'll have to take your spite out on somebody else, now—I'm through. Good-by."

And they buried her and had wreaths and music, and the poor father is heart-broken.

I don't know whether there was any mother or not. It seemed to me as if the mother was gone and the girl's father was trying to be mother and father, too, and he made a mess of it, and now he must often sit and wonder how he could have managed better, and where it was that he made his mistake.

Poor man—I do hope he has some sensible, level-headed, warm-hearted friend to comfort him, and tell him the truth about the whole matter.

How would she have ever lived in this rough world at all—a girl who was so sensitive that she couldn't bear to have her own father tell her how to use her knife and fork, and what to do with her napkin when she was through with it?

"Nagged—spite" — poor child, she couldn't realize that her father was trying to correct her because he loved her, and wanted to be proud of her and couldn't bear to think that when she went out among strangers some one might laugh at her for her bad manners and wonder why no one had ever taught her better.

BLESS THEIR HEARTS.

"Nagged—spite" — how much easier it would have been for the poor man to let his self-willed, self-centered little daughter alone. How much pleasanter it would have been to have gone his own way and have permitted her to go hers, without comment or correction.

"I must live my own life—I can't stand it to be guided or controlled. What's mine is my own—my mind, my character, my likes and dislikes—yes, and my manners, good or bad, too—just as much mine as my complexion or the color of my hair and the way I open and shut my eyes. Nobody can make me over, no matter how hard they try. And I'm not going to encourage anybody to try."

All this I heard spoken quite simply and quite good-naturedly the other day when three or four young men and young girls sat together by a cozy fire, and discussed this very case.

"Poor thing," said one of the girls, "I know exactly how she felt. I wish I had the courage to tell my mother how little use it is for her to nag me about my clothes and my table manners and the way I talk and all the rest of it. I'm just waiting to be eighteen, so I can go downtown and have a studio and live there, and not be nagged to death from morning until night."

Bless their hearts. I wonder who they think will care enough for them to "nag" them when they're "living their own lives" in somebody else's studio apartment, keeping office hours for somebody else and paying the rent to a cold-hearted landlord who has ways of his own of "nagging" if the rent isn't paid exactly on the dot.

"Spite?" I wonder how long it takes a girl to find out that there are people outside her own home who really do have spite, and that neither Mother or Father has a monopoly on the nagging business.

IN THE MEANTIME—

If I had a girl in my family who told me she couldn't bear to be nagged when I was trying my very best to teach her something that she ought to know, I believe I'd encourage her to step out into the world by herself for awhile—and do a little nagging on her own account.

I believe a few months of taking "spite" from an irritable boss and being just a little cog in the great machine in a big office might help her to see the light and know what she was looking at when she saw it.

What a strange, unbridled, undisciplined world we do live in these days—you and I and all the rest of us!

We want what we want when we want it, and we want it exactly our own way when we get it—old and young, rich and poor—we've all taken the infection. Sometimes I wonder if we'll ever come to our senses again, any of us, and learn to accept discipline and honest correction and kindly criticism as a part of the whole business of life.

Perhaps not—maybe there's a new world and a new kind of life to be lived in it. And perhaps it's all going to be regulated by some brand-new set of rules. In the meantime——

ANDRE TRIDON

OUR attitude to the man who was insane and has recovered from his ailment is stupid and cruel and due to our profound ignorance of the meaning of insanity. Anyone who has seen a neurotic patient acquire slowly gradually, a complete understanding of the motives which had led him into his morbid condition, is forced to believe that after making his recovery, the patient is probably saner than thousands of people who never "lost their minds." Recovery from a severe neurosis means the acquisition of an enormous amount of insight into not only one's psychology but in the psychology of one's associates as well. It means that the recovered patient has required a rather robust mentality.

Unfortunately at the present day, the man who was unfortunate enough to require "mental treatment" in a sanitorium or an institution for the insane, returns to his former environment bearing a certain stigma. People are afraid of him and expect him to "go crazy" some time or other. They may pretend to be kind but they keep themselves at a distance. Suggestion gradually puts in its deadly work. When an entire community treats us as though we were abnormal, we have a tendency to watch ourselves suspicously and to wonder whether after all, the community is not justified in its diagnosis. The tasks which face us are infinitely more difficult than the ttsks which face others. Our progress is impeded at every step by the fact that "once we were insane." This casts upon every hour of our life a gloomy complexion. We live under a cloud.

Whatever form of neurosis the patient may have recovered, meltncholia slight or severe, will now be his fate. Hard as he may try, he will never be accepted by the community on a footing of perfect equality.

The recovered insane should betake themselves to an entirely new environment where people are ignorant of their past and where they can start life over again. Returning to the environment which made one insane is a dubious experiment which may lead to suicide or back to the insane asylum where life is so simple in a negative way and in which all problems are settled for the inmates.

Veal Pie.

Buy two pounds of neck of veal and have the bones taken out. Cut the meat in two-inch squares. Take all the bones and trimmings and put them into a saucepan with a small can of tomatoes, a pint of water, a large sliced onion, a little celery, parsley and a carrot. Simmer gently until reduced and all the goodness cooked from the ingredients, season, thicken slightly, and strain. When cold remove the grease. Line a deep dish with good crust, put in a layer of the meat, a very thinly sliced onion, and a very thinly sliced carrot, another layer of the meat, then a layer of sliced potato, season, pour in the gravy and put on the top crust, leaving a vent in the top. Bake for forty-five minutes.

For fear the crust may get too brown, it is a good idea to cover the pie until it is heated through and begins to cook, then remove the cover. This pie is an entire dinner, the crust taking the place even of bread. Neck of mutton or lamb may be used in the same way.

Smoked Tenderloin.

Get a pound and a half of smoked tenderloin and soak it in cold water for two or three hours, thn boil until tender, drain and day the meat in a buttered casserole. Put in a few potato balls, a small cauliflower thickly sliced, and a few small onions. Make a brown gravy of stock, and pour over all. Cook for three-quarters of an hour in a medium oven. Serve in the casserole. Boiled rice is nice served with this dish.

Buttered Eggs.

Take four very fresh eggs and beat them well with a silver fork. Put four ounces of butter into a pan and set the pan over a pan of water, stirring until the butter is melted. Turn in the eggs. When hot, turn them into a bowl and back into the pan to aereate them. Let them come to the boiling point, but do not let them boil or they will curdle. Stir the eggs one way steadily as they heat. When done turn the eggs over toast or a hot dish and serve at once.

Egg Canapes.

Boil enough fresh eggs hard to allow one to each canape. Spread the needed number of toast rounds lightly with a mixture of a tablespoonful of fresh butter, a teaspoonful of anchovy paste, pepper, the juice of an onion and the juice of half a lemond. Put the eggs through the ricer, add a little paprika, half a teaspoonful each of Worcestershire sauce and chili sauce and a teaspoonful of mayonnaise made with mustard. Heap one egg fixed in this way on each toast round. Garnish with a spray of cress.

Fried Onion Omelette.

Put a large tablespoonful of butter into the omelette pan and when melted set the pan back to keep warm. Beat six eggs very light with a silver fork, then add three tablespoonfuls of rich milk and the same amount of hot water. Add pepper and a little salt. Pour the mixture into the hot pan and cook gently lighting it around the edges, as it begins to set, with a knife. When done, set under the broiler for a couple of minutes before turning. Have ready a Spanish onion, which has been fried in butter, and lay it in the omelette before turning or folding it to slip on to a hot dish. Serve immediately.

How Stone Daggers Aided Men

This is part of a series of narratives about the life of mankind that will continue throughout the year.

YESTERDAY we spoke of a new way Stone Age men learned to chip stones — the pressure method. Let us now speak of one of the new stone weapons which came into use.

It is the dagger.

The dagger looked somewhat like a knife, but it was longer and more sharply pointed. It could be used in a much more handy fashion against wild beasts. A number of stone daggers have been dug up during the last century. Some of these were chipped in a very beautiful manner.

When a hunter went into the forest to kill some wild animals, of course he took along a stone - pointed spear or a sling. At other times a man might be without a spear or sling, but if he was cautious he would always carry a dagger in a slit in his skin belt.

The man, we shall say, lived in Egypt about 20,000 years ago. One morning he arose early — before anyone else in the cave was awake—and decided to go to a nearby brook to get a drink. He walked along with the springy step which points to good health. Perhaps he was humming.

Suddenly his thoughts were disturbed by a slight sound from a thicket on the hillside he was passing. With lightning rapidity, he turned his eyes toward the spot. There, crouching for a spring, was a tiger. The fierce creature snarled as it leaped toward him.

For a fraction of a second, the man was so startled that he did not move a muscle. Then his hand shot down to his belt. He grasped his stone dagger, and held it toward the tiger. The action was just in time, for the beast was almost upon him. The dagger grazed the side of the tiger's head, drawing blood. At almost the same moment, the teeth of the brute sank into the man's right arm and tore away a big piece of flesh. With a howl of pain he raised his bleeding arm and plunged the dagger deep into the body of the tiger, which had not been quite able to recover from its long leap. The animal was dead! Forgetting about his drink of water, the man picked up his fallen enemy and began carrying it back to the cave. It made a heavy load, but he did not mind, for he was anxious to show it to his friends.

Uncle Wiggily Stories

by HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE FIRE BELL.

One beautiful spring afternoon in the Woodland village, near the Orange Ice Mountains, where Uncle Wiggily lived, the bunny gentleman was asleep in an easy chair on the porch of his hollow stump bungalow. His red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch was lying beside him, for, even though his rheumatism never hurt him on fine days, he never could tell when it was going to rain.

Uncle Wiggily was resting, with his eyes shut, when, all of a sudden, he leaped from his chair, jumped high in the air and cried:

"Wow! Oh, dear me! Wow! Wow!"

"My goodness me, sakes alive and a basket full of potato chips!" cried Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, as she ran out to see who was making all the noise. "Whatever is the matter, Wiggily? Did you have a bad dream?"

"Stop it! Stop!" yelled the rabbit gentleman, as if he did not see or hear Nurse Jane at all, as indeed he did not, for he was not yet fully awake. "I'll save you, Susie! I'll save you from the Woozie Wolf! He shan't get you this time!" cried the bunny, and he leaped straight for the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"Uncle Wiggily, wake up! I'm Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy and not a fox. I'm your muskrat lady housekeeper. Wake up!" cried Nurse Jane.

"Eh! What's that? Why — why —it's you, isn't it? How queer! I —er—now—I—er——" Uncle Wiggily stammered and stuttered.

"Queer? No, I don't see why it is queer that I am myself," said Nurse Jane, while Uncle Wiggily blinked his eyes as a baby does when he first awakens. "But you were certainly dreaming, Uncle Wiggily. What was it all about?" asked Nurse Jane.

"Dear me!" exclaimed the bunny, rubbing his eyes. "Why, you see, I dreamed that Susie Littletail was being chased by a bad fox, and she was just about to be caught when I saw her—in my dream, of course," the bunny explained, "and I made a jump to hit the Wolf on his nose."

"Very exciting!" exclaimed Nurse Jane.

"I hope I didn't hurt you when I jumped at you," went on Mr. Longears, anxious like. "I really thought, at first, that you were the Fox."

"Goodness, I hope not!" spoke Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "And you didn't harm me in the least. But now will you go to the store for me? I want three cans of sliced rhubarb with which to make a pie."

"Fine! I love pie! I'll get the rhubarb for you," said the bunny, twinkling his pink nose as he hopped along toward the store. As he hopped along he thought about his strange dream.

The sun was gleaming through the branches of the trees, and above the bunny and on all sides the early buds were nodding happily in the breeze, whispering to each other about the coming summer. The rabbit uncle had not gone very far before he met Susie Littletail.

"Oh, my, Susie!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I just had the most strange dream about you," and he told her about it.

"How odd!" laughed Susie, as she hopped along beside Uncle Wiggily.

And now comes the exciting part. As Susie and Uncle Wiggily were on their way through the woods, the bunny gentleman having bought the rhubarb, all of a sudden the Woozie Wolf jumped out of the bushes.

"Oh, bless my pink nose!" cried Uncle Wiggily.

"Run! Run! We must run!" screamed Susie.

Run they did, but the Wolf could run much faster than the two bunnies, and Uncle Wiggily looked back over his shoulder in time to see the bad chap just about to catch Susie by her ears. Then, beside the woodland path, Uncle Wiggily saw, up on a stump, the big tin can bell that the animal folk used to ring whenever there was a fire.

"Quick, Susie! Hide under that bell, and I'll try to drive away the Wolf!" whispered Uncle Wiggily.

Susie leaped under the bell before the Wolf saw her. Up came the unpleasant creature. Uncle Wiggily picked up a stone and threw it at the Wolf, but didn't hit him. Instead the bunny's stone hit the fire bell.

"Clang!" it rang.

"Gracious sakes! What's that! A fire?" exclaimed the Wolf, not noticing that it was Uncle Wiggily's stone which had made the ringing sound. "Maybe my house is burning," the Wolf howled.

"Ha! A good idea!" cried the bunny. "I know how to scare him." Taking the three cans of rhubarb Uncle Wiggily threw them, one at a time, at the fire bell.

"Oh, dear. Number three! That's my house, sure!" growled the Wolf. "I must go help put out the fire! I'll get you some other time!" And away he ran as fast as he could go.

"It's all right now, Susie! You may come out," said the bunny gentleman, and the little rabbit girl crawled from beneath the bell. "You see my dream nearly came true after all," chuckled Mr. Longears.

And now he and Susie laughed at the way the Wolf was fooled! Then they went home, after Mr. Longears picked up the cans of rhubarb, for they weren't broken.

The following letter enclosed a lengthy newspaper clipping. The name of the paper was not given nor the source of the remarks, hence I am unable to give proper acknowledgment of the same. The matter however, will be of interest to many and I will gladly comment as requested.

"Dear Jerry:

"I am sending you a clipping from a daily paper, which hits the nail on the head, in my opinion.

"You may not agree with it but it is the truth, nevertheless, and I would be obliged to you if you will reprint it in your column and make comment on it, as I would like to know what you think of it.

"Yours for virtue and decency amongst young women.

"A FRIEND OF THE OLD-FASHIONED GIRL."

I do not know which portion of the clipping our friend wished discussed but give the parts she underlined.

"Can you imagine the girls you see on the streets of all our large cities today AS THE FUTURE MOTHERS OF THE RACE?" asked the speaker.

"Can these gaudy, over-dressed girls with the pencilled eyebrows and PAINTED LIPS carry on IMPERISHABLE IDEALS and the great tradition of our nation?

"I say to you that they cannot. A change must come, and quickly, or this nation is on the way to a most grievous fate."

"It is an age marked by lack of home training for the young; and a future generation will have to pay for the lack of discipline received in the homes of today.

"It is an age which is marked by a dangerous laxity in the RELATIONSHIP of BOYS and GIRLS. More chaperonage is needed.

"Marriage laws are so loose that we are the object of derision among even JAPANESE, who are supposed to be UNMORAL when judged by Occidental standards.

"Divorce is becoming a national habit. It is undermining the family, which is the foundation of society.

"It is an age of juvenile crime. In this nation more than 60 per cent of all crime is committed by mere youths UNDER 22 YEARS OF AGE."

It is both unfair to the original speaker and to me to ask me thus to criticize an address which is not quoted in its entirety, but I shall merely reiterate the statements already made in this column—statements based on my deepest convictions of right and wrong along these lines. I, too, am for "decency and virtue amongst young women"—and old ones, too. And I am doing my very best to fight for those things. Neither ignorance nor fanaticism helps any cause, and much of the present criticism of the new-fashioned girl is based on these things.

As regards the indictments brought in this article, THERE IS NOT ONE THAT COULD NOT HAVE BEEN BROUGHT AT ANY TIME IN THE WORLD'S HISTORY. In my library I have many books dealing with the morals and manners of bygone ages. These are not new books. Some of them are very, very old. Some deal entirely with fashions and costumes. Some treat on social changes. AND THESE BOOKS ARE FILLED WITH EXACTLY THE SAME SORT OF EXHORTATIONS AS THOSE IN THIS QUOTED SPEECH.

The present styles, for instance, do not approach the "indecency" of the styles in vogue during the earlier part of the nineteenth century, when stylish street dresses consisted of tight muslin slips, transparent, worn over tights, and practically waistless. You would shriek with horror if you saw women parading Broadway at noon with absolutely uncovered shoulders and arms, and outer blouses cut as low as camisoles. Yet such dresses were worn at the time of the Civil War by some of the noblest wives and mothers of our nation. Moreover those ancient costumes were cut on lines that were unhealthy to the extreme. Never have women worn more comfortable or hygienic clothes than they are at present.

I, too, am for modesty. I think that it is an unnecessary waste of personal power and charm to needlessly expose the body, when such exposure runs counter to public taste. But you won't get very far if you try to fight such things with ignorance. THE TRUE MODESTY ISN'T A MATTER OF CLOTHES. IT'S AN ATTITUDE OF THE SPIRIT. Unless you change the spiritual attitude you'll never get very far with your modesty campaign.

THE TRUTH ABOUT MODESTY IS THAT IT IS SIMPLY GOOD BUSINESS MANAGEMENT OF ONE'S MENTAL AND PHYSICAL INHERITANCE. Fashions change every year. The moral code alters with each generation. But always, at every period there is some certain standard of good taste, and if you wish to obtain the recognition of the more influential people it is well to conform reasonably to that standard of good taste. And the recognition of the more influential people is really worth while (if you don't sacrifice too much to get it) for it brings us happiness and material prosperity.

Now that's the common sense argument for modesty. That's the sort of argument I give my girl friends against bared kneecaps and IT GETS OVER. But arguments based on violent prejudice and ignorance of real historical facts, will NOT get over and I maintain that I'm a better fighter for decency than you are when I use reason and you try to use force.

YOU WANT TO CENTER MODESTY ON A KNEECAP OR SHOULDER BLADE. I WANT TO CENTER IT IN THE SPIRIT WHERE IT WILL BE A CONTROLLING INFLUENCE ON THE WHOLE LIFE. WHICH IS THE GREATER GOAL?

The girls of ALL days have "thought more of prettiness and popularity than essential goodness." The youths of ALL periods have been thought "callow and lacking in responsibility." These are not my opinions. Read history and find the truth. I'm not giving you Jerryisms. I'm giving you TRUTH.

THE INDIVIDUAL DESIRE FOR GOODNESS HAS NEVER BEEN ANY GREATER THAN IT IS TODAY. I doubt if it has even been as great. But in bygone days a tremendous compulsion was brought to bear by the governing institutions to repress individual expression. The piety and respectability of the masses was not a spontaneous piety. It was compulsory. If you believe that the conformity and servility of slaves was a good thing, then those were good days. I don't I think that our present confusion, troublesome as it may be, is a better expression for it is the expression of FREE MEN.

I do certainly agree that there is a lack of proper home training, and I'll be most interested if anyone will tell me a period in the world's history when there wasn't a lack of proper home training. By training I mean TRAINING. I don't mean the repression caused by fear. That doesn't result in any progress. I mean the sort of discipline and teaching that results in ambitious, honest, fearless, fair individuals, people with backbones and hearts and brains.

Homes SHOULD give that sort of training, but mighty few of them do. However, if you will again consult your history, you will find that more is now being done for the child along correct educational and industrial lines than has ever been done before in the world's history.

As to divorce—Divorce isn't undermining the family. The family is undermining itself. Divorce simply announces the fact to the world. Is a loathsome sore any less loathsome because it is nicely covered up with a garment? Is a marriage which breeds weakness and hate any less poisonous because the public doesn't know about it?

I'm not advocating divorce. Divorce is none of my business. I think the reformers are wasting their breath when they concentrate on divorce. Why don't they hit at the REAL EVIL? Why don't they attack the silliness and selfishness and sensuality that lead people into marriage instead of the inevitable resentment which thereafter breaks that marriage tie? Why don't they talk more about common sense and decency and less about miracles?

And as to it being an age of juvenile crime—ALL CRIME HAS BEEN LARGELY JUVENILE IN EVERY AGE. Once again allow me to implore you to READ. Crimes are committed mainly by people of immature bodies and immature minds. Sometimes that mind dwells in a body which has lived many years but the psychological tests for mental development show that the mind age is only about twelve years, or even less. This is not theory. It is FACT. This fact is making a great stir now, simply because such tests are a recent development of science. Nevertheless we find that history proves the contention.

I don't imagine that this article is going to allay the suspicions of those who think this column is advocating laxness. Such people believe that everything is all right as long as you keep the lid on and don't peek, and that pretty speeches will heal the world. I don't believe in lids or pretty speeches. I believe in giving people the truth "THAT THE TRUTH MAY SET THEM FREE." And insofar as I take any part in this department, which really belongs to the public, I am going to do that thing.

Famous "WITS" of History

If there was ever a man of genius handicapped by looks, poverty and disposition, it was Samuel Johnson. Yet he rose by slow and painful degrees to overshadow most of his literary contemporaries, and to outshine by reputation many great writers of succeeding generations.

One who signed himself M. thus describes Johnson's manners:

"Chesterfield," whom Johnson endeavored to make his patron in the task o fcompiling his famous dictionary, "received Johnson's homage with the most winning affability, and requited it with a few guineas, bestowed doubtless in a very graceful manner, but was by no means desirous to see all his carpets blackened with the London mud, and his soups and wines thrown to right and left over the gowns of fine ladies and the waistcoats of fine gentlemen by an absent-minded, awkward scholar, who gave strange starts and uttered strange growls, who dressed like a scarecrow and ate like a cormorant."

But despite such manners, Johnson's brilliant mind made him the literary hero of his day, and his witty sayings were eagerly repeated throughout fashionable London. Among his many idiosyncrasies, Johnson professed contempt for actors. Nevertheless, Johnson flushed with delight one day when the great Sarah Siddons called upon him.

Johnson's servant could not instantly provide the great actress with a chair, for Johnson was even then so very poor that his furniture was scanty. Another man would have been horribly embarrassed. Johnson turned the incident into a witty compliment:

"You see, madam, wherever you appear there are no seats to be had."

Literary pretensions were the bane of Johnson. He delighted to "take down a peg" any one who foolishly boasted. To a young man who lamented one day that he had lost all his Greek, Johnson said:

"I believe it happened at the same time, sir, that I lost all my large estate in Yorkshire."

That Johnson could appreciate wit in others is evidenced by his delight in repeating what Gwyn, the architect, said to him when he remonstrated with the architect for pulling down a church which might have lasted many years, and building a new church in a more convenient place. The obvious reason was that there might be a more direct road to a new bridge.

"You are taking," said Johnson, "a church out of the way that the people may go in a straight line to the bridge."

"No, sir," Gwyn replied. "I am putting the church in the way that the people may not go out of the way."

Like all successful authors, Johnson was pestered by many writers who begged him to read what they had written, and to tell them what chance they had to win success if their work was published. One day a woman called on Johnson with a bulky manuscript under one arm. She begged him to read it and to tell her if it would do, for if it would not do she would turn to other irons which she had in the fire.

Johnson read a few pages of the manuscript, skipped some, tried to read more, and finally stopped. He looked up at the would-be authoress and said:

"Madame, I would advise you to put this where your other irons are."

WITCHES' & PIRATES' STORY DEN

A TRUE PAL.

By Elmer Murdock, 14 Years.

1141 98th Ave., Oakland, Calif.

There was once a boy named Charles Hadruff, who lived in Hull, a small town near London. He longed for the day to come when he could be rich and go to America. He used to visit a rich man who lived across the street. His name was Mr. Dufflus. He was a kind-hearted man who was very kind to Charles.

Charles was over at Mr. Dufflus' one day when he thought to himself, "Maybe Mr. Dufflus can tell me about America." He asked Mr. Dufflus to tell him about America. Mr. Dufflus was not in a humor to talk about America. He said, "In June I shall sail for America." It was then May. Charles was greatly surprised at this. He was thinking fast of some way to ask Mr. Dufflus to take him along, when all of a sudden this thought come to his mind: "I know what I will do. I will sneak into his trunk when he is about to leave."

It was then the thirty-first of May. Mr. Dufflus had already bought his ticket and was going to leave the next day. Charles was anxious to get in Mr. Dufflus' house and get into the trunk. He took a small bite of bread in his big red bandana handkerchief to eat when he got hungry. He slept silently through the night. Morning came and he was awakened early by the moving of the trunk, which was being taken to the ship.

He had now been in the trunk for two days and was growing very tired and nearly all of his bread was gone. He thought, "I will get out of this trunk and go up on the deck." Luck was with him. The trunk was unlocked. He climbed out of the trunk and walked about the ship. He saw some nice hot doughnuts. He took a lot of them and filled his pockets to make sure he would have a good supply in case he became hungry.

He longed to talk to Mr. Dufflus, but knew that Mr. Dufflus would scold him for sneaking aboard the ship. He kept clear of Mr. Dufflus for many days. But one day he was sitting on a post singing, when Mr. Dufflus came up behind him. It was almost night. The sky was black and the water was dark and gloomy-looking. A great storm was beginning to rise. The captain came on deck and called, "Clear the deck." Mr. Dufflus left, but Charles remained. It began to rain. The thunder clashed and the lightning flashed. It was so light that it seemed like day. The water splashed far above the deck, when all of a sudden a crash was heard. The ship struck a rock and was sinking. The people were praying and placing life-preservers about their bodies. Charles knew how to swim very well. His grandfather was a sea captain, named Lawritzen, and was very brave. He grabbed Mr. Dufflus and placed a life-preserver on him, and they jumped overboard. They were in the water for many hours.

They landed safely at Nova Scotia, Canada, in America. Charles lived with Mr. Dufflus the rest of his life. Mr. Dufflus educated Charles. When Charles became a man, he was very successful and a respected citizen.

LATE ARRIVAL OF SPRING SEEN IN PRODUCE MARKET

Carry-Over Potato Prices Expected to Jump as New Stock Is Far Behind.

Evidence of the lateness of the season may be seen on every side in the produce markets. Many early vegetables that ought to be at their full tide are as yet coming in very limited quantities. Strawberries are included in the luxury list, yet a year ago they were offered in large quantities and had their season prices level. New potatoes, peas and asparagus, while now coming regularly, were almost a month behind in appearing. Onions from the Coachella Valley are due ordinarily the last week in April. Thus far no word has been received of when they may be expected and the market men do not look for them for almost a month yet. The same story of lateness applies to almost every vegetable.

Arrivals today included 4 cars of spuds and 2 of Watsonville apples. The backward season has stimulated the demand for carry-over potatoes until a jump in price of northern stuff seems on the card. The amount of new stock in sight is negligible and no great quantity in sight for a month at least.

Prices of asparagus were again on the slide, dealers quoting all the way from 5 to 10 cents, according to quality. Arrivals aggregated 860 boxes.

California canned spinach is in active demand in New York for prompt shipment from the coast. The cold, wet weather recently, has interfered with packing, and some of the canners have temporarily withdrawn their offerings.

The livestock industry has set the pace for agricultureal readjustment and indications are that "it will continue to exert a dominant influence in the return of business to normal conditions," according to a quarterly report issued today by S. B. Stafford, president of the Chicago Livestock Exchange.

"Hog values are on a sound basis," says the report. "Continued light supplies may be expected. Even the heralded over-supply next winter will hardly materialize because of the enormous losses the spring pig crop has sustained.

"A high sheep market all summer may be expected on account of meagre supplies. The shortage is general throughout the country, but most acute east of the Missouri river.

"Cattle should sell at higher levels. We are on the verge of a scarcity of beef producing animals that would have become acute before now had not the depression caused an increase in marketing at the same time it curtailed consumptive demand. The approach of warm weather improves the outlet for beef."

Among the principal items of trade interest in the pending new tariff with a comparison with the present duty, are:

WIRE SUMMARY
By E. F. HUTTON & CO. WIRES

United Gass Improvement of New York for 1921 reports after taxes and depreciation, including a loss of $2,736,000 in operation of Philadelphia gas works, a net profit of $2,717,0000, equal after preferred dividend to $1.88 a share common, against $1.81 in 1920.

Marland Oil Company and subsidiaries for 1921 report net income of $1,563,000 against $5,342,000 in 1920.

United Alloy Steel reports an operating profit for the first quarter of the year of $500,000.

Newcomb Carlton was added to the board of directors of the United States Rubber Company. Chairman Hedgwich reports that business is improving and that results for the first quarter of the year are eminently satisfactory.

Treasurer Mellon forecasts a deficit of $484,000,000 in the national budget for 1923 instead of $167,000,000, estimated in earlier computations.

British finances are improving as shown in the reduction of the floating debt by £24,000,000 for the week ended April 15.

Coming Events says: "Revival of activity in Loew's Inc., is reported to have been due to reports of improving conditions as regards the position and business of the concern. Gossip refers to retirement of short contracts as a result of rumors. There seems to be a feeling among interests close to insiders that the worst has been seen with regard to the company, the industry it represents, and that any change will be for the better."

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The steamer Chattanooga City unloaded 1800 tons of steel and tin plate at the Lawrence dock and was moved to the other side of the bay, where she will unload the rest of her cargo from the Atlantic coast.

On April 21 the steamer Knoxville City is due at the same dock with 1600 tons of steel and will be followed on the 28th by the steamer Crinoco with 2400 tons of steel.

Altogether there are 140,000 tons of steel ordered at Philadelphia, to be delivered within the next six months. Some will remain here, while 20,000 tons will go to Bombay, India; 12,000 tons to Calcutta, and much to the Orient. This with the great amount of lumber already ordered in the Northwest will make the shipping trade very interesting for some months to come, and many of the large idle steamers now at this harbor will be operated again.

The foreign oil market is still very dull and the oil companies of this port have several large tankers idle, but this business is expected soon to pick up again.

At the Parr Terminal, West Oakland, the French steamer St. Louis will unload her 5000-ton cargo from Bordeaux; she also has potash and steel from Belgium.

After finishing her overhauling at the Bethlehem shipyard, Alameda, the steamer Edna of the Sudden & Christinsen fleet, left here yesterday and will proceed north for a cargo of lumber. The steamer Catherine Sudden, another of the same company's fleet, will soon be ready for sea. She is overhauling at the Alameda shipyard.

After being idle at East Oakland harbor since June 31, 1920, when she arrived from Apia, the schooner Wm. G. Irwin, sailed for San Pedro yesterday to enter the movie trade. She was purchased a few days ago and was placed on the drydock for cleaning.

This craft has had some wild experiences since she was launched forty-one years ago at this port. For years she plied between this port and the Hawaiian Islands and had made several voyages in steamship time. At that time she was rigged as a brig. After larger vessels took the Hawaiian trade away, the Irwin has been in all sorts of trade and has had many owners. She recently was sold by the United States marshal for claims against her, but will now end her days as a movie "set" in the southern waters.

The funeral of Captain William Spohn was held yesterday afternoon at the parlors of James Taylor company, Fifteenth and Jefferson streets, and was attended by many officers of the ferry service, of which he was a member, and other friends. The pall-bearers were selected from masters and chief engineers of the Southern Pacific Company, as follows: Captain John Mathsen, Wm. Elsasser and Henry Hansen. Chief Engineers George Carson, N. McNamara and Geo. Seven. The services were conducted by the Master Mates and Pilots of Golden Gate Harbor, No. 40, of which Captain Spohn was a member.

The schooner Ecola, recently damaged while crossing over the Coos Bay bar, has been repaired and came off the drydock at Portland yesterday. She will load her cargo of lumber, which was removed from her when she was placed on the drydock, and proceed on her journey to the Orient.

The steam schooners Bandon, Acme and Elizabeth, which have been barbound at Bandon, Ore., for the past three weeks, were released yesterday and departed for Oakland harbor. The three crafts have 1,550,000 feet of lumber on board and will reach here tomorrow morning.

The steamers C. A. Smith with 1,500,000 feet of lumber from Coos Bay, and the Phoenix from Greenwood with 260,000 feet, reached here today.

Changes of masters registered at the U. S. customs house: Captain C. C. Titchworth steam tug Wyadda; Captain I. Sundmann, steamer Oregon; Captain Jos. P. Henry, bark Emily F. Whitney, and Captain Adolf Hansen, schooner Wm. G. Irwin.

BRITISH BUDGET TO SHOW LARGE DROP FROM 1921

Total Expected to Be About 891,000,000 Pounds; Industry Better.

LONDON, April 17.—The figures of the budget for the fiscal year 1922-23, that began on April 1, are yet to be announced. The probable expenditure may be estimated with a fair degree of accuracy, as follows:

Consolidated Fund Services	£370,000,000
Civil services	383,551,648
Army	62,300,000
Navy	64,883,700
Air	10,500,000
Total	£891,235,348

This is about £150,000,000 below the estimate of the fiscal year that have just closed.

The expiring budget saw its surplus reduced practically to an even balance. For the week ending March 25, an excess of £20,00,000 in expenditures reduced the surplus to 134,000,000, which might well be wiped out by reason of heavy outlay in the final week of the year. The chancellor's prediction of a healthy surplus, to go toward interest on foreign debts has unfortunately not been realized.

ENCOURAGING SIGNS.

Alongside the many factors of discouragement in the general situation there are some indications of a healthy basis of industry. The coal output remains surprisingly good. The weekly average for four weeke ending March 18, was 5,008,250 tons, that for the four weeks preceding was 4,861,000 tons. In the cotton trade there were no indications of harmful results following the arrest and conviction of Gandhi. Indeed, the facts seem to be that an impediment in the way of good business has been removed. Certainly, stocks in Calcutta must be down to a minimum.

Banks and associations are doing all within their power to facilitate the mechanical processes of trade. A plan is under consideration to extend marine insurance to cover goods in storage, during delivery and even while undergoing reshipment. The board of trade is examining others means to enable quotation of lower f. o. b. costs, in order to meet continental competition. A Civil Aviation Adivsory Board will be established, to secure from each industry advice as to the greatest measure of assistance to industry by commercial aviation, subsidizing policies form a part of the program. Through such cumulative measures it may be possible to reduce costs of shipment. Comparison of costs of an identical shipment in 1914 and 1921 revealed the figures £3281 in the former year and £10,308 in the latter. The journey required 43 and 55 days, respectively.

RECONSTRUCTION PROBLEMS.

In their efforts thus to get at the fundamentals affecting international trade and finance, industrials and economists will be much assisted by a series of twelve Reconstruction Supplements, to be published by the Manchester Guardian, under the editorial supervision of John M. Keynes. Their declared purpose is "to enable a wide circle of business readers to profit from the studies of others in a form which is more readily assimilable than the economic treatise." The first number will deal with problems of foreign exchange. Prominent American economists are among the long list of contributors.

Hammond Buys Mex. Seaboard

John Hays Hammond, Payne Whitney, Sinclair Oil interests, and associates have recently completed the purchase of several large blocks of the common stock of the Mexican Seaboard Oil Company. They were in control of the company previous to these purchases, which aggregate about 150,000 shares.

The Sinclair Oil Company owns about 25 per cent of the Mexican Seaboard common and its stock equity in the latter company now has a market value in excess of $10,000,000.

Among the Mexican Seaboard's extensive Mexican holdings is the entire Toteco Hacienda, comprising the main portion of the Toteco-Cerro-Azul pool. Mexican Seaboard sub-leases a portion of the acreage to the Mexican Gulf Company, from which it receives royalty oil. To date thirty-one wells have been drilled in this pool without a failure. Of these Mexican Seaboard owns eleven, Mexican Gulf eleven and Mexican Petroleum nine, the latter on the northern border of Cerro-Azul, offsetting wells of the Mexican Seaboard and Mexican Gulf in Toteco and one in Buena Vista Pump station in Toteco where Mexican Seaboard claimed ownership of sub-soil rights and which claim was recently established in the Mexican courts. The value of this ten-acre pumping station site is estimated to be $20,000,000.

In addition to its Toteco acreage the Mexican Seaboard owns leases on 8,000,000 acres of carefully geologized and selected lands reaching from Neuva-Leon and Tamaulipas on the Rio Grande to Territory Quintana on the Isthmus of Tehauntepec.

EXPLANATION OF SOUND WAVES IS AIR VIBRATIONS

By EDWARD M. SARGENT.

Sometimes when a piano or violin string is struck, a picture wire in the room will be found to vibrate and to send out the same note as the string. Other notes will not affect it, but one certain note will make it ring as if it had been struck itself.

The explanation is a simple problem in physics. When the violin string was struck it sent out sound waves in all directions, waves which were vibrations of the air. If the note was high, there was a large number of vibrations per second, possibly 800: if it was a low note, possibly 200. It is known that sound travels through air at a rate of about 1200 feet per second. Each vibration of the string creates a wave. If there were 800 vibrations per second, 800 waves would be created each second, and at the instant that the 800th wave was being generated, the first would be 1200 feet away. There would then be 800 waves evenly distributed along a line 1200 feet long, or the distance between any two wave crests would be 1½ feet. This distance is known as the wavelength. It can be readily seen that the higher the frequency of vibration of the string, the shorter the wavelength.

Suppose a weight is hung on the bottom of the picture. It would then be found that a different note from the violin would be required to affect the picture string. We have "tuned" the picture string to a different "wavelength," and although a number of different wavelengths are being sent out by the violin, the "transmitting station," only one affects the "receiving set." Thus there has been developed a system operated by sound waves, in which communication can be carried on, and in which the receiving station can choose at will the transmitter it wishes to receive. This system, though impractical, shows very clearly the principles on which wireless, or radio works.

There is one important difference between sound waves and wireless waves. Sound waves are motions of the air, created by vibration of different objects. Wireless waves are vibrations of the "ether"—a medium which fills all space—and are created by the vibration of electric currents. Sound waves affect the ear, because the air waves make the sensitive ear drum vibrate. Sound waves can thus be heard. Wireless waves are not vibrations of the air and therefore not even the waves from the wireless telephone can directly affect the ear. Some device must be used to change the electrical vibrations into sound. The most common instruments for this purpose are the telephone receiver and the loud speaking horn.

College Girls Have Radio Set

It was recently announced that fraternity houses in Berkeley were installing radio sets. It has since developed that a certain sorority house also has a radio set, but the girls say they do not want to be molested, so they have kept their set a secret. Shown here are MISS MARGARET CUNNINGHAM, taking down messages; MISS SUSANNE DUNN, listening in, and MISS ELEANOR BRENNAN seated at the right tuning in.

DEMONSTRATION OF RADIO WORK PROVES SUCCESS

"Radio Maid" Without Experience Tunes Set and Gets Fine Results.

A successful radio receiving demonstration was given in the ballroom of the Hotel Oakland last night by R. D. Lowell, operator and builder of one of The TRIBUNE'S portable radio sets. The operation of the apparatus was made so simple that Mrs. Lord Vincent Roberts (Frances Redman), posing as a radio maid, and wearing the latest costume, a radio gown, tuned in the set, although she had no previous experience in its operation.

The concerts from both The TRIBUNE station and Rockridge were heard on the magnavox without the aid of a power amplifier.

The occasion of the demonstration was the dance given by the Cherry Blossom branch of the Baby Hospital association, and an exhibition of sport costumes from the Hyman Sport Shop. A number of society maids demonstrated the latest sport models from Paris, among which was the radio gown.

Lowell, a builder of all kinds of radio sets, declared that the demonstration brought better results than he had anticipated. He is planning other demonstrations in the future which will be given under the direction of The TRIBUNE.

MILLIONAIRES WEAR MAID.

CHICAGO, April 22.—Several leading bankers are reported to have adopted the practice of wearing light coats of mail under their overcoats on the way to and from their offices.

Encore Is Demanded for "I Love You California," Sung by Elfreda Steindorff.

Thousands of radio fans throughout California were entertained and thrilled last night by the song, "I Love You, California," sung by Miss Elfreda Steindorff, over the ether waves from The TRIBUNE'S radio broadcasting station on the Hotel Oakland. So great was the demand for an encore that Miss Steindorff sang it over again.

"I Love You, California" was but one of the several special selections put on the ether wave last night from The TRIBUNE'S station for the special benefit of the grand parlor delegates of the Native Sons of California, who are in session in Oakland. The TRIBUNE'S concert was followed by one from Rockridge, which was also a special concert for the occasion. The Rockridge program was furnished by Paul Nutting's Syncopated Orchestra.

At the banquet of the past grand presidents of the Native Sons in the blue room of the hotel, The TRIBUNE'S portable radio receiving set intercepted the special concerts on an indoor aerial. The music and song came in clear and distinct, although the wires which intercepted the music from the air were inside the heavy concrete walls of the hotel.

LESSON N. 32.

The Two-Circuit Receiver.

The connections of a simple form of loosely coupled set are shown in the following diagram. In this receiving set the dimensions of the windings are so proportioned that the secondary winding (L-2) may be moved in and out of the primary winding (L-1). The primary of this loose coupler may be constructed by winding No. 24 S. S. C. wire on a cylindrical tube 6 inches long and 3½ inches in diameter. The secondary is wound with the same size wire on a tube 5 inches long and 3 inches in diameter. By the insertion of two rods through the ends of the secondary tube this winding may be moved in and out of the primary.

Circuit for Carborundum Detector

An adjutable slider on the turns of primary winding (1-1) regulates the number of turns, and consequently the amount of inductance connected in the aerial circuit. Tape from the secondary winding (L-2) are brought out to contacts and the inductance of the closed circuit is varied by the position of the switch (S). When the secondary winding is inserted as far as possible into the primary winding, the coupling is at a maximum and the tuning has a broad range of wave lengths with loud signals. For sharper tuning and for the purpose of reducing interference the secondary is drawn farther out of the primary. By connection of a variable condenser (C-2) of approximately 0,0005 mfd., as shown in the diagram, sharper tuning and stronger signals may be obtained. The crystal detector (D) is connected in series with the receiving telephones (P), around which is connected the telephone condenser (C-3). Taps are taken from the secondary winding about every ten turns and resonance is obtained between taps by means of the variable condenser (C-2). If a crystal of galena is used to rectify the radio-frequent currents, a light contact should be provided, so adjusted as to be moved over the surface of the crystal until a sensitive spot is located and loud signals obtained.

If a more stable adjustment is desired, a crystal of carborundum with the application of a local battery current and a contact point of firm pressure may be used.

A connection for a carborundum rectifier (D) in the secondary circuit is shown above. A battery (E), from 2 to 4 volts, is connected across the resistance coil (R). By adjusting the sliding contact on the resistance the amount of current flowing through the carborundum crystal can be regulated. This current should flow in a definite direction (determined by experiment) through the crystal in order to obtain the most satisfactory results.

It is important to note in connection with the operation of the loose coupler set explained above that the turns in use on the primary winding should be direct inductive relation to the turns in use on the secondary winding as inductive relation between the unused terms on each coil prevents sharp tuning.

TRADE ENVOYS, BY RADIO, KEEP PACE WITH NEWS

Eastbay Tourists' Train Carries Wireless; Tribune Station Heard.

Oaklanders aboard the special chamber of commerce San Joaquin valley excursion will receive news of the world over the radiophone. The special train was equipped with the latest in wireless and a capable operator is in charge.

The radio station was set up in the observation coach with the aerials running along the eaves of the car. Wallace Francisco, who will handle the apparatus, expects to keep the tourists informed as to events in their home city and to supply them with continuous concert music throughout the four days they are away from Oakland. Last night the excursionists listened in on The TRIBUNE'S broadcast.

The wireless equipment was furnished by the Magnavox company, Warner Brothers and Smith United Service company. The former furnished a Magnavox amplifier and a Magnavox loud-speaker, while Warner Brothers furnished the detector and aerials. Howard Baxter, of Smith United Service company contributed the batteries necessary for the trip.

Francisco is a former member of the United States Marines and was a wireless operator with the A. E. F. Since the war he was a wireless operator on the steamship Storm King, and for more than a year has been a laboratory technician with the Morehead Radio Laboratory in San Francisco.

C. E. Capwell, of the H. C. Capwell company, who also holds a first class license as an operator, secured during war time service, is a passenger on the train and expects to assist in making the wireless concerts a success. Capwell was the owner of the first radio station in California when, more than 12 years ago, his ability was recognized by the government and he was given the call 6-A-C. 6-A was a serial and he was privileged to add "C" for Capwell. During the war Capwell was wireless operator at Pearl Harbor, which at that time was regarded as the most powerful in the world.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

2. What capacity should the variable condenser across the secondary of a loose coupler be?

L. THOMAS.

2250 B. V. ave., Alameda, Cal.

1. For the ordinary antenna a .001 MF condenser is usually used.

2. The secondary condenser can be the same.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: Would you please tell me through your columns what is the cheapest price a radio set to receive with would cost?

FRANK HUNT.

R. D. No. 118A, Richmond.

1. The TRIBUNE'S crystal radio set can be purchased more cheaply than any other set we know of. The price is $7.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: I want to ask you some questions regarding a loose coupler.

1. If I make the primary 4 inches in diameter, should I make the secondary 3 or 3½ in diameter?

2. What size wire is the best for primary?

3. Secondary?

4. If the primary and secondary are six inches long how much of the specified wire will it take for the primary?

5. Secondary.

6. I intend to tape the secondary 15 times. Should I divide the secondary into 15 equal parts? Or is there some better way of doing it? If so, how?

7. Should the wires and the slider on the primary be connected?

8. How many meters will this tune up to by using the wire which you specify.

H. A. T.

1. Yes, these sizes would match up O. K.

2. Primary number eighteen enameled. Secondary number 28 cotton covered.

3. Any radio supply house can give you these figures.

4. Dividing the secondary up into an equal number of sections will be O. K.

5. After the primary is mounted, connect one binding post to the slider rod. This post is for the antenna. Connect one end of the primary to another binding post. This post is for the ground. Leave the other end of the coil open.

6. About 1800 meters.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) What stations are within 30 miles of Oakland?

2. What are directions for using a loose coupler with sliding rod on primary and taps on secondary?

3. How far could I receive with a loose coupler, 23-plate variable condenser, fixed condenser, dood detector, 3000 omh phones and a good aerial?

"RADIO BUG."

1. If you refer to radio telegraph stations there are several hundreds of them. Space does not permit printing a list. We refer you to the sixth district call book, which can be purchased at any radio store.

2. A diagram of connections for a loose coupler and crystal detector is furnished herewith.

DET.
F.C.

In tuning a station first set the secondary tap on the approximate wave length to be received, adjust the detector and move the slider of the primary until the signal is heard.

3. About twenty miles for music. Telegraph signals from 100 to 200 miles.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) With an auditron as a detector, what is the best tubes to use as amplifiers?

2. How many meters does the Sacramento Bee send on?

3. What is the price of the following single Baldwin phones: 1500 ohms, 2000 ohms and 3000 ohms?

4. Why is it the music comes in weaker in the inclosed diagram, and should I use larger wire. The receiver at the set is loud while the receiver two rooms away is weaker.

CHESTER SCHERTLE.

2646 Fourteenth avenue, Member No. 353.

1. Either A. P. or Radiotron.

2. 220 meters.

3. These prices will have to be obtained from one of the radio dealers.

4. The long wire to the horn is a bad feature, but we do not believe that the trouble lies there. When a phone receiver is placed on a horn, due to the fact that the signal is thrown out into a room rather than into your ear, makes it seem as if the signal is weaker. This is not the case, however. The signal is just as loud, but the vibrations spread rapidly from the horn causing it to be weaker, where as with an ear-piece the signal is concentrated in one spot hence the greater intensity.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) I am constructing a regenerative set. Which of the three enclosed diagrams is preferable?

2. If you suggest figure 1 or 2, would it help any to have the variable across the secondary, and if figure 3, how about the variometers.

3 All the operators up here are bothered by a low pitched hum. It is not continuous. What causes it and what is the remedy?

4. I want to get a second grade license, but you have to be able to receive at 10 words a minute. How will the radio inspector take my word for it?

LAURIE FISH,

Benecia, California.

1. We believe No. 2 will give the best results.

2. Yes, use a condenser across the secondary.

3. It is impossible to say what your trouble might be without inspecting your set.

4. He won't. Suggest you write to the Radio Inspector, Custom House, San Francisco, and explain your case.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: I am sending my first subscription for the $7 crystal set, and would like to know if it is possible to have a loop aerial with it.

CHARLES KROEGER,

2119 Forty-fifth ave., Oakland.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: I have a loose coupler detector and a fixed condenser. I used to receive Rockridge, TRIBUNE, Fairmont, Warner Brothers and Trinity Center. I used a 75-foot aerial. It is at right angles with the Grove street car line. I receive a steady hum. The stations I receive now are Warner Brothers and Sunnyvale. Enclosed is a diagram showing how the car lines run, and my hook-up. It does not work.

MEMBER NO. 743,

TRIBUNE Radio Club.

We believe your 75-foot antenna was the better of the two. Not knowing the exact conditions under which your set was installed, we can only guess at your trouble. There is probably a poor connection somewhere in your set. Better check up on it.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: Which is the best and most sensative vacuum tube, the socket type or the tube?

RADIO MAN,

5384 College avenue, Oakland.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: I am sending in my application for membership in The TRIBUNE Radio Club. I have only a small radio set now but am going to put up a larger set soon. Inclosed is a diagram of the aerial I expect to put up. Will the power lines interfere with my receiving? It is the only place where I can put up an aerial over 50 feet long.

KESTON RAMSEY.

Susanville, Cal.

You will probably get interference from the power lines. If you can put up a 50-foot four-wire antenna further away from the wires would advise you to do it. If you construct the antenna in position shown, use only two wires.

The "Mother of Medicine."

Isis, the Queen and afterwards the Goddess, was called the "Mother of Medicine." In ancient Egypt, centuries before Christ, women were skilled in medicine. They knew the great value of medicinal plants.

Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine," many centuries later, knew less of the merit of vegetable drugs than did the women of ancient times.

Lydia E. Pinkham, nearly fifty years ago, gave to women her Vegetable Compound, now known everywhere as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is a woman's medicine for woman's ailments, prepared from medicinal plants.—Advertisement.

It is good for you and your business

The rule applies to your business as it does to you personally.

Many firms practice such financial foresight by adding to their overhead a definite sum each month and investing it against future need.

Number Eleven of a Series

The Slogan of California's largest bank is—

"Build Strong"

Banking that Builds

The strength of a financial institution is largely measured by its organization, the size of its banking capital, the character and diversity of its resources, and the number of its depositors.

Other important factors are—the policies of the bank, and the executive ability and experience of the men at the helm.

The banking capital of the Bank of Italy totals more than Fifteen Million Dollars. Its resources are distributed over the entire state. They represent the very "blood and sinew" of California. This bank is the second largest in the United States in number of depositors. Its policies are progressive, constructive, and yet, consistently conservative. It is governed by a directorate of picked men—representing nearly every section of the state.
